COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class you will utilize the Learning Management Systems (LMS) D2L for instructional and learning opportunities, submitting your assignments, participating in online synchronous and asynchronous discussions, accessing resources, and completing quizzes/tests. Additionally, knowledge and skills in using Microsoft Word PowerPoint and Outlook Email, If you have any issues with using the various systems or software, it is your responsibility to contact support services and to notify the instructor of the problem.

Instructional Methods

In addition, small lectures, discussion activities and workshops may be utilized to provide instruction during this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible to engage in active learning and reaching out to the instructor if there are problems or challenges that is interfering in optimal learning. Communication is key when engaged in a fully online, virtual environment.

Expectations for success include:

1. Always demonstrate professional behavior, including demonstrating respect for instructor and peers; being open to feedback and guidance throughout this class and in the program.
2. Adhered to the School of Social Work and University student code of conduct, along with NASW Code of Ethics.
3. Begin reading the assigned text and supplemental readings as soon as possible, with a focus on completing all readings prior to engagement with instructor or peers.
4. Prepare to engage in live class sessions, discussions, and other activities so you can be a contributor as well as receiver of knowledge and skills.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% of total points

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Important: All weekly assignments and examinations are due in D2L by the due date. For the 3 Application Activities, 10 points will be deducted from the assignment grade for every day past the due date.

As social work students, you will have many deadlines in practice that you will be expected to meet. Many times, not meeting deadlines can result in an adverse effect on your clients' lives. It can also result in termination of employment. The School of Social Work feels it is good to help you get into the habit of meeting those expectations now vs. later. Our goal for each of you is to be successful not only in this course but also in the practice setting.

Thank you for understanding and your willingness to take the first step toward your own success.

Evaluation for course grades is according to the following formula:

Chapter Quizzes (10 quizzes @ 10 points each) Note: the lowest quiz grade will be dropped	100 points

School of Social Work & Council on Social Work Education-Specific Policies

Course Engagement

Final Evaluation and Grade Depend on both Classroom Attendance and Participation. Inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both Face-to-Face classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material. To earn a level of competency within a specific course, students must demonstrate mastery of BOTH content and active engagement.

Mastery of content areas is evidenced by the successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes, and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, the Social Work Profession is built upon human interactions and building human relationships – which is defined as engagement. Engagement in each course is the meaningful involvement in interactions with the Instructor, peers, and outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment or interviewing for an internship). Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or Face-to-Face (F2F), students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities may include, but are not limited to, participation in live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a F2F course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions, and collaborating in group interactive projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and meet the threshold of active engagement of the time set during a semester by the Instructor.

Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet to successfully complete each course.

Class Attendance and Participation

Face-to-Face Classes

Students are expected to attend classes scheduled to meet Face-to-Face, reflecting the responsibility inherent in developing as a social work professional. Roll call will be taken regularly. Students are expected to be on time and prepared to participate when class begins, as well as, be present throughout the entire class meeting. Classroom exercises, discussions, role plays, guest speakers, and other in-class experiential exercises are essential for a student's professional learning and continued development of self-awareness.

For classes that meet once a week, students can be absent up to 2 times through the semester with no penalty. If 3 absences occur, the overall grade will be dropped 1 letter grade. If 4 absences occur (25% of the scheduled classes), the student will be dropped 2 letter grades or may result in failing the class.

Online, Web-Enhanced Or Blended Classes

Just as students are required to attend face-to-face classes, students are required to log in and participate in online components. To receive credit for attendance online via D2L, students must log in and complete assignments in a timely manner. Not logging in to D2L to review the instructional material and completing assignments online during the appropriate time is the equivalent of an absence for each week this occurs.

Final evaluation and grades depend on both presence and participation. Students' grades will be significantly impacted by inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment each week established by each Instructor. Students are expected to spend a comparable amount of time in the online learning environment as they would in class (3 hours a week in the classroom). In addition, as in traditional F2F classrooms, students are expected to invest time in reading and studying class materials.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the University Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct and National Association of Social Workers' (NASW) Code of Ethics.

Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or to the Department Head. More serious offences by be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p 35)

Social Work students conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner.

