COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods and Assessment

This will be an online readings course. The readings (including two videos) will provide all the evidence you need for creating evidence-based answers to the essay questions, as well as for answering the primary source & multiple choice questions.

Assignments, Student Responsibilities, Expectations, and Tips for Success

Multiple Choice Quizzes: There are 4 multiple choice quizzes. Quiz due dates are listed on the calendar below. There are three reading quizzes that cover the text & supplemental readings and an Academic Honesty-Student Responsibility Quiz. The Responsibility quiz can be taken multiple times, but the other quizzes may only be attempted one time, and automatically end if you leave the quiz without finishing.

Primary Source Analysis Assignment: This assignment asks students to analyze information, communicate clearly and effectively, and show awareness of social and civil issues or problems. Using the selected primary source document, students should write 1-2 paragraphs that: (1) identify the author/creator and context of the document (including when and where it was created); (2) consider the purpose of the document, including the author's goals in its creation and its intended audience; and (3) evaluate the document, analyzing why this document is important to help understand the historical period or the events it describes (its significance), and how the document contributes to our historical understanding of the period (historical causes and effect). The written analysis should be presented using full and complete sentences and proper grammar and punctuation.

Essays: You must be able to write a coherent, well-structured essay that adequately addresses the question. Essays require a long-form written response, using complete sentences and appropriate grammar and punctuation. Expect to write 500 to 750 words to fully answer the prompt. You will be expected to cite any sources and quotes you use (see Student Responsibilities and Tips above), and to cite at least three reliable sources. You should only use sources assigned for this class. There are 2 Essay assignments. Each will be scored on a 20 point scale and the lower grade will be dropped.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Academic Honesty and Dishonesty

You are expected to do your own work. Dishonesty will not be treated lightly. On each graded assignment I expect each student to honor the following pledge: "I hereby give my word that I have neither given nor received aid while completing this assignment." Any student found violating this policy will receive a grade of zero for the assignment, and further action may be taken. Two instances of academic dishonesty will result in an immediate F for the course. YOU MAY NOT USE AI or LLMs FOR ANY PURPOSE IN THIS COURSE

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is taking someone else's work and passing it off as your own words, thoughts, or ideas. This includes, but is not limited to, using direct quotes out of a book or from the internet as your own words, properly using quotation marks but noting the wrong person as the author, purchasing a paper or exam from friends or strangers, using material from the internet verbatim as your own words, and cutting and pasting entire papers or internet pages or LLMs and passing it off as your own work. Cheating on exams and discussion posts or allowing others to copy your answers is another form of academic dishonesty. It may be acceptable to use other people's words as short quotations and ideas as long as they receive credit in citations. If you are unsure about the precise definition of plagiarism and/or think you may have committed this form of academic dishonesty, see the instructor or visit the Online Writing Lab before you turn in the assignment.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Extra-credit

I do not usually give extra credit. Do not ask.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

If you need to reach me, please use email. I typically respond to email within 12 to 36 hours during the week. Do not expect a response during the weekend.

When sending an email always do the following:

- 1) Use a subject line. This tells me what the topic is & prevents your message from ending up in junk.
- 2) Include your class and section. I need to know exactly which of my courses you are so I can help you.
- 3) End the email with your name, that is "sign" your message. I also need to know who you are.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Statement on Student Grievances

Students who have questions or concerns about the instructor's course policies or the conduct either of the instructor or a classmate should first consult with the instructor. In the event of a lack of resolution or satisfaction on the matter, the student may bring their concerns to the head of the History Department, Sharon Kowalsky (Sharon.Kowalsky@etamu.edu). If this does not result in a satisfactory conclusion to the matter, students may bring the issue to the attention of the Associate Dean of Students per procedures outlined on pp. 15-19 of the Student Guide Book.
