Course Description

This course explores the traditions of schooling and classrooms from global perspectives of current political, social, and familial issues impacting schooling and classrooms worldwide. Students will analyze the learning environment and the human experiences of teachers and learners and compare U.S. schools and the American educational system to those of other countries.

The course also examines the structure of education in Texas and the professional, legal, and ethical responsibilities of educators.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

1. Compare and contrast global education systems by examining sociopolitical, economic, and cultural influences on schooling and classroom practices.
2. Analyze the structure and governance of education in Texas, including the roles of state and local agencies, laws, and professional codes.
3. Demonstrate understanding of professional practices and responsibilities by evaluating legal, ethical, and procedural expectations for Texas educators.
4. Analyze authentic data from Texas schools to describe how contextual factors influence teaching and learning.
5. Reflect on professional growth by identifying personal strengths, needs, and measurable goals to enhance future professional practice and ethical decision-making.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students need to be comfortable:

- Navigating and using the D2L platform,
- Accessing linked resources and readings on the internet,
- Conducting internet searches/browsing,
- Using basic office suite software such as word processing,
- Creating basic multi-media presentations such as short videos, slide presentations, and informational flyers with images,
- Viewing, downloading, and electronically printing PDF documents as needed

Instructional Methods

This course consists of several kinds of tasks that are designed to help you apply content to the real work of teaching. Students will be expected to demonstrate their understanding through their work products. Within each unit you will have several tasks. The tasks for each week are listed in the course outline/calendar at the end of this syllabus. The final grade will be calculated from these assignments using the percentages listed in the “Grading” section of this syllabus.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

.Professionalism and Ethical Behavior

As a future educator, you are expected to interact with your instructor and peers in a professional manner. Please be courteous to classmates in online discussions, even when giving constructive feedback. Adhering to the Educators' Code of Ethics and university policies related to academic honesty is a baseline expectation for behavior.

Begin each module early in the week.

Did you know that college students typically underestimate how long it takes to complete their work? This can lead to late assignments, even when we have the best intentions. Starting early and working toward finishing early each week is the secret to finishing on time with a quality work product (because you are giving yourself that extra time to get it done).

Ask questions early and often.

Instructors want to support you, but this is difficult if you don't communicate about your struggles. Please reach out to the course instructor with questions about assignments. You can set yourself up for success by asking your questions early enough to use the instructor's feedback before an assignment is due.

Designate a study space and time(s) that are free from distractions.

Did you know that multi-tasking is less effective for learning than paying full attention to one task at a time? Use your brain power more efficiently by finding a place free from distractions for your coursework. This can mean a quiet room or place in the library, turning off your phone notifications, etc.

Don't cram. Space out your work instead!

You will learn more effectively if you work for 45 minutes to an hour at a time instead of a marathon study session. This can be difficult to schedule with our busy lives, but the amount of information you retain will be improved if you can do some work each day instead of all at once.

READ.

AI is a fantastic tool that can be useful for summarizing information. However, part of building your understanding through reading is mentally interacting with the text – asking questions, making predictions or connections, summarizing information as you go, etc. If you have AI do this for you, you're going to be missing out on the mental processes that make your learning stick!

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

Total points corresponding to the final letter grades

- A = 451- 500 Points
- B = 401- 450 Points
- C = 351- 400 Points
- D = 301- 350 Points
- F = 300 & > Points

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Example:

Assignments	20%
Discussions	20%
Midterm Exam	30%
Final Exam	30%
TOTAL	100%

Assessments

PBA	Professional Practices and Responsibilities: Legal and ethical requirements & the structure of education in Texas	ELED 1301 PBA
	Students will gain an understanding of professional practices and responsibilities focusing on legal and ethical requirements for educators and the structure of education in Texas. Students will first develop their context for learning to represent an authentic school setting through data and analysis of chosen prekindergarten through third grade in a specific Texas school and district. Utilizing the TEA website, TExES Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities EC-12 (160) preparation materials, and district and campus website, students will research professional practices and responsibilities in the chosen context for learning for the classroom, campus, and district context including meeting expectations for attendance, professional appearance, decorum, procedural, ethical, legal, and statutory responsibilities. Students will respond to question prompts to reflect on their learning experience providing an overall analysis of their own strengths and weaknesses then set clear, measurable, relevant goals, to improve their knowledge of professional practices and responsibilities.

Alignment	PPR Standards: 4.1-2k, 4.1-4s, 4.13-15k, 4.17-4.18k, 4.19s; Teacher Preparation Standards: 6.D.i-ii PPR Test Framework: IV.013.C & F

Assessment in this course focuses on candidates' ability to analyze global and U.S. educational systems, apply knowledge of professional practices and responsibilities in Texas, and reflect on ethical and legal expectations for educators. Assignments include comparative analyses, case studies, and professional reflections that assess understanding of diverse educational contexts and professional standards aligned with PPR Competencies 011–012 and Commissioner's Teacher Standards (2.B, 5.C.i, 6.A.i).
