General Course Information

This course, along with COUN 501, serves as one of the basic introductory courses in the Counseling Department. It is a requirement for all degree options and should be taken early in the student's preparation. A grade of "B" or higher must be earned in COUN 501, 510, 528, and 516 (or its equivalent for those seeking school counselor certification only), which is required before practicum (COUN 551).

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

This course evaluates student learning through three primary measurements:

Measurement 1: Knowledge (Discussion Posts)

Students will demonstrate foundational knowledge of major counseling theories and models through discussion posts that integrate course readings, reflect on theoretical concepts, and apply theory to counseling-related scenarios.

Measurement 2: Knowledge Comprehension (Theory/Chapter Summary Reviews)

Students will demonstrate comprehension of counseling theories by completing structured theory/chapter summary reviews. Students will accurately summarize key theoretical concepts, describe views of human nature and personality development, identify core techniques and therapeutic goals, and explain theoretical approaches to client change.

Measurement 3: Knowledge Integration (Theory Comparison Research Paper)

Students will demonstrate higher-order integration and applied conceptualization skills by completing a theory comparison research paper. Students will:

1. Articulate a personal worldview related to human nature, maladjustment, and change.
2. Analyze and compare two major counseling theories across core domains.
3. Integrate theoretical perspectives to evaluate alignment with their emerging personal model of counseling.

All SLOs address the relevant CACREP 2024 Standards identified in the syllabus.

2024 CACREP Standards Addressed in COUN 510

Masters Standard	Learning Activity	Assignment	Assessment Rubric	Benchmark

practices, including, but not limited to Psychoanalytic, Adlerian, Existential, Person-centered, Gestalt, Behavioral, Cognitive-behavioral, Reality, Family systems, and Solution-focused.

The school counselor understands how to plan, implement and evaluate a developmental guidance program, including counseling services, that promotes all students' success Competency 006 (Counseling)

The school counselor understands how to provide effective counseling services to individuals and small groups.

Competency 010 (Professionalism)

The school counselor understands and complies with ethical, legal, and professional standards relevant to the profession.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class, you will utilize the Learning Management System (LMS) entitled D2L for instructional and learning methods, submitting assignments, and participating in online discussions. You will need to utilize other technologies such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, etc. If you have issues with this system, it is your responsibility to contact the help desk immediately.

Instructional Methods

This course is delivered in an in-person format and includes lecture, class discussion, experiential learning activities, and assignments that integrate theory with practical application.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible for the active learning process. Expectations of this course include the following:

- You are expected to communicate professionally and respectfully with your professor and peers. Stay open to feedback and engage in a manner consistent with the expectations of the counseling profession.
- Engage regularly with all course materials. Complete assigned readings, videos, and activities throughout the week to stay aligned with the flow of the course.
- Submit all assignments by the posted deadlines. Timely submission supports your learning and reflects professional responsibility.
- Follow all university and program policies, including the student code of conduct.
- Participate actively in online discussions and course activities. Thoughtful engagement strengthens your learning and contributes to a supportive online community.

Counseling

EAST TEXAS A&M

- Use APA 7th edition formatting for all written work, as clear and professional writing is essential to counselor preparation.
- Check your university email frequently for updates from your instructor, department, or the university.
- Begin readings early in the week. Graduate-level material often requires time and multiple readings to fully understand.
- Plan ahead whenever possible. Deadlines represent the final submission time, not the ideal starting point.
- Approach the course with openness and patience. Developing as a clinical mental health counselor is a gradual process that involves ongoing reflection, effort, and growth.

Assignments/Assessments

***Note. All assignments are to be submitted in D2L

Attendance, Participation, and Preparation (20 points)

The exchange of ideas, opinions, questions, and information is an essential component of professional counselor development. Students are expected to attend class regularly, prepare for each week's topic by completing assigned readings and supplemental materials, and participate actively in in-class discussions and experiential activities. Students will draw upon course content and professional experiences to contribute thoughtful, respectful, and academically grounded engagement. Participation includes consistent professional and respectful interaction with peers and the instructor. As this course is foundational and experiential in nature, regular attendance, timely preparation, and active involvement in class activities are required. Late arrivals, missed class activities, or lack of preparation may result in point deductions. Any anticipated absences should be communicated in advance.

Attendance, Participation, and Preparation Rubric

Performance Level	Points	Description
3 - Exceeds Expectations	16-20 points	Consistently attends class and is fully prepared. Actively contributes to in-class discussions and experiential activities. Demonstrates professional, respectful, and thoughtful engagement. No more than one absence and no pattern of lateness.
2 - Meets Expectations	8-15 points	Regularly attends class and is adequately prepared. Participates in class discussions and activities in a professional manner. Two or fewer absences and no pattern of lateness.

