Required Textbook

Required materials are completely dependent on student level. As a general rule, every student is expected to have at least one scale book per semester, one etude book per semester, one unaccompanied solo per semester, and one accompanied solo per semester. This expectation is expanded for long performances and competitions. Please communicate often with your professor about necessary music.

Recommended Course Materials

Students are expected to have all materials necessary to perform for their lesson and studio class. This includes pencil, swab, all parts of the instrument(s), many reeds, reed working equipment, exercises, music, notebook, metronome, tuner, computer/monitor/tablet, (for distance learning, if permitted) quality speakers/headphone, internet/WiFi access, and video capabilities (zoom or FaceTime), etc.

For every lesson, please arrive with your instrument ready-to-play, a notebook for assignments, your assigned scale book/assignment, etudes, solo(s) you plan to perform this semester, your fundamental warm-up and practice materials, and your audition music for ensembles (this last is required only for lesson 1). Reading music from your phone is not permitted. You must have a printed copy or tablet to read from. If using a tablet, have a pedal to turn pages if necessary. If you have questions, please ask your instructor in advance and come prepared.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems.

Course Requirements

Students are expected to actively participate in all assigned private lessons, studio classes, clarinet recitals, and guest artist events. Notification for excused absence must be received in advance. For excused absences students must access and watch available recorded recitals, studio classes and guest artist sessions. Students enrolled at the university as 'part-time' will have a reduced expectation for extra event attendance (50%) and may choose which of the required events to attend but must communicate with the professor about their attendance in advance.

Students are expected to actively participate in all lessons by coming prepared and with all assigned materials. Practice preparation for undergraduate music majors should be a minimum of 60-90 minutes daily with increased expectations around the JLPE, degree-required recitals, competitions, and graduate study. Practice logs are sometimes required so that faculty can better guide students in time management and effectiveness in the practice room.

All students must perform for a final jury exam unless substituting a required/adjudicated recital for a jury grade. Literature with piano accompaniment must be accompanied for jury and recital performance. This performance requires a piano rehearsal and a piano coaching with your professor prior to the performance. All music majors must also perform in public at least once during each semester of applied study. All stage performances must be preceded by a PASSED coaching and/or hearing. Depending on university and School of Music guidelines and best practices, this may be accomplished through either live or video performances. Please communicate frequently with your professor about your piano rehearsal, coaching, hearing, jury and public performance requirement.

Secondary applied and lower classmen are often expected to play less music and/or less demanding music. Lower classmen (152) are expected to perform a solo jury of minimum 7-minutes duration, and as they progress through 4 semesters of study, may be asked to perform more music and/or more complex music. Upperclassmen (352) are typically expected to be preparing enough music for either a junior-level 353 recital of 25-minute duration and some continue to a senior-level (performance major) 453 recital of 50-minute duration. Graduate students are expected to learn more music and often more demanding music in preparation for a minimum of one 50-minute 553 recital and may additionally be encouraged to compete, audition and perform more frequently. The professor will work with each individual student to determine level-appropriate expectations.

Students will be expected to purchase their own books and solo literature for this course. Copies of assigned copyright-protected literature are not permitted. Students are also expected to pay for their own piano accompanist. Students are expected to demonstrate skills in pedagogy through their observation, analysis, and feedback of the performances of other students in Studio Class. This pedagogy requirement is guided by Dr. Webb. Students are expected to gain skills in this area by the observation of teaching techniques in their own private lessons and through the observation of teaching techniques of other students in studio class, guest artist classes on campus, and optional conference attendance or optional observations of master teachers online. Graduate students may have specific pedagogy assignments and projects throughout their course of study.

Failure to meet the student expectations of this course may result in lowering of the final grade or dismissal from the course.

Grading

Average of the following semester grades:

Weekly preparation lesson grades with instructor:

Grades will be determined over preparation of weekly lesson assignments including, but not limited to: warmups, fundamental exercises, drills, etudes, repertoire, sight reading, and individual assignments. Ask your professor if you have any questions.
(13 grades)

Technique Exams:

These will consist of technique assignments given in lessons

Week 7 - Exam 1

Week 14 - Exam 2

(2 grades)

Etude Exams: (Exempt if doing a degree recital)

Week 8 - Exam 1

All Students, Etude 1

Week 15 - Exam 2

Freshmen and Sophomores, Etude 2

Juniors and Seniors, Etudes 2 and 3

(2 grades)

Required Studio Class, Studio Recital Participation, Engagement, and Professionalism

(3 grades)

Responsibility Grades

Purchasing and having in hand an original copy of solo before February 2nd

Hiring accompanist if applicable before February 9th

Piano rehearsal by March 27th

Piano coaching by April 17th

(4 grades)

Students performing on the studio recital will have to move up their timeline for piano rehearsal and coaching dates or risk losing that performance opportunity.

Written Assignment

Submit an updated resume by April 10th

NOTE: in the Recital Sections 353, 453, and 553 Applied Clarinet, the student will be assigned additional grade components which REQUIRE that the student pass the juried hearing and the juried recital in order to proceed to the recital. For D2L purposes, these course shells will have “pass/fail” requirements and grade points for the following to track progress:

successfully scheduling the recital 50 points passed piano rehearsals 50 points passed faculty coachings 50 points passed recital hearings 50 points passed recital grades 200 points the recital must pass in order to pass the overall course

If these requirements are not met, the recital section course grade will be assigned as a failing grade, regardless of the grade in the regular applied clarinet lessons. If the requirements are met, the regular applied lesson grade will be applied to the recital section to be averaged into the overall recital section as 60% of the overall grade 600 points. The other 40% comes from the 400 points outlined above.

See the Music Student Handbook for details on the degree-required recital process. See the D2L grade book for clarification on recital section grading or come ask me in lessons or office hours.

Final grade assignment:

90 - 100% = A
80 - 89% = B
70 - 79% = C
60 - 69% = D
0 - 59% = F

Scheduled activities:

Studio classes are Mondays at 4 pm

Other dates will be announced on the 217 bulletin board and in studio class.
