COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook(s) Required: No textbook purchases are required for this course. We will use free online reading and resources, which will be linked in the D2L course.

Students shall also be responsible to implement the APA (American Psychological Association) style guide (7th edition). Additional information about the style guide can be found at Purdue Owl:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/apa_style/apa_style_introduction.html

Course Description

This course will explore adult learning theory for teachers who serve in leadership roles, which include K-12 teaching, curriculum guiding, teacher mentoring, and higher education teaching. Students shall explore andragogy (adult learning) and transformative learning models for adults. Students will also apply adult learning theories to academic and professional experiences.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will understand the concepts associated with andragogy as distinct yet related to K-12 pedagogy.
2. Students will understand transformative learning as applied to learning in adulthood.
3. Students will inquire about adult learning needs and apply adult learning theories to leadership experiences in schooling landscapes.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The students will complete the following assignments, and the final grade shall be calculated using the percentages listed below.

Reading Response Charts – 40% (4 charts, 10% each)

Adult Learning Needs Assessment – 20%

Adult Learning and Leadership Inquiry Paper – 30%

Research on the Learner Presentation – 10%

Total: 100%

Assessments

Additional details about the assignments are found in Brightspace D2L.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students should be able to submit Word documents and presentation materials, operate a video camera, participate in Zoom/ online conferences, navigate Brightspace D2L, and use technology for presentations. The use of photography, video, and other multimedia is encouraged. The use of artificial intelligence as a substitute for students' writing is prohibited.

Instructional Methods

As a social constructivist educator with strong considerations for thinking and inquiry within the disciplines, my teaching style involves peer collaboration, dialogic learning, analytical and aesthetic thinking, and inquiry methods.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Please review course materials and the calendar. I recommend checking your MyLeo email regularly and the course announcements page for updates. Also, if you need assistance, please reach out to me to schedule a personal conference. Peer support groups are encouraged.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@etamu.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a ETAMU campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your instructor.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Assignment Submission Policy: The instructor reserves the right to change course assignments, projects, and examinations throughout the semester. Each assignment/project must be completed and turned in by the due date given. All assignments are due by 11:59 midnight on the date indicated on the calendar. All assignments are submitted electronically on D2L Brightspace. Late assignments shall be subject to letter grade reductions (usually a 70 or half credit) or non-acceptance at the instructor's discretion.

In the case of unexpected emergencies, students must provide written documentation regarding their missed assignments. The instructor reserves the right to deny make-up opportunities, especially in cases of negligence. It is expected that all course assignments/projects (inside and outside of class and including examinations) will be completed at mastery level (as designated by the instructor). If (in the professional opinion of the instructor) an assignment/project is not satisfactorily completed, it may be returned to the student, and the student may be required to re-do the work until it is at mastery level. The instructor reserves the right to limit the number of times an assignment/project may be re-submitted and to establish a reasonable time frame for resubmissions. If any course assignment/project is not completed at a mastery level by the final resubmission deadline, the instructor reserves the right to assign the student a grade of "I" or "F" for the assignment and/or course--at the instructor's discretion.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.
