Attention: This is an online course with online requirements—students must have access to a computer with working email and internet. There are no excuses for not having daily online access for completing work in the online environment—including immediate purchase of the ebook packet required for the course.

COURSE INFORMATION

Please note that this is a reading intensive course with assignments due almost daily.

Please Note: There is also a No AI policy for this course and No Outside Materials, No Web Searches, and No Outside Information or Content Is Allowed (other than the combined ebook textbook and connected content and any resources directly assigned by the professor in d2L for this specific course).

REQUIRED CLASS MATERIALS:

IMPORTANT: You have to have access to the combined textbook for the assignments in this class. It is impossible to pass the course without them. The least expensive options have been chosen with student economic wellbeing in mind.

NOTE: Both ebooks can also be purchased through the publisher directly by following the links and instructions inside the class’s online digital learning space in Brightspace/D2L starting the first week of classes.

- 1. (REQUIRED)—Give Me Liberty PLUS Seagull Eighth Edition, Volume 1 (Ebook set comes with both Give Me Liberty Volume 1 Seagull Eighth Edition and Voices of Freedom Volume 1 Eighth Edition.) Authors: Eric Foner, Kathleen DuVal, and Lisa McGirr. Publisher: WW Norton. ISBN # 9781324119371.

IMPORTANT: You have to have access to both textbooks in the packet for the assignments in this class. It is impossible to pass the course without them. The least expensive options have been chosen with student economic wellbeing in mind.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

3. Students will need access to Microsoft Word, Google Docs (saved as a .docx to upload to the class), or other word processing software that can have files saved as .docx
4. Access to student email.
5. A reliable computer/laptop/compatible tablet with reliable internet access to take the course and do each week's classwork. (Smart phones will not provide sufficient access and ability to take the course and do coursework.)

Additional Class Materials: Students will need to check their myleo email daily and for any class related news and updates check in to the D2L class. Any additional reading assignments, such as brief articles, videos, or primary documents, will be supplied by the instructor in class or through D2L.

A note about course content: The textbook assigned for this course combines the content from the ebooks of Give Me Liberty vol. 1. 8th ed. Seagull version <https://wwnorton.com/books/9781324119371/about-the-book/table-of-contents> and Voices of Freedom vol. 1. 8th ed. <https://wwnorton.com/books/9781324104599/about-the-book/table-of-contents>. The links provided here are for the table of contents for each of the separate books combined for the PLUS ebook assigned for this course. This course section will cover chapters 1 through 15 in both books. Students will have a choice over which primary source content they write about in all essay assignments. The primary sources they will choose from are listed in the above second hyperlink. Multiple choice quizzes have test banks which randomly assign questions for each student's quizzes based on course content skills and readings quizzes based on each chapter of Give Me Liberty. Students are welcome to peruse the content of the books prior to the start of the semester to get a general idea of the types of topics covered by the course and determine whether this course is for them or not.

Additional Class Materials: Students will need to check their myleo email daily and for any class related news and updates check in to the D2L class. Any additional reading assignments, such as brief articles, videos, or primary documents, may be supplied by the instructor in class or through D2L.

Course Description:

HIST 1302: A broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America from 1865. Note: Assignments will focus on reading, writing, and analysis.

Course Pre-Requisites, Co-Requisites:

Prerequisites: ENG 1301 or concurrent enrollment or ENG 1302 or concurrent enrollment.

