COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES
Course Specific Procedures/PoliciesSyllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Attendance and Engagement Policy

Regular and prompt attendance and active engagement in the class is expected. The student's attendance grade is calculated by the number of times present divided by the total number of class meetings. Students who do are present but not engage in the discussion, or attend class without their instruments may not receive attendance at the discretion of the instructor.

Late Assignments or Work

Recital scheduling is on a first-come-first-served basis. Failure to submit your forms on time may mean you will not get your preferred date, or may result in a delay of your recital date. In addition, failure to submit your program information by the required deadline may result in a penalty.

Use of Computers and Cell Phones

Keep your cell phone silenced during your private lessons and during any conversation with applied faculty or office staff regarding scheduling your recital.

University Specific ProceduresStudent Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
