COURSE DESCRIPTION

Catalogue Description of the Course

545. Developmental Issues/Strategies for Counseling. Three semester hours.

This course provides an overview of theory and research related to human growth and development over the lifespan. In addition to meeting the core curricula objectives required for accreditation, the course provides specific developmentally appropriate interventions and culturally sensitive developmental assessments supported by research that are designed to enhance the growth and development of clients who seek counseling services. Students also will engage in experiential activities designed to enhance their own growth and development.

General Course Information

This course includes studies that provide an understanding of the nature and needs of individuals at all developmental levels. Building upon this understanding, the course includes strategies that counselors can use to facilitate optimal human development and assess development across the lifespan. Activities to enhance student self-awareness are also incorporated.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

Measurement 1 (Knowledge):

I. Attachment Assignment. Students will demonstrate understanding of attachment and the impact it can have on client development and interpersonal difficulties.

Measurement 2 (Skills):

I. Developmental Assessment Paper. Students will apply knowledge on development to two separate case studies. Students will include discussion of the impact of development on emotional regulation,

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Counseling

EAST TEXAS A&M

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class, you will utilize the Learning Management System (LMS) entitled D2L for portions of instructional and learning methods, submitting assignments, participating in online discussions, and completing quizzes. You will need to utilize other technologies such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, etc. If you have issues with this system, it is your responsibility to contact the help desk immediately.

Instructional Methods

This course consists of lecture and didactic learning methods, small group discussions, and in-class assignments, coupled with experiential learning and practical application. When we are not meeting face to face, you will be expected to participate and complete all online tasks via D2L. In addition to this, small lecture, discussion, activities, and workshops may be utilized during this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible for the active learning process. Expectations of this course include the following:

1. You are expected to display professionalism at all times. Be respectful of your professor and peers. Be open to feedback, as you will receive this throughout the program.
2. Prepare for classes. Complete any and all readings prior to class time.
3. Complete all assignments by the deadline.
4. Adhere to the university student code of conduct.
5. Participate. During face-to-face classes, you are expected to actively participate in all activities and discussion. In the online format, you are expected to participate in all online discussions/activities. This is crucial to your learning.
6. All writing assignments must be done according to APA 7th edition.
7. Regularly check your university email. My suggestion is to check this at least once a day as your instructors and others from the department and University may contact you.
8. Begin your readings ASAP. Sometimes it may take more than one attempt to digest the material.
9. Deadlines are the last possible moment something is due—not the first moment to start. Work ahead. I realize this may not always be possible; however, when you can, do so.
10. Be open to the process. This degree takes time, work, effort, and growth.

Assignments/Assessments

1. Developmental Assessment (100 points): To complete this assignment, you will (a) watch a YouTube video and (b) read part of a chapter in Playground Politics (1993).

Video: This video shows Stanley Greenspan talking about emotional development in babies, doing a developmental assessment on a baby and recommending an intervention to the mother of the baby. To access Greenspan's assessment of the baby, click on the following link and begin at the 10:30 mark of the video. You can stop at 14:00 mark.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

<https://vimeo.com/44930499>

After watching the video, answer the following questions.

1. What were Greenspan's findings about this baby boy?
2. What made it harder for this baby to calm down?
3. What intervention did Greenspan recommend to the mother?
4. How did the intervention change the relationship between mother and child?

Playground Politics Reading: Chapter 2, Joey's Story

The reading also is from Greenspan and describes his assessment of a 9-year-old boy who is extremely aggressive at school. After you complete the reading, respond to the following questions.

5. How would you describe the problems Joey was having?
6. How did Greenspan assess Joey's development?
7. After doing his assessment, what was Greenspan's conclusion about Joey's aggression and other facets of his development?
8. Like he did with the baby in the video, Greenspan recommended an intervention for the mother to use with Joey called floor time (a detailed description of the intervention is in chapter 8). Write a paragraph or two explaining what floor time is.
9. How did Joey change in this chapter?

Developmental Assessment Rubric

	1 – Does Not Meet Expectation (0-7 points)	2 – Meets Expectation (8-8.9 points)	3 – Exceeds Expectation (9-10 points)
Infant Assessment (10 points)	Inaccurate and/or inadequate explanation of Greenspan assessment of baby	Accurate and/or adequate explanation of Greenspan assessment of baby	Insightful and perceptive explanation of Greenspan assessment and understanding of importance of early assessment
Intervention (10 points)	Inadequate description of intervention Limited grasp of how intervention impacted mother-baby relationship	Adequate description of intervention Adequate grasp of how intervention impacted mother-baby relationship	Insightful and perceptive explanation of intervention and clear understanding of how intervention impacted relationship

2. CACREP KPI: Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACE) Assignment (100 points): To complete this paper you will need to use the following resources: the ACE video, the ACE test, and the ACE research study.

Part I- Familiarizing yourself with ACE information

I would recommend that you watch the video first.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=95ovIJ3dsNk&t=7s>

Please take your time watching and listening to Dr. Burke Harris. Her TED talk is excellent. In addition to explaining how ACEs affect long-term mental health, she helps us understand how physical health is impacted by ACEs. Also, she focuses on neuroscience (including the limbic system) and how abuse and other ACEs affect brain development.

Next, take the ACE test (D2L).

Part II- Written assignment

After watching the video, taking the test and reading the article, you will be prepared to write the assignment. Your paper is not APA format, so you can put your name on page 1 and start writing. I would guess that your paper will be 3-5 pages. Please do not make it more than 5 (no title or reference pages).

As we have been doing, your paper will be both academic and personal. Please include and address the following in your paper.

