COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook(s) Required:

For this course, we will be using a platform called Top Hat that is included through East Texas A&M's Inclusive Access fee that was charged to your bursar account when you registered for this course. You will not need to make any additional purchases. Top Hat will be accessible through our course shell in D2L. While you will receive an email about being able to opt out of this inclusive access, Top Hat is required for the course.

To gain access to Top Hat, you will create an account using your LeoMail (university email) when you receive an invitation from me. Be on the lookout for this email at the start of the semester. If you have any issues with Top Hat, you should contact support@tophat.com.

To join Top Hat, you must click on the Top Hat link in your D2L course on a web browser. A Deep Link or the Top Hat launch link should be in the "Content" menu. Upon being re-directed to Top Hat, you can create an account if you are new to Top Hat or log in if you have an existing account. Please follow your teacher's specific directions and report any access issues immediately.

Through Top Hat, you will gain access to the following course materials:

Johnson, Gavin P., Ashanka Kumari, Emily Littlejohn, Brian McShane, and Rachel McShane, Eds. Writing Inquiry [2023 edition]. Top Hat.

Software Required:

- D2L
- Top Hat
- LeoMail
- A word processing program: Students have free access to Office 365.

Course Description

ENG 1302 – GLB/US Written Argument/Research • 3 credit hours. This course provides students with advanced training in communication skills emphasizing the writing and reading of argumentative prose and adapting writing to alternate audiences. Students will write weekly, including such texts as journals, reading response logs, summaries of argumentative texts, argumentative papers, and longer papers integrating secondary research. Activities include close reading of sample texts, both student and professional. Some sections will emphasize special topics in both reading and writing. Prerequisites: Grade of C or better in English 1301 or advanced placement or CLEP.

Core Curriculum Course Objectives

- Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;
- Personal Responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.

English 1302 Learning Outcomes

- Define important terms/concepts including, but not limited to, literacy, community, research, ethics, knowledge, ethnography, and writing processes;
- Discuss the ways these terms expand based on cultural and communicative practices;
- Locate scholarly research related to key terms/concepts;
- Examine scholarly, personal, and/or multimodal texts that detail varying understandings and applications of key terms/concepts;
- Develop writing and research processes appropriate for ethically studying the literacy of a specific community;
- Engage in collaboration that supports individualized and communal understanding and writing development;

- Collect primary ethnographic data;
- Organize collected data in order to understand specific literacy community practices;
- Consider the various affordances and constraints of composing using different technologies (analog, digital, and/or multimodal), research methods, practices, styles, and/or languages;
- Compose texts across different genres and media of writing that further expand key terms/concepts based on primary ethnographic research and engagement with trustworthy secondary research;
- Reflect on your writing experiences and literacy practices;
- Design individualized learning goals appropriate for a first-year writing course; and
- Assess individualized learning goals based on labor and performance alongside feedback from peers and the instructor.

Instructional Methods

This course is a face-to-face class, meeting Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays 11:00 – 11:50 am and 12:00 – 12:50 pm, class is meeting in EdS 127. Since we have only 50 minutes for our class, it will be important for you to be early or on time so we can begin as quickly as possible.

Attendance is important so you will not miss any essential information. You will be responsible for obtaining any assignments or instructions if you miss a class. It is highly recommended that you develop a contact group so you can request this information from them and not the instructor. Your chosen group will be useful to you during the semester as you all work through the semester's coursework.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Each student is responsible for attending class and participating in the discussions and activities. You are also responsible for completing the reading assignments prior to class so you can participate fully and make the most of the in-class discussion. Writing assignments need to be completed and submitted prior to or on the date they are due unless arrangements have been made with me 24 hours PRIOR to the due date. If you need extra time for an assignment, let's talk about it. I can be very flexible IF I know beforehand. If you wait until after the due date, there is very little I can do for you. That means you should complete all readings and bring any notes or questions about the readings. All appointments with faculty should be honored. You may reschedule any meetings before the original meeting time if you have a conflict with the scheduled meeting. If you have a conflict with any scheduled appointments, meetings with faculty should be honored.

