Course Description

This course provides foundation students with knowledge and theoretical understanding of human development's bio-physical, psychological, and behavioral aspects within various social systems. In this course, we will study human development with attention to the interaction between individuals and families and the changing social environment that pertains to the phases of adulthood. Traditional approaches to life stages will be considered, as well as less traditional issues such as the impact on human development of different cultures, poverty, physical/mental disabilities, gender roles, sexism, ageism, and sexual orientation.

Relationship to Other Courses:

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) requires a competency-based approach to identifying and assessing what students demonstrate in practice. In social work, this approach involves assessing students' ability to demonstrate the competencies identified in the educational policy. Listed below are the competencies and associated knowledge, skills, values, and/or cognitive and affective processes that comprise the expected outcomes for this course.

	Activity/Assessment	Dimension
Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
Make ethical decisions by applying the NASW Code of Ethics standards, Relevant laws and regulations, models for ethical decision-making, ethical conduct of research, and additional codes of ethics as appropriate to context.	In the News
Use reflection and self-regulation to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations.	In the News
Demonstrate professional demeanor in behavior, appearance, and oral, written, and electronic communication.	In the News
Competency 2: Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice
Apply and communicate an understanding of the importance of diversity and difference in shaping life experiences in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels.	Culture Other than their own
Present themselves as learners and engage clients and constituencies as experts in their own experiences.	Culture Other than their own
Apply self-awareness and self-regulation to manage the influence of personal biases and values in working with	Culture Other than their own diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations and Communities
Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with clients and constituencies.	Course Quizzes Culture Other Than Their Own
Use empathy, reflection, and interpersonal skills to effectively engage diverse clients and constituencies.	Course Quizzes Culture Other Than Their Own

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class, you will utilize the Learning Management Systems (LMS) D2L for instructional and learning opportunities, submitting assignments, participating in online synchronous and asynchronous discussions, accessing resources, and completing quizzes/tests. Additionally, you have knowledge and skills in using Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Outlook Email; if you have any issues using the various systems or software, you must contact support services and notify the instructor of the problem.

Instructional Methods

This course will be delivered via synchronous and asynchronous sessions via D2L and will consist of live class sessions, pre-recorded lectures, group engagement activities, and various assignments. Some of these will include experiential learning and practical application of the content areas. In addition, small lectures, discussion activities, and workshops may provide instruction during this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible for engaging in active learning and contacting the instructor if problems or challenges interfere with optimal learning. Communication is key when engaged in a fully online, virtual environment.

Expectations for success include:

1. Always demonstrate professional behavior, including respect for the instructor and peers and being open to feedback and guidance throughout this class and the program.
2. Adhered to the School of Social Work and University student code of conduct and the NASW Code of Ethics.
3. Begin reading the assigned text and supplemental readings as soon as possible, focusing on completing all readings before engaging with the instructor or peers.
4. Prepare to engage in live class sessions, discussions, and other activities so you can contribute and receive knowledge and skills.
5. Participate in engagement activities, including live virtual class sessions, online discussions, and interactive learning opportunities. This is vital for learning and success in this course and the program.

6. Work ahead when possible, completing assignments before the due date so you are prepared to submit them on the due date.
7. Sign into the D2L course multiple times weekly to access updated announcements or posted resources.
8. Check your university email daily. This is the official method of communication by the university, department, and instructor.
9. Be open and focused on the “process” and not the “product,” as earning this degree requires time, effort, and work, as well as growth in knowledge, skills, abilities, and personal and professional attributes.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% of total points

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

ASSIGNMENT	POINTS
IN THE NEWS (3 @ 25 points each)	75 POINTS
CULTURAL EXPERIENCE	100 POINTS (50/50 Paper and Presentation)
QUIZZES (8 @ 10 points each)	80 POINTS
Discussions (3 @ 15 points each)	45 POINTS
TOTAL:	300 POINTS

Assessments

1. IN THE NEWS (3 papers @ 25 points = 75 points)

SEE APPENDIX A: RUBRIC

You will need to choose a current event story from any media source that reflects the content of the readings up to this point and will need to be ready to discuss with the class. You will also write a one to two-page double-spaced paper applying the reading assigned for the week (see course calendar). This means you will use and cite content in the chapter with current events. The paper should identify and critique at least two key points from the reading.

IMPORTANT: (See RUBRIC)

- Points will be deducted for not citing the text two times at a minimum.
- Points will be deducted for using the first person singularly or plural.