Student Learning Outcomes:

As a Core Curriculum requirement, this class focuses on four common Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Critical Thinking - Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. Oral/Visual Communication - Students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Personal Responsibility - Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4. Social Responsibility - Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Student Learning Outcomes will be assessed by the Student Responsibility Quiz and a Primary Source Analysis assignment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Explanation of Evaluation Criteria:

Primary Source Analysis #1	10%
Primary Source Analysis #2	15%
InQuizitive & Course Content Quizzes	(45% combined)
Give Me Liberty Illumine Chapter Quizzes	(30% combined)
Semester Total	100%

Grade Breakdown:

A = 89.5-100

B = 79.5-89.4

C = 69.5-79.4

D = 59.5-69.4

F = 0-59.4

Responsibility Quiz: Each student will have to take the Responsibility Quiz. These must be submitted by the Friday of the third week in class—although extra credit will be provided to students who turn it in by the course calendar due date ahead of this; failure to submit these sheets when due will result in a failing grade for the course regardless of other work completed. Questions regarding this particular course and departmental requirement should be addressed to the Department of History chairperson, Dr. Sharon Kowalsky. Students will not be dropped from the course for non-compliance.

Weekly Quizzes:

There will be online readings and content quizzes due every week of the semester in this course. There are links inside D2L to the book publisher's chapter InQuizitive Quizzes. Grades will also show up in D2L. Additionally, there are completion questions inside the eBook for Give Me Liberty. You will take those quizzes while you read, in addition to the InQuizitive Quizzes and other content and lesson quizzes.

Make sure you are taking the InQuizitive Quizzes linked through the D2L class in each chapter folder in the Give Me Liberty Textbook Access Folder AND the quizzes inside each chapter of the Give Me Liberty book AND the other quizzes assigned in the course listed in the course calendar.

Make-ups—

There are no make-up quizzes for the class. Students will have from the start of the semester to take all quizzes in the course. Each quiz will close on the deadline. They will not be reopened. There is unlimited time and unlimited takes for quizzes until the deadline. Start early and do not wait until the last minute to take the readings quizzes. It takes some students a number of hours to do well, while other can complete it quickly—all which depends on each individual student's learning style.

Primary Source Analysis Assignments: Students are required to do two primary source analysis during the semester. Students can start it any time during the weeks they are assigned and must complete them and upload them to D2L before the deadline. For the Primary Source Analysis Assignments, students must refer directly to Primary Source material and additional secondary source information needed from the Give Me Liberty Plus ebook and cite page numbers and textbook name according to the assignment and course citation directions. There will be a brief citation guide for the course available in D2L. Lack of proper citation, use of AI in any way, or the use of sources other than those specifically assigned by the professor will result in a lost points and/or a zero for the assignment grade. There will be no make-ups allowed for primary source analysis assignments.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Accommodations: This course is designed specifically with most accommodation requests in mind. Having said that, students who have accommodation needs documented and registered with the SDS Office at ETAMU will need to contact the instructor of the course via email for instructions on how to access alternative primary source analysis turn in instructions according to their modification requirements.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Audio/Video Recording of Lectures and Class Meetings Policy: Students in the class have the right to expect privacy and security in their learning environments. Therefore, students will not create audio or video recordings of the materials without explicit professor permission. Further, no photographs, audio or video of the course may be uploaded or shared in any environment online or otherwise—including AI software or online notetaking platforms.

AI Use in this Course:

NOTE: Use of AI for this course is not allowed in any way.

ALSO: Do not upload any information from this course to any AI software or website—that is considered academic dishonesty and/or intellectual property theft.

Uploading any content from this course (including exam review information, exam questions, any sound or video files of anyone in the class, lecture note information, lecture note outlines, and/or any content from the publisher's websites or textbooks) to AI software (including DALL-E, ChatGPT, Grok, Grammarly, etc., breaks copyright laws. To do so is illegal. AI software companies take ownership and use rights of any words, phrases, or files uploaded or used by their software, and students do not own any of the content from this course except for their own student created work. All AI software tracks users, and there are ways to know who uploaded what content. To break such laws is against university student code of conduct, as well as being an illegal action, and proper disciplinary procedures will be taken.

AI Use in Courses (Campus Statement):

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there may be legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructor's guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Class Calendar and Dates: While it is highly unlikely that the dates for the reading and assignments would change, I reserve the right to do so if the need presents itself. Any such changes will be announced in class or via the course website. The reading and writing assignments are due at the start of class and considered late thereafter.

University and System Specific Procedures