Attendance & Participation:

- put your phone away – silence your phone and do not text or surf while in class; this includes using earbuds/headphones, etc. (The main point is to eliminate as many distractions as needed.)
- prepare – before coming to class complete any readings & writing assignments
- arrive on time – our class time is short and we need to start on time
- participate – by engaging in class discussions, listening attentively, taking notes, asking questions when confused, answering questions, etc.
- stay in class until dismissed – There is no such thing as partial attendance, you are either here for the entire class or you are absent. Please see me if you need to be absent so we can discuss any homework/assignments. (By Paige Van Speybroeck)

COURSE ASSESSMENT

As your instructor, my approach to classroom assessment is to focus on assisting you as you conduct research and draft your papers. Any suggested clarification may require revisions, and I expect you to make revisions as needed. Revisions are due no later than two weeks following the assignment.

Note some of the points to consider when you receive your grade for your drafts:

1. Did you turn in your assignment by the due date?
2. Did you complete your assignment including all the requested information?
3. If you are requested to support your argument or major point with credible sources or examples, does your paper reflect that.

Midterm and final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Writing Histories, including Your Goals	complete/incomplete
(WA1, WA2, WA3, WA4) Titles are listed below 40%: Writing Assignments (WA)	4 MAJOR assignments at 10% for each & must be completed in order to pass the class.

Attendance	10%
WA1-Considering Communities and Literacies:	10%
WA2-Preliminary Topic Proposal and Annotated Bibliography:	10%
WA3-Ethnographic Research Proposal:	10%
WA4-The Learning Showcase:	20%
In-Class Participation and activities Including reflection writings:	10%
Top Hat Questions and reading quizzes:	20%
Semester Portfolio:	10%
TOTAL	100%

Full prompts for assignments are available in D2L. They will be announced in D2L and discussed in class.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Interaction with Instructor Statement

All through the semester, we all need to understand each other. Please let me know if you need to miss class or if you have any problems. If you email me and I do not respond within 48 hours, please resend your email.

Grievance Procedure

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with Dr. Jason Walker, Interim the Director of Writing (Jason.Walker@etamu.edu). In the case when the Director of Writing is the instructor, the student should contact Dr. Charles Woods, Interim Chair of the Department of Literature and Languages (Charles.Woods@etamu.edu). Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 ("Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation").

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum:

<https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

Nondiscrimination Notice

East Texas A&M University will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Collection of Data for Measuring Institutional Effectiveness

To measure the level of compliance with the university's Institutional Effectiveness guidelines, throughout the semester, I will collect some of the ungraded texts you produce. The texts will be part of a portfolio created on your behalf and will be measured to ensure that our program "promotes practices that result in higher student academic achievement; an enhanced student experience; aligned and transparent decisions; and readily available information for improvement, accountability, and accreditation" (see "Department of Institutional Effectiveness," <http://www.etamu.edu/aboutus/institutionalEffectiveness/default.aspx>). This is solely an assessment of program effectiveness and in no way affects students' course grades or GPAs.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all East Texas A&M campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

RESOURCES

East Texas A&M Supports Students' Mental Health

The Counseling Center at East Texas A&M, located in the Halladay Building, Room 203, offers counseling services, educational programming, and connection to community resources for students. Students have 24/7 access to the Counseling Center's crisis assessment services by calling 903-886-5145. For more information regarding Counseling Center events and confidential services, please visit www.etamu.edu/counsel

Writing Center

The Writing Center offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike. In fact, we work from the premise that all writers, no matter their ability level, benefit from the feedback of knowledgeable readers. The Writing Center staff is trained to provide writers with just this service. In short, we are here to help you help yourself. The Writing Center offers one-on-one sessions with writers—both face-to-face and online—begin on the hour and last up to 45 minutes. You cannot sign up for back-to-back appointments, but you may sign up for as many appointments as you'd like each day and week. For more information, visit <https://www.etamu.edu/writing-center>
