Course Description

Through lectures, reading and listening assignments, analysis and performance projects, this course is an in-depth study of solo keyboard literature from the baroque and classical periods. Especial emphasis is placed on exploring the development of keyboard instruments, musical styles, repertoire, and performance practice.

Goals and Objectives

1. To examine the style of representative works by the composers studied in class.

2. To deepen the student's knowledge of keyboard music from the romantic era to the twentieth century.
3. To recognize representative works and/or composers by examining scores and by listening to recordings.
4. To become familiar with works that can be suitable for performance or teaching.

Student Expectations

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and events as required by the instructor. Only one absence will be allowed; after that, each absence will result in the deduction of 5 points from your semester grade. Medical excuses and university-sponsored trips are acceptable reasons for missing class. Repeated lateness for class will also be penalized by lowering your final grade.

All tests will be based on material discussed in class. You must be in attendance for all exams. You must be prepared to do your oral presentations on the scheduled day. The research paper, program notes, and other assignments must be turned in on or before the specified deadline. Failure to do so will be penalized by lowering a letter grade.

Oral Presentation

Oral presentations must be 25 minutes in length. All students are expected to participate and ask at least one question to the presenter. The topic of the presentation must be approved on the first day of class.

You will be expected to explore your topic in detail. Use of scores and recordings is expected; however, the listening of recordings cannot exceed a third of your presentation length. You should prepare a detailed handout to accompany your presentation. It should include musical examples and a bibliography that cites all sources used for the preparation of your presentation.

Research Paper

Your research paper cannot be on the same topic you selected for your oral presentation. Papers must be 15 pages and include a complete bibliography.

Grading:

Oral presentation	20%
Assignments & listening/score ID quizzes	20%
Research Paper	20%
Midterm	20%
Final	20%

A=100-90; B=89-80; C=79-70; D=69-60; F=59-0
