Prerequisites: ENG 1301 or concurrent enrollment, or ENG 1302 or concurrent enrollment.

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings

Course Textbook: OER: United States History, Rice University
<https://openstax.org/details/books/us-history>.

Supplemental Resource: George Tindall, America: A Narrative History, 12 ed.

Primary Source Readings: Available on the course website (D2L)

Software Required: Word processing software such as Microsoft Word

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

As a Core Curriculum requirement, this class focuses on four common Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Critical Thinking - Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. Oral/Visual Communication - Students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Personal Responsibility - Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4. Social Responsibility - Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Student Learning Outcomes will be assessed by the Student Responsibility Quiz and a Primary Source Analysis assignment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students will need to be familiar with the university's learning management system (myLeo Online), know how to use a personal computer, navigate the Internet, and utilize basic word processing software, such as Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint, Google Docs, and Google Slides.

Instructional Methods

This syllabus is your guide for the course. You can find it all semester in D2L. I expect you to complete all readings assigned for each week by Monday. We will have a discussion in class, so it is imperative that you do the reading. Otherwise, we will have many awkward silences. Every class will require you to be engaged with the material, take notes, and think. Attendance is required.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

All students are expected to comply with the following requirements.

- All students enrolled at the university are expected to adhere to the principles of common decency and acceptable behavior that foster a positive learning environment.
- Students are expected to regularly check the course site for announcements and updates.
- Students are expected to complete all course readings for each section of the course. Course readings drive class discussion.
- Students are expected to review any supplementary materials that the instructor provides, such as web links, news stories, etc.
- Students are expected to attend class regularly and to be on time to class.
- Students are expected to complete all assigned writing assignments, quizzes, class activities, and exams. Coursework will be submitted to D2L.
- Students are expected to exhibit respect toward their fellow classmates and the instructor. This includes treating everyone with courtesy and respect in all correspondence related to the course. For more information on this topic, please refer to the Student Guidebook.
- The university does not tolerate academic dishonesty.
 - Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited-
 - plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own)
 - cheating on exams or other course assignments
 - collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments or taking exams)
 - abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material.
 - For this course, academic dishonesty encompasses cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and/or falsification of academic work. In particular, any student who passes off work as their own that was actually written by someone else, without proper citation or attribution, will be considered to have committed plagiarism. This holds true whether the material comes from a textbook, another publication, an Internet source, or another student.
 - Any act of academic dishonesty on an exam or quiz will result in a score of 0 for the exam or quiz. Any act of academic dishonesty on a writing assignment will result in a 0 for the entire semester's writing assignment grade. Instances of academic dishonesty may also be referred to the appropriate offices on campus and may result in significant administrative penalties.
- Students will comply with all myLeo Online and D2L technical requirements in terms of training, computer access, & Internet access.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following weights:

Formative Assignments: Weekly Assignments & Quizzes	30%
Summative Assignments: Tests, Primary Source Analysis Papers, and Project	70%

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Formative Assignments: Weekly Assignments & Quizzes

Students will complete weekly assignments and/or quizzes over the assigned reading content. Assignments will be posted at the beginning of each week and are due on Sunday at 11:59 PM. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Summative Assignments: Tests

Students will take three exams. All exams will include material from the textbook, lectures, and class discussions. These exams will contain multiple-choice questions. Students have one class period to complete each exam. The exam dates will be listed on the course calendar in the syllabus.

Students will produce two Primary Source Document Analyses and a project. Assignment descriptions as well as rubrics and citation requirements will be provided in D2L.

Late analyses and projects will not be accepted.

Academic Honesty Quiz:

All students must complete the Academic Honesty Quiz before completing any written assignments.

Documentary Analysis:

1. The students will be responsible for writing and submitting the Document Analysis through D2L by the due date. Each Document Analysis should briefly summarize the document, place it in a historical context, and analyze it in light of the course themes. Your grade will be determined by the rubric.
2. Primary Sources and instructions will be posted online.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

- Pre-plan with your instructor if you are going to be absent for exams. Make arrangements with your instructor for the assignment you are going to miss. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if an absence occurs. If prior arrangements are not made, students will not be allowed to make up missed assignments. In the event of a school activity on an exam date, students must pre-plan with the instructor. Arrangements must be made prior to the missed exam. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if an absence occurs. Any absence not pre-planned or a missed appointment will result in a zero for the exam.
- Students are expected to come to class prepared to interact with the instructor and other students by respectfully listening, discussing, questioning, and taking notes relating to the topic at hand. Cell phones will not be used for note-taking or quizzes. All students will need a Chromebook, a notebook, and pens or pencils. Students must use appropriate language in all emails, class discussions, and postings.
- Class attendance and participation are critical for the successful completion of this course.
- Class Conduct: Please turn off or silence and put away all cell phones, headphones, etc. before entering the classroom. No obscene/vulgar language will be permitted in the classroom.
- Academic Honesty: Students are expected to abide by the university guidelines regarding academic integrity and honesty.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

AI Use Policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that have the capacity to generate text or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided, the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