Closely linked with professional recognition is the social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards. It is imperative for professional social workers to be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain the public trust. It is essential that each social work student gain a thorough understanding of the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate in behavior, both in and out of the classroom. Student conduct is to reflect the tenets of NASW Code of Ethics (located at <https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp>) on the NASW website: <https://www.socialworkers.org>

University Code of Conduct located in the Student Guidebook at

<http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf> (pp 34- 66). On the University Website under Campus Life Documents

To become aware of university policies related to student academic and behavioral expectations for students refer to the Guidebook

APPENDIX A “APPLICATION ACTIVITIES”

Application Activity #1 - Engaging with Diverse Populations (100 points)

Attend a cultural event or activity that is different than a group with which you identify. This can be a church service, a social event, community festival... any activity in which there's a predominant cultural/ethnic/focal population present and DIFFERENT than your own.

Write a 3-4 page reflection paper

- I. Summarize the purpose of the event
- II. Perceived perspective of the group participating in the event
- III. Your reaction to the experience.

Respond to the following questions as a part of your reaction:

- a. What experiences have you had with members of this population group?
 - b. What self-identities and attitudes did you bring to this experience?
 - c. What are the strengths, vulnerabilities, and power imbalances faced by this population group?
- IV. Use the framework related to Cultural Humility highlighted in Table 3.2 as a part of your analysis.
 - V. Implications of intersectionality of this group or population – what are the dimensions of intersectionality within this population? What are possible issues of power, privilege, discrimination, and oppression identified by members of this population (or through review of professional knowledge base)? What frameworks are useful in understanding population dynamics? (Review Spotlight 3.2 from text)
 - VI. Conclude with your overall assessment of this experience and how it influences your view of engaging with diverse populations in macro practice.

Application Activity #2 – Agency Analysis (100 points)

Choose a human service organization in your community, or possibly an agency you're interested in doing your field internship. Follow the outline below, BUT refer to content from Ch. 7 for context. Write a 4-5 page paper addressing the areas from the outline.

Use the headings to organize your paper. DO NOT PLAGIARIZE – any information taken from agency sources (websites, brochures, etc.) need to be paraphrased (put in your own words). Include citations from any sources. It may be helpful to interview agency personnel to obtain needed information. I will be checking info from websites, FB, etc., and plagiarized information will have significant point deductions, or a grade of "F"

I. Description of the agency (include it's location and service area)

- Mission
- Goals
- Objectives
- Purpose, services, and programs
- Philosophy

II. Describe the agency structure:

- Board of Directors/Chief Executive Officer?
- Corporate/Private?
- Director of Program/Supervisory functions?
- Reporting hierarchy? (you may use a flow chart to clarify).

III. Describe the agency setting:

- Urban? Rural? Multiple locations?
- Referral sources?
- Network with other agencies?

IV. Describe the population served:

- Target population? Are there age limits for services?
- Prerequisites to admission?
- Admissions/services limited on the basis of diversity issues?
- Admissions/services mandated by funding services?
- Are some populations over/under represented?

V. Describe the funding sources for the agency:

- Private? Public? Insurance reimbursement?
- Medicare/Medicaid required?
- Grants?
- State authorizations?

VI. Assessment of agency strengths and weaknesses

- Your conclusion of agency's strengths and areas of weakness – what could be improved to enhance services

Application Activity #3 – Community Involvement & Oversight (100 points)

Attend a community meeting (city council, school board, planning/zoning meeting, county commissioner's court, public hearing for a planned change, etc.). Record the purpose of the meeting, the key participants (public leaders, elected figures, etc.), who was in attendance, key points of discussion, and any decisions that were made.

Write a 3-4 page paper which includes the following in narrative, using full sentences and paragraphs:

- Date, time, location, and purpose of meeting
- Key participants (number, roles/purpose, etc.)
- Key points of discussion (summary) & any decisions that were made
- Observations about the overall meeting process
- Referring to Table 4.2 on "Functions of Community", address one or more of these functions that were reflected in the community meeting.
- Refer to the section on Strengths, Empowerment and Resilience Perspectives (in section on Contemporary Perspectives, and refer to Table 4.9). Assess the content of the meeting in terms of one or more of these perspectives.
- Conclude your paper with a one paragraph summary and conclusion.