- A two-paragraphs summary of the impact of ACEs according to Dr. Burke Harris in the video
- Your personal reaction to her talk (1-2 paragraphs)
- Your ACE score, which items were problematic (or if you got a 0 you won't have any) and your response to your own ACE score (2-3 paragraphs)
- Anything else you want to share about your family of origin related to stress, trauma and fear (1-2 paragraphs)
- Your personal and professional thoughts about the article (including interesting findings, questions, and your own thoughts in response to specific statements in the article; 2-3 paragraphs)

CACREP KPI: ACE Assignment Rubric

3 – Exceeds Expectations (90-100 points)	Student had an insightful understanding of adverse childhood experiences and was able to communicate the importance of how adverse childhood experiences impact (i.e., trauma) development. Personal reaction indicated a clear understanding of the importance of ACE and how trauma, when left unaddressed, can have a profound impact on one development.
2 – Meets Expectations (80-89 points)	Student had adequate understanding of adverse childhood experiences and was able to communicate the importance of how adverse childhood experiences impact development. Personal reaction indicated an understanding of the material.
1 – Does Not Meet Expectations (0-79 points)	Student did not appear to understand the importance of adverse childhood experiences and was able to communicate the importance of how adverse childhood experiences impact development. Explanation was either inaccurate or missed essential elements. Personal reaction lacked insight.

3. CACREP KPI: Autobiographical Developmental Paper (100 points): This assignment assesses your understanding of developmental models and your ability to apply the models to a person: you. Beginning in your early childhood, you will assess your own development and describe your growth and progress developmentally. You will write an extensive autobiographical paper that applies developmental theories to your life. You will be expected to write an honest, in-depth account of your own development. The paper will be in APA format, but also autobiographical. Appendix A provides detailed instructions sheet that will list all of the issues that you will need to address in this paper.

CACREP KPI: Autobiographical Developmental Paper Rubric

	1 – Does Not Meet Expectation (0-15.9 points)	2 – Meets Expectation (16-17.9 points)	3 – Exceeds Expectation (18-20 points)

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructor's guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Appendix A

CACREP KPI: Autobiographical Developmental Paper

Take an honest look at yourself without judging yourself. You will apply several developmental theories to your own life. This paper will be in APA (7th Edition) style, 12-point Times New Roman font, double-spaced, but it obviously involves your opinion. You will support your opinions with various developmental theories and concepts that we have covered in class. Be extremely honest with yourself. Try to be really honest with me as well. The paper will be from 8-10 pages of text (not including the title page or reference page). I will expect you to cite resources that have been used in the course.

Child development

Discuss your development in childhood. Please include the following:

A description of the attachment between you and your mother (You may need to interview other people who knew her then.) Describe how you think your mother was during your first two years of life. Use the attachment handout for categories such as affectionate, available, distracted, etc. You may want to use Perry's model to discuss attachment and Piaget and Greenspan's models to discuss early development.

Describe how you progressed through Erikson's first four psychosocial stages.

Use five adjectives to describe your mother and father as you think they were during your elementary school years. Please elaborate and explain the adjectives. Discuss the impact they had on you. Specifically, describe the relationship and level of trust you had with your parents. Include at least one negative adjective per person.

Using a Maslowian model, describe your elementary school years. For example, how safe did you feel? How was your self-esteem?

Describe your social life during elementary school years. Use Greenspan's Playground Politics as a developmental model. What significant experiences seemed to have an impact on you at this age?

Adolescent development

Using the Havighurst developmental tasks of adolescence model, discuss how you handled each task. What significant experiences seemed to have an impact on you at this age? What kinds of messages about sex did you get from your parents? How did these messages affect you?

Using Loevinger's ego development model, describe your ego development.

Counseling

EAST TEXAS A&M

Discuss your moral development using either Kohlberg's and Gilligan's models. Give examples of moral choices and dilemmas you have faced. Be honest.

Adult development

What impact have adults had on your development? How have adults facilitated your growth and development? How have they hindered it? What messages did you get that may have helped or hindered you?

Describe the quality of your current relationships. How much support do you receive? Are you in a position where you give far more than you receive? If so, talk about what that's like for you.

Apply the ten forms of twisted thinking to yourself? Which cognitive distortions do you struggle with? Discuss negative self-talk that you deal with. What self-limiting concepts of yourself do you struggle with today? How do you deal with those?

In your relationships, how do you handle anger? When people cross the line do you keep it to yourself, get even with them without talking about it, withdraw, tell them about it, etc? Similarly, when you get hurt in relationships, what do you tend to do? Do you withdraw? Attack? Can you talk about it?

How much does fear limit the choices that you make? Do you feel the need to keep things controlled? Are you willing to take risks that could enrich your life?

How would you describe your self-awareness today?

Use ten adjectives to describe yourself now including several adjectives that suggest areas of growth. Elaborate on the adjectives. Honestly discuss your strengths. What do you like best about yourself? What potential in you could be developed much more than it has?

How cautious are you? How open to growth and change? How open are you to change? Specifically, how open are you to:

- Changing patterns in relationships
- Receiving feedback from others
- Change in general

Currently, where do you see yourself on Maslow's hierarchy of needs? Talk about your own self-actualization. How much have you experienced your potential? Is there something that you have dreamed of doing that you won't attempt due to fear?

Movement vs. Stagnation

Where are you stuck in your life? Relationships? Job? What is something that needs to change in your life that has persisted for too long? Development is a dynamic process. What challenges do you see ahead for you in the next ten years? How optimistic or pessimistic are you about the future? Why?