Counseling

EAST TEXAS A&M

1 - Does Not Meet Expectations	0-7 points	Irregular attendance or inconsistent preparation. Limited participation in class discussions or activities. More than two absences or pattern of lateness.
--------------------------------	------------	--

D2L Discussion Boards (10 points for each discussion; 30 points total)

You are expected to give a thorough and thoughtful response to each prompt. These discussions are geared towards helping you begin the process of finding the theory that fits you best, and they will help you on your comparison paper. As a future professional and counselor- in-training, engagement in these threaded discussions will enhance your knowledge and understanding of various counseling theories and support the formation of your professional counselor identity.

In addition to the initial discussion, you will also respond to one of your classmates' discussion posts. The rubrics for the discussions are below. For the weeks with discussion posts, they will open on Monday and close the following Sunday night. Your initial post is due by Thursday at midnight, and your peer responses are due by Sunday at midnight. However, feel free to post earlier than Thursday. Please note that late postings will not be accepted.

Discussion Post Rubric

	1- Does Not Meet Expectation (0-7.9 points)	2- Meets Expectation (8.0-8.9 points)	3 - Exceeds Expectations (9-10 points)
Discussion (10 points)	Post is not complete, not written in a clear manner OR post is missing critical components of the question. Responses to classmates are not complete, missing critical components OR feedback is not thoughtful. Initial post is not completed prior to Thursday at 11:59PM.	Post presents most elements of the question OR all elements discussed in a brief manner. Responses to classmates present most elements in a brief manner. Initial post is completed prior to Thursday at 11:59PM.	Post presents all elements of the question(s) discussed thoroughly and clearly. Responses present all elements required thoroughly and clearly. Provided thoughtful feedback to peer. Initial post is completed prior to Thursday at 11:59PM.

Theory/Chapter Summary Reviews (4 points each; 40 points total):

Using the structure in Appendix A, you will complete a summative review on each theory at the end of the week we are scheduled to cover the theory. The review needs to be submitted to the appropriate drop box for the week in D2L by midnight on the due date in order to receive the four-point credit.

These will also serve as guides for you throughout the counseling program. Please see the Course Calendar for specific due dates. Please note that theory reviews that are uploaded after the due date will not receive credit. Each review should be approximately 2-3 pages in length and formatted according to APA 7th edition guidelines. You will complete 11 theory reviews for a total of 40 points, and I will drop the lowest grade on one theory. This means that you may choose to drop the lowest grade or skip a theory review and still receive full credit. All of your reviews must be uploaded in

Microsoft Word format. If you do not have the software on your computer, you need to obtain a copy of it

Theory/Chapter Reviews Rubric

	1- Does Not Meet Expectation (0-3.1 points)	2- Meets Expectation (3.2-3.5 points)	3- Exceeds Expectation (3.6-4.0 points)
Theory Overview	Did not select theories from the list of those that we studied in this class; missed basic concepts; writing is shallow and lacks in-depth	Theories were selected from the one that was discussed in class, most basic concepts are covered, evidence of possessing knowledge about the theories but missing one or two key points:	All basic concepts are covered. In depth review of related concepts. evidence of possessing knowledge about topic without missing key information; representative of graduate level work
Appendix A (4 points)	Exploration of theories; no evidence of synthetization across multiple sources; not representative of graduate level work	representative of graduate level work

Comparison Research Paper (30 points):

Using the structure in Appendix B, complete a theory comparison paper. The first section of this paper will include answering three questions about your own personal worldview:

- 1) What do you believe about human nature? (Are people basically good or bad? How much free will do people have? What kinds of inherent capacities do people possess?)
- 2) How do people become maladjusted?
- 3) How do people change?

Next, choose two theories of most interest to you from the list of theories studied during this class.

Using your textbook and four original sources for each theory, write a compare/contrast paper. Topics to compare and contrast should include the following (see Appendix A):

- Nature of person
- Personality development
- Emotional maladjustment
- Counselor/client relationship
- Techniques
- Therapeutic goals
- Multicultural considerations
- Treatment outcomes

Either as the closure for the paper or throughout the comparison, discuss how the theories and their parts align with your own personal views.

Counseling

EAST TEXAS A&M

This paper must follow APA 7th edition guidelines and should not exceed 12 pages (including cover and reference page; no abstract is necessary). You will be graded according to APA style, writing and organization, content, and references.

An original source is defined as a journal article or book authored or co-authored by a major contributor of that particular theory. This research paper needs to be submitted to the appropriate drop box in D2L by midnight on the due date in order to receive credit. The due date is before the end of the semester to give the instructor time to provide feedback. This paper must be submitted in Microsoft Word format.

