COURSE INFORMATION

Required Books/Materials:

Fundamentals of Theatrical Design by Karen Brewster & Melissa Shafer I

SBN: 978-1-58115-849-6

Mr. Burns, a post-electric play by Anne Washburn (no specific copy of edition)

You will need to create art for this class, so you will also materials needed to do so. Either programs to do it digitally or select art materials for doing it by hand. If doing it by hand you need better quality than Crayola and computer paper. Drawing paper and colored pencils can be very versatile, and the Brand Windsor-Newton is available on Amazon and caters to art students with affordable yet quality materials.

Course Description

Provides the student with the basic knowledge of theatrical design. Familiarizes students with the methods, materials, vocabulary, concepts, and processes involved in the design of scenery, costumes, and lighting for theatre production. Emphasis of this course will be on the process of how to design, how to think like a designer, and how to communicate as a designer.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Recognize and utilize design terminology, color theory and visual composition to communicate conceptual ideas for a theatrical design.
- Interpret analysis of text into design ideas using research and visual inspiration.
- Demonstrate insight into text and design idea development by using images to convey ideas.
- Demonstrate the ability communicate visually.
- Write critically using analytical thinking to analyze a script for design needs.
- Demonstrate research skills in writing and presenting information to a group.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods

This course will be taught via Zoom and utilizing d2l for assignments and handouts. The Zoom links are below, they are also in the Zoom tab in the d2l shell for each section.

GRADING

Projects:

Design exercises	60 pts
Mr. Burns Analysis	75 pts
Mr. Burns Roughs	50 pts
Mr. Burns Final Designs	150 pts
Research Paper & Presentation	75 pts

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Assessments

You will be graded on the progression of your own work not how it compares to someone else's. We all start at different artistic skill levels, I want to see how you incorporate assessment and practice not how well your work stacks up against someone else's.

A grade of "A" will not be assigned to any individual who has not completed ALL class

Interaction with Instructor Statement

If at any time during this course you are in need of further explanation or should need to speak with me about the course or its outcomes, please reach out to me. I am always available by email. Please communicate, I can't help if I don't know there's an issue or a question.

Email Policy:

Before sending me an email with a general course-specific question, review your syllabus/look at the handouts/check myLeo Online/ask a classmate first. If your question has already been addressed in one of those places, then you will have the answer you need. If your question does not exist, please feel free to email me.

When emailing me: Please make your emails clear and concise, written with proper grammar in order to assure my earliest attention. In addition, please follow some common "email etiquette" procedures in order to keep our electronic communication effective and efficient. Specifically:

- Write a relevant subject line (e.g., "Theatrical Design," or "THE 550 question")
- Address me by name (ie: "Dear Professor Williams" or "Hi Andrea" or just "Andrea")
- Bonus: "meaningless niceties" are never a bad idea!
- Concisely state what it is you need. If it can't be communicated in a concise manner, perhaps request an appointment. If requesting an appointment, give me times that you are available in the initial email!!! It helps things go faster if I have your availability to compare to mine.
- Use a "sign-off" ("Thank you" is always good) and sign your name.

Not following these guidelines potentially puts you at the bottom of my list for response time.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
