Course Description and Objectives:

(3 Lecture, 3 Lab) Course Description:

The Summer Atelier Class designed for motivated students seeking to elevate their artistic practice. This course offers a unique opportunity to work closely with a professional artist in a studio environment, fostering a space for creative exploration, technical skill development, and personal artistic growth. This course is an enhanced tutorial course meaning that students will work independently, and the professor will develop lectures, demonstrations and critiques that will enhance the students' individual research goals.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To gain technical and problem-solving skills as they apply to creating objects, installations and textures.
- To advance visual, physical and conceptual problem-solving abilities.
- To understand the importance of craftsmanship and installation strategies, while learning how formal decisions impact the meaning of the work.
- To understand that art functions as a vehicle for meaning and expression, with the possibility of initiating introspection, conversation, awareness, and change.
- To encourage creative and ambitious thought processes and work habits.
- To introduce a variety of contemporary artists whose works relates to the current assignments.

Requirements: Completion of all projects is required for a passing grade, as is regular attendance. The course will utilize readings periodically to focus and generate discussion as well as to inspire. Participation/preparation in these discussions is mandatory. Sketchbook: A book (blank, unlined, is ideal) for this class is a requirement. To be used both for artistic ideas as well as retaining technical information. When individual meetings occur it is important to have this available.

Safety:

Come to class prepared to work! With a myriad of different production techniques there are equally numerous ways of doing unintentional injury to yourself and others around you. The following should always be followed:

- Wear work clothes.
- Have closed toed shoes.
- No loose hair.
- No loose jewelry.
- Wear gloves when appropriate.
- Wear eye protection when appropriate.
- Clean up after yourself.
- Lift heavy objects carefully and with assistance.
- No firearms or weapons allowed in sculpture facility because of the inherent danger of possessing weapons around dangerous equipment.

If you're not sure about a procedure or equipment, ask someone. (Course Instructor, TA, Woodshop Monitor) Note on Tools:

Before using any machinery, make sure your hair is tied back. Always wear safety glasses when operating equipment. Be gentle with the tools. I will give tool demonstrations. If you ever have a question regarding tool use and safety, ask me for help. Do not use a tool by yourself unless you have participated in a demonstration and are experienced with using that tool safely.

Note on Documentation:

It's extremely important to document your work and to do it well. You will have invested a lot of thought, time and energy into everything that you make. Documentation (through still images, video or both) gives you the opportunity to apply for shows, grants, graduate programs and art related jobs. You are required to document each of your projects by taking quality images with a digital camera.

Requirements:

Mid-term and Final Critique: 80 %

Effort and engagement: 20%

The course will utilize readings periodically to focus and generate discussion as well as to inspire. Participation/preparation in these discussions is mandatory.

Sketchbook: A book (blank, unlined, is ideal) for this class is a requirement. To be used both for artistic ideas as well as retaining technical information. When individual meetings occur it is important to have this available. Tape measure.

Note on Materials:

Each student is responsible for purchasing his or her own materials. Materials will vary from person to person depending on what he or she is making. Art making can be inexpensive or costly depending on the materials used. It is the instructor's goal that the course materials cost less than $250.00. If we are forced to move this course to completely online instruction, then the costs for the course could increase to 450.00. Materials for demonstration purposes will be provided.

MATERIALS

Materials will be based upon the desired area of research of the student and the purchase of said materials will be their responsibility. Please design your research plan accordingly.

Handbook & Safety

While the online manual covers specific issues related to the Department of Art, Texas A&M University-Commerce policies must also be followed. All users of the Department of Art (DOA) classrooms and facilities are required to follow the health and safety guidelines outlined in this manual at all times. Report any safety issues IMMEDIATELY to your instructor(s), Teaching Laboratory Specialist, or to the DOA Health and Safety Liaison.

Each course instructor will discuss their area's inherent risks, procedures, and policies to provide the student with informed consent. These will be reviewed verbally at the start of each semester.

Students who meet in face-to-face Department of Art courses must complete the online form for each course they attend. A link to the online form: <http://dms.tamuc.edu/Forms/ArtLabPolicy>

*This must be completed on campus while using the University's Wi-Fi or Ethernet connections.

CLASS PARTICIPATION & PROFESSIONALISM:

Participation is very important in studio and seminar classes. You are expected to participate fully, actively, and professionally in class. This means that you work efficiently and effectively both individually and within small groups. You are also encouraged to speak up and to share your thoughts in discussion and critique.

Professional and respectful conduct is expected from everyone at all times. The use (even silent use) of cell phones is absolutely prohibited during class. Please turn these items off, and do not take them out during class.

GROUP CRITIQUES & DISCUSSIONS:

Discussions and critiques will provide a forum in which you will have the opportunity to articulate your ideas, to collaborate with your colleagues, to appreciate multiple points of view, to understand and explore complex concepts, and to learn from one another.

When your fellow students present their work you will be asked to comment in a thoughtful (which does mean kind) articulate and professional manner. The major assignments in class will provide the occasion for critique and discussion of presentations and art works.

Your participation grade is based on how regularly and professionally you participate in class and critiques. I expect each student to make a positive contribution during class discussions, critiques, and cleanup/sculpture lab improvement times.

Critiques will provide you with valuable feedback from your peers and myself. I encourage you to take notes of the comments being made during your critique so you have a record of the discussion. The following is a general guideline to help you understand your final grade:

A - Excellent: You should possess exceptional attitude which is reflected in your critique participation, response to criticism and professional conduct. Your work must manifest remarkable achievement both in quantity and quality. Your ability to communicate ideas should exhibit noteworthy achievement.

B - Good: You should have a positive attitude which is reflected in your critique participation, response to criticism and professional conduct is expected. Your work must manifest high quality achievement. You should possess sound, above-average ability to communicate your ideas.

C - Satisfactory: A positive attitude which is reflected in your critique participation, response to criticism and professional conduct is expected. Your work must manifest acceptable achievement both in quality and quantity. You should possess satisfactory ability to communicate your ideas.

D - Poor: Exhibiting a below standard or indifferent attitude which is reflected in your critique participation, response to criticism and professional conduct could also result in this grade. A grade of D indicates your work is less than acceptable in quality and/or quantity. This grade could indicate your inability to satisfactorily communicate ideas.

F - Failure: If you possess an unacceptable attitude which is reflected in your lack of critique participation, response to criticism and professional conduct, and/or your work shows a pattern of low productivity and/or unacceptable quality you could receive a failing grade.

Note: Plagiarism will not be tolerated in this class.

Texas A&M University–Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. “Academic dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource materials. Plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the course.