Comparison Research Paper Rubric

	1 - Does Not Meet Expectation	2 - Meets Expectation	3 - Exceeds Expectation
Answer the three theory questions about yourself. (10 points)	Did not answer the three theory questions, or only answered some of the questions. Writing is shallow and lacks in-depth exploration of self. Not representative of graduate level work  (0-7.9 points)	Three theory questions are discussed at a basic level. Self-exploration present, missing one or two key points; representative of graduate level work  (8-8.9 points)	Three theory questions are covered at an in-depth level. Self-awareness is demonstrated; representative of graduate level work  (9-10 points)
Compare and contrast two original theories from the ones studied in this class; describe fit for you at this point. (15 points)	Did not select theories from the list of those that we studied in this class. Missed basic concepts. Writing is shallow and lacks in-depth exploration of theories. No evidence of synthetization across multiple sources; did not address fit; not representative of graduate level work  (0-11.9 points)	Theories were selected from the ones that were discussed in class, most basic concepts are covered, evidence of possessing knowledge about the theories but missing one or two key points; minimally reflected as to personal fit; representative of graduate level work  (12-13.4 points)	All basic concepts are covered. In-depth review of related concepts, evidence of possessing knowledge about topic without missing key information; increased self-awareness included in personal fit; representative of graduate level work  (13.5-15 points)

APA Format Reference Page (5 points)	Did not follow APA format in cover page, body of the paper and the reference page. Did not use four original sources for each theory selected. Sources are not related to the topic of paper  (0-3.9 points)	APA format was followed with one or two minor errors. Mostly original sources were used. Sources are related to the selected theories  (4-4.4 points)	APA format was followed with no errors on cover page, in body of the paper or reference page. All four original sources were used  (4.5-5 points)

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- 90%-100% = A (108-120 points)
- 80%-89% = B (96-107 points)
- 70%-79% = C (84-95 points)
- 60%-69% = D (72-83 points)
- <59% = F (71 points and below)

Assignment/Assessment	Point Value
Attendance and Participation	20
Threaded Discussions (10 points each)	30
Theory/Chapter Reviews (4 points each)	40
Comparison Research Paper	30
Total	120

Late Assignments

Late assignments will generally not be accepted. Late papers will have 10% deduction per day late from the final score. However, I understand that life happens, and special consideration may be given on a case-by-case basis. If you are facing extenuating circumstances, please communicate with me as soon as possible to discuss potential extensions. Open and timely communication is key.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Communication with your professors is key to your professional growth. I am here to support and guide you along your academic journey. Please feel free to make an appointment if you have any concerns or questions. Email is the best way to reach me, and I strive to respond within 24-48 hours, Monday through Friday, though sometimes it may take up to 72 hours.

Correspondence will always be through university email (your “myLeo” mail) and announcements in myLeo online (D2L). You will not RECEIVE email through D2L, so be sure to check your ETAMU email for communication. Students are encouraged to check their university email daily.

Include the Following in Emails with Instructor:

- Course name and subject in the subject line
- Salutation (Good afternoon, Dr. )
- Proper email etiquette (no “text” emails - use proper grammar and punctuation)
- Student name and CWID after the body of the email (possibly add to student signature on email)

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors 'guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Appendix A: THEORY REVIEW AND COMPARISON PAPER WRITE-UP

Points to cover in the theory review write-ups (the following points need to be included as a minimum in your weekly theory reviews and in your final comparison paper).

1. Founder(s) of the theory.
2. Nature of the person including innate capacities and/or capabilities, if any, and motivational constructs according to the theory.
3. Nature of maladjustment (how do people develop mental illness?) according to the theory.
4. Goals of counseling therapy according to the theory.
5. Role and activity of the counselor, including:
  - major techniques used in the therapy
  - diagnosis and appraisal devices (if applicable)
  - evaluation of client progress in therapy
6. Is this a theory you would want to utilize as a future clinician based on what we have discussed and what you have reviewed so far? How might this approach resonate with you for personal fit in working with your future clients?

Additionally, for the final comparison paper: Reflect from the theories presented this semester, select two, include the above and also describe how at the end of the semester and review of theories presented, the one(s) you selected fit best at this time for you personally

Appendix B: THEORY REVIEW AND COMPARISON PAPER WRITE-UP

Section I: Your Personal Worldview

1. What do you believe about human nature? Are people basically good or bad? How much free will do people have? What kinds of inherent capacities do people possess? These are a few questions that address the inherent nature people have at birth. What do you believe?
2. How do people become maladjusted? Why do they develop problems? How does it happen?
3. How do people change? What needs to happen for change to occur?

Section II: Comparison of Two Theories

Choose two theories of most interest to you from the list of theories studied during this class.

Using your textbook and 4 original sources for each theory, write a compare/contrast paper.

Topics to compare and contrast should include the following:

1. Founder(s) of the theory.
2. Nature of the person including innate capacities and/or capabilities, if any, and motivational constructs according to the theory.
3. Nature of maladjustment (how do people develop problems/mental illness) according to the theory.
4. Goals of counseling therapy according to the theory.
5. Role and activity of the counselor, including:
  - a. major techniques used in the therapy
  - b. diagnosis and appraisal devices
  - c. evaluation of client progress in therapy
6. Is this a theory you would want to utilize as a future clinician based on what we have discussed and what you have reviewed so far? How might this approach resonate with you for personal fit in working with your future clients?

Section III: Closure

Either as the closure for the paper or throughout the comparison, discuss how the theories and their parts align with your own personal views.

Research paper must follow American Psychological Association (APA) guidelines and should not exceed 12 pages (including cover and reference page; no abstract is necessary). You will be graded according to APA style, writing and organization, content, and references.