2. CULTURAL EXPERIENCE: ENGAGE WITH A CULTURE OTHER THAN YOUR OWN: (100 points: 50 pts. for Paper and 50 pts. for Presentation) MAKE SURE TO FOLLOW THE RUBRIC

SEE RUBRIC: APPENDIX B

You must have a cultural experience with a culture other than your own. This could be a celebration, religious service, theater production, LGBTQIA+, AA/NA open meeting, or other event that meets the criteria. Please step outside your comfort zone. Write a 2–3 page reflection paper detailing your experience(See Below). You need evidence (a ticket stub or program) to demonstrate that you attended. This reflection paper can be written in the first person. Please correct any grammatical errors on the paper before submission.

- Describe why you chose this particular culture/event and why it was essential to experience it.
- Describe the event – what you saw/experienced.
- Describe your impressions – what you liked and did not like – whether anything surprised or made you uncomfortable.
- Cite the textbook 2 Times with APA format, relating the cultural experience to topics in the textbook.
- The paper should conclude with what you learned from the experience and how that will impact your practice in social work. IF YOU CAN INCORPORATE these areas above into your presentation (such as on slides), YOU will ONLY NEED TO DO THE PRESENTATION

- Please be creative!
- I would like as many of you to present your experience; however, you will NOT receive a deduction if you do not. The presentation and paper (if both are needed) must be uploaded to D2L in the correct folder.

3. QUIZZES: (Eight Quizzes @ 10 pts each TOTAL: 80 points)

Quizzes will be given, which reflect content from all weekly assigned material, including lectures, videos, handouts, and class readings. Each quiz will consist of 10 questions from the corresponding chapters, and you will be given extended time to complete once you enter the quiz. I want you to learn the material and not just memorize it. Each quiz will open with the course but close on Sunday nights at 11:30 pm each week, corresponding to the assigned chapter. You must take the quiz within the allotted period. You cannot make up a quiz if it is missed. The format may include multiple choice, true/false, short answer, and essay questions.

4. DISCUSSIONS (3 Discussions @ 15 pts. each, TOTAL: 45 points).

There are THREE discussions for this course. During the week the discussion is assigned, students must respond to the instructor's prompt by 11:30 pm Wednesday with 8-10 sentences that cite the textbook or other empirical literature at least TWO times.

Then, students are to respond to TWO peers between Thursday and Sunday the same week by 11:30 p.m. on Sunday with 3-5 sentences to each peer. "Me too, I agree, etc." does not constitute a reasonable response. Please use critical thinking and writing skills aligned with this level of education. I appreciate those responses to your peers who may have different thoughts than what you posted.

Please be mindful that we can discuss difficult subject matters professionally and respectfully.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by East Texas A&M University University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are the technical requirements

University Rules on Research

Students involved in conducting research and/or scholarly activities at Texas A&M University-Commerce must also adhere to standards set forth in University Procedure 15.99.03.R1 Ethics in Research, Scholarship, and Creative Work.

AI Use Policy

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that can generate text or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the course instructor.

Any use of such software must be documented. Undocumented use constitutes academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow the use of such software entirely for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided, the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. Furthermore, if your work is identified as AI-generated, whether written or paraphrased, I will only grade the portion of the paper that is not identified as AI-generated. For example, if a paper is identified as 75% AI-generated, only 25% of the grade will be awarded.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources. [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Course Engagement

Final Evaluation and Grade depend on Classroom attendance and Participation. Inadequate participation or a lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both Face-to-Face classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material.

Students must demonstrate mastery of content and active engagement to earn competency within a specific course.

Mastery of content areas is evidenced by successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes, and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, social work is built upon human interactions and building human relationships, defined as engagement. Engagement is interacting with the instructor, peers, and outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment). Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or F2F, students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities may include but are not limited to participation in live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a Face-to-Face course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions, and collaborating in group interactive projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and the threshold of active engagement of the time set during a semester by the instructor.

Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet to complete the course successfully.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the University Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct, and National Association of Social Workers (NASW) Code of Ethics.

Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or the Department Head. More serious offenses will be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p 35)

Social Work students conduct themselves ethically and professionally. The social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards is closely linked with professional recognition. Professional social workers must be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain public trust. Each social work student must thoroughly understand the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate behavior in and out of the classroom. Student conduct is to reflect the NASW Code of Ethics tenets (<https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp>) on the NASW website: <https://www.socialworkers.org>.

University Code of Conduct is in the Student Guidebook at

<http://www.ETAMU.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf> (pp 34- 66). On the University Website, under Campus Life Documents

To become aware of university policies related to student academic and behavioral expectations for students, refer to the Guidebook.
