Course Description

This course focuses on factors that impact decisions educators must make regarding design and implementation of curriculum, teaching strategies, and materials in order to provide excellence for all learners.

Note: This course was written, developed and was a requirement prior to the signing of Texas Senate Bill 17. Texas Senate Bill 17 (88th Legislature, 2023) as added to the Education Code § 51.3525, which became effective January 1, 2024 states:

Section 51.3525. Responsibility of Governing Boards Regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Initiatives.

(c) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit or prohibit ... submitting to a grantor or accrediting agency a statement that:

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- (1) highlights the institution's work in supporting first-generation, low-income, or underserved student populations; or
- (2) certifies compliance with state and federal antidiscrimination laws.

(d) Subsection (b)(1) may not apply to:

- (1) academic course instruction;
- (2) scholarly research or creative work by students, faculty, or research personnel;
- (3) activities of a student organization registered or recognized by the institution;
- (4) guest speakers or performers on short-term engagements;
- (5) policies or programs to enhance student academic achievement or postgraduate outcomes that are race-neutral;
- (6) data collection; or
- (7) student recruitment or admissions.

Therefore, this course will address cultural groups, and the various needs they may have and bring to the K-12 classroom. This course is not designed to impose beliefs on anyone, but designed to shed light on varying needs and challenges that students of different cultures may bring. This course is in compliance with Senate Bill 17 (88th Legislature, 2023).

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Reflect on personal and professional life developments as they relate to your beliefs and practices as a teacher.
2. Be familiar with current and classical literature on the effects of diversity on student learning, e.g., socioeconomic status (SES), race, gender, achievement, handicapping conditions, etc.
3. Become familiar with literature about children in different populations on the topic of diversity and learning.
4. Understand one's own personality (learning styles, intra- and interpersonal characteristics, temperament, child centeredness, etc.) and describe how these traits impact instruction and learning of students in the classroom.
5. Identify and implement instructional and management strategies that are successful among diverse populations.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students will need the following technical skills: Use of the learning management system (D2L), Zoom, Adobe, Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, Google Slides, and other presentation and graphics programs, and the use of research databases.

Instructional Methods

This course is delivered 100% online. It includes essays, inquiry-based discussions, quizzes, collaborative projects, and individual assignments.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Success in the course is largely based on keeping up with assignments which requires regularly logging into the course website, and not waiting until the last minute to complete assignments

1. REQUIRED READING: Students are required to read the chapters/articles in the course readings. In doing so, students will be more prepared to engage in the content and assignments covered in the course.
2. EXPECTED HOURS OF OUTSIDE WORK: For each 3-hour course, expect to spend 3-6 hours per week in reading, assignments, and projects.
3. WRITTEN WORK: All work turned in must be typed, 12 pt. font, double spaced when turned in. All references must be cited in APA 7th edition format.
4. PARTICIPATION and PROFESSIONALISM: Students are encouraged to attend online meetings/classes (when offered and if necessary)— if they cannot attend, no problem-- a recording of any live class sessions will be provided. Students are also expected to participate in class discussions, communicate with the instructor, attend online office hours when help is needed, and collaborate with peers. Students should represent themselves in a professional manner and treat their peers and instructor with respect. Remember, your work/assignments and interactions with others represent you!

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@etamu.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your Instructor.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Technical Support

If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here:

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Your interaction with the instructor of this course is very important to your success. Please communicate via email or text if you are having any issues or have any questions, and your professor will make necessary steps to provide support and clarification. The instructor's contact information is at the top of this syllabus.

The instructor believes students need feedback soon after an assignment is turned in. The instructor will do the best they can to make sure that all quizzes and assignments are graded after the due date (but this may vary depending on circumstances and size of the class). Any items turned in early may not be graded until after the due date. For the projects, the instructor will need at least two weeks to complete the evaluations.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

1. ATTENDANCE is monitored by your viewing and completion of content in D2L (This can be monitored by your professor) if in an online class. If in person, the instructor will take attendance in class. Participants are expected to participate actively and constructively. Your attendance and participation will impact your grade, particularly if you are on the borderline of a grade. Contact the instructor (via email) if you anticipate any issues that will interfere with your participation in the course, and give the reason explaining the situation. This is a common courtesy that is expected by all instructors. It is also part of forming that "community of learners" that we need in our environment. We are trying to encourage professional development and life-long learning skills. Remember: Class activities and group discussions cannot be made up; therefore, reinforcing the idea that participation and communication is important.

2. LATE WORK must be turned within a week of the student's return to daily activities from illness to earn credit. Check D2L for the weekly agenda to see what you have missed. Students must get assignments from the instructor, or from a peer if they miss any synchronous instruction. If work is late and is unexcused, a late penalty will be deducted (10%) for each day (up to 5 days). No late/old work will be turned in during finals week, and the last date to turn in any old work will be announced by the professor. With extreme documented circumstances, some flexibility in this policy will be at the professor's discretion.*

3. MISSED QUIZZES/EXAMS Students will only be allowed to make up missed exam if they inform the instructor of the reason for their missed submission and have a written excuse. If a late submission excuse is not submitted and is unexcused, students may take the exam and earn a maximum of 70% (70 points out of 100). No late final exams will be accepted. With extreme documented circumstances, some flexibility in this policy will be at the professor's discretion.*

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Confused on an assignment? CHECK THE WEEKLY AGENDA and D2L first. You are responsible for obtaining class materials/assignments/notes and being prepared for any class meetings (if the class meets collectively). If you are unable to make a class meeting, it is your responsibility to get the necessary materials and assignments from a designated class member. Select a buddy and exchange telephone numbers and e-mail with him/her. By exchanging information, your buddy agrees to “catch you up” and explain any class materials/assignments/notes. It is your responsibility to contact your buddy for this information.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
