Or by appointment zoom or in-person

Course Meeting Day/Time/Room: WEB Zoom Monday 4:00 CST per schedule below- zoom sessions will be recorded if you cannot make it.

Course Description:

A study of the role of management accounting and control in business firms with an emphasis on organizational activities that create value for customers. Topics include activity based costing, cost behavior, cost allocation, pricing and product mix decisions, capital budgeting, compensation, benchmarking and continuous improvement, and behavioral and organizational issues. Prerequisites: ACCT 2301.

Course Materials:

Required Text

Horngren's Financial & Managerial Accounting Plus MyAccountingLab with Pearson eText -- Access Card Package, 7/E **D2L Inclusive Access****

Authors: Miller-Nobles, Mattison, Matsumura
ISBN: 9780136505273 (make sure it is the 7th ed.), 9780136505310 paperback
You can order print copies through MyAccountingLab (MAL) registration or rent a used textbook.

What does Inclusive Access mean? MyLeo/ D2L opens the first week of classes. You should receive an email about Inclusive Access for this course. When you register to take this class you are automatically charged for access and the e-text (unless you opt out- not recommended). You do not have to purchase the e-textbook or access because they are included in your tuition and fees. You will login to MyAccountingLab (MAL) from the Content area of D2L. Upon login/registration to MAL, you will be given the option of ordering a “print copy” of the textbook. A used textbook is fine. The print version is highly recommended for this course. All coursework will be completed in MAL.

Note about this book The 14th chapter in this textbook (The Statement of Cash Flows) will be the first chapter you will study in your Principles II – ACCT 2302. The e-text you will receive with Principles II will not contain this chapter, so you will need to retain your Principles I textbook (Financial Chapter 14).

University Policies and Procedures

Academic Honesty Policy

The College of Business at East Texas A & M University will strive to be recognized as a community with legal, ethical, and moral principles and to practice professionalism in all that we do. Failure to abide by these principles will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal. Five different types of activities that will bring sanctions are as follows:

Illegal activity: Violation of any local, state, or federal laws that prohibit the offender from performance of his or her duty.

Dishonest Conduct: Seeking or obtaining unfair advantage by stealing or receiving copies of tests or intentionally preventing others from completing their work. In addition, falsifying of records to enter or complete a program will also be considered dishonest conduct.

Cheating: The unauthorized use of another's work and reporting it as your own. You are specifically prohibited from submitting homework that was covered in class that you did not complete. .

Subject to change

Subject to change

Plagiarism: Using someone else's ideas and not giving proper credit.

Collusion: Acting with others to perpetrate any of the above actions regardless of personal gain.

Artificial Intelligence & ChatBots: East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of plagiarism and will result in a zero for the assignment.

Ethics

Integrity is the hallmark of the accounting profession and will be stressed throughout the course. Any type of student breach of ethics, including but not limited to: illegal activity, dishonest conduct, cheating, plagiarism, or collusion, will result in failure of assignment or exam (F) (zero points) and/or further academic sanction (i.e. failure of course (F), dismissal from class and/or referral to Dean of the College of Business).

“All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.” (See Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Other: University policy will be followed in regards to withdrawals during the semester. It is the student’s responsibility to conform with the university rules relating to dropping or withdrawing from the course.

Email Policy

All students must use their My Leo accounts when corresponding with professors. Please include the course number in the subject line of the email message. I will answer emails within 24 hours during the week. If you do not hear from me during the specified time, assume I did not receive your email and contact me again.

Attendance

Class Attendance Policy: Students are responsible for learning about and complying with the attendance policy stated in the catalog, Student’s Guidebook, and/or faculty syllabus. Students are responsible for requesting makeup work prior to any anticipated absence. They will be permitted to make up work for absences which are considered by the faculty member to be excusable. The method used to make-up this work shall be determined by the faculty member. The student is responsible for providing the faculty member reason(s) for his/her absence. The faculty member then determines the validity of the reason(s) for the absence and whether the student is to be excused for the absence.

Faculty members may consider the following reasons for absences excusable: (a) Participation in a required/authorized university activity; (b) Verified illness; (c) Death in a student’s immediate family; (d) Obligation of student at legal proceedings in fulfilling responsibility as a citizen; and (e) Others determined by individual faculty to be excusable (e.g. elective University activities, etc.)

Concealed Carry

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in East Texas A&M University buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and ET Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to (<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>) and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all ET campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

Discipline Policy

“All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.” (See Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Comfortable Learning Environment

The university, this department, and your instructor are all committed to maintaining an inoffensive, non-threatening learning environment for every student. Class members (including the instructor) are to treat each other politely both in word and deed. Offensive humor and aggressive personal advances are specifically forbidden. If you feel uncomfortable with a personal interaction, contact your instructor for help in solving the problem.

Civility in the Academic Environment

Civility in the classroom or online course and respect for the opinions of others is very important in an academic environment. It is likely you may not agree with everything that is said or discussed in the classroom/online course. Courteous behavior and responses are expected. To create and preserve a learning environment that optimizes teaching and learning, all participants share a responsibility in creating a civil and non-disruptive forum. Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that does not disrupt teaching or learning. Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/online course and may refer serious offenses to the University Police Department and/or the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

Incomplete in Course

Students who, because of circumstances beyond their control, are unable to attend classes during or after review week will, upon approval of the teacher, receive a mark of “X” in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades. A grade of “X” (incomplete) will not be counted in the calculation of the grade point average for one semester. If the “X” has not been removed at the end of one semester, it will automatically be changed to a grade of “F.” If a student feels that a grade is not correct, the matter should be discussed with the instructor. If the instructor finds the grade incorrect, the instructor must petition for a grade change by receiving approval from the department head and dean, with final approval from the Registrar’s Office
