Course Information

Course Description

Music 149 is applied music at the beginner level. Intended for students majoring in subjects other than Music.

MUS 151 One to four semester hours. Private instruction for music majors in keyboard, voice, instruments, or composition. The course includes recitals and performance forums with teacher-directed student evaluations and instructions. May be repeated for credit.

MUS 152 Principal Applied. One to four semester hours. Private instruction for music majors in keyboard, voice, instruments, or composition. This course includes recitals and performance forums with teacher-directed student evaluations and instructions. May be repeated for credit.

MUS 351 Private instruction for advanced music majors in keyboard, voice, instruments, or composition. This course includes recitals and performance forums with teacher-directed student evaluations and instructions. All students must pass the upper division barrier examination prior to enrollment. May be repeated for credit.

MUS 352 Principal Applied. One to four semester hours. Private instruction for advanced music majors in keyboard, voice, instruments, or composition. This course includes recitals and performance forums with teacher directed student evaluations and instructions. All students must pass the upper division barrier examination prior to enrollment. May be repeated for credit.

MUS 551 Applied Music. (Minor applied) One to four semester hours. Private instruction for graduate performance majors. Prerequisites: Satisfactory level assessed in the applied music performance audition.

MUS 552 Applied Music. (Principal applied) One to four semester hours. Private instruction for music majors in keyboard, vocal instrumental, conducting, or composition. May be repeated for credit.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduating students in voice will demonstrate music literacy in solo and ensemble performance, including application of appropriate performance practice technique and expressive nuance.

In this course, students will:

Minors

MUS 149: Students will perform selected repertoire with technique and musicianship suitable for a non-major and appropriate to the student's musical and developmental level. Students will memorize 3 pieces and perform 1 for their final jury.

MUS 151: Students will perform selected repertoire with basic technique and musicianship suitable for a secondary performance medium. Students will memorize 3 pieces and perform 1 for their final jury.

MUS 351: Students will perform selected repertoire with basic to intermediate technique and musicianship suitable for a secondary performance medium. Students will memorize 3 pieces and perform 1 for their final jury.

MUS 551: Students will perform selected repertoire with intermediate to advanced level technique and musicianship suitable for a minor applied lesson at the graduate level. Students will memorize 3 pieces and perform 1 for their final jury.

Majors

MUS 152: In level one principal applied lessons, students will perform selected repertoire suitable to the student's musical development with intermediate technique and musicianship in preparation for the upcoming junior level proficiency exam. Students in this level must memorize 4-5 pieces and will perform 2 for their final jury. In the 4th semester, the students will perform all pieces as a part of their JLPE.

MUS 352: In level three principal applied lessons, students will perform selected repertoire suitable to the student's musical development with advanced technique and musicianship in preparation for the upcoming junior or senior recital. Students in this level must memorize a minimum of 6 pieces and will perform 2 for their final jury.

MUS 552: In level five principal applied lessons, graduate students will be able to demonstrate the mastery of technique and expressive nuance in solo and ensemble performance. Students in this level must memorize a minimum of 6 pieces and will perform 2 for their final jury.

All major level applied vocal students will be required to take a Barrier Exam after eight (8) credits of voice are completed. The Barrier Exam ("JLPE"), typically taken during the spring semester of your sophomore year, must prove that the student is capable of:

- a) Accurately and expressively perform classic selections from the vocal Repertoire (min. 6 songs, It., Fr., Ger., and Eng. must be represented;
- b) Accurately and expressively prepare and perform without the assistance of an applied instructor a selection from the standard vocal repertoire;
- c) Demonstrate the capability of accurately pronouncing song texts in English, French, German, Italian and Latin using the International Phonetic Alphabet;
- d) Demonstrate the capability of accurately singing at sight a classic selection from the vocal repertoire.

Students have one chance to re-take any/ all portions of the JLPE, should they fail the first time. Any failed portions must be re-taken the following semester. The student must continue to enroll in Music 152 until all portions of the JLPE are passed. Then the student may enroll in Music 352 upon the recommendation of the voice faculty. See the Vocal Divisions Handbook for more detailed information.

Required Materials

Each student is required to purchase music books for their individual use. Books may vary by student and may be as few as one or as many as four or five books each semester. The student should budget $100 per semester for the purchase of music books and other materials relevant to this course. (This amount is much less than the average cost of books for other courses and is very reasonable, considering that books may be used for several semesters and kept for future use in your future teaching and singing endeavors. This amount does not include accompanist fees.) I do try to assign as many songs as possible from the books you already have, but sometimes that is not possible.

One notebook/3-ring binder, containing both music staff paper and regular notebook paper must be brought to each lesson for inspection and grading. Digital copies of music are permitted, so long as they are legally obtained, and the student can make markings on the score during the lesson.

An audio/video recording device (i.e: cell phone) must be brought to each lesson for recording and playback of your lessons.

A pencil with eraser (or stylus, in the case of digital sheet music) must be brought to each lesson, for note taking. Even if the sheet music is digitized, it is highly recommended to take notes with pencil and paper and keep the notes in the voice notebook.

A collaborative pianist (for lessons, rehearsals, and performances) must be secured each semester. (See Vocal Accompanist Policy for more detailed information.)

Course Requirements

Instructional Methods

The student's work will be directed to three general areas of study: Vocal Production, Music Literacy, and Vocal Artistry/Creativity. In particular, attention will be given to Posture, Respiration, Phonation (including registration and resonance), Diction, Song Analysis, Music Scholarship, and Interpretation.

The applied instructor selects literature and plans lessons in a logical sequence specifically designed to prepare each student to meet the Student Learning Outcomes. Thus, the literature and skills addressed in each lesson will vary according to each student's experience in performance repertoire and technical strengths and weaknesses. In practice, after assessing a student's skill and needs in the early lessons, the applied instructor often provides a more detailed overview of the semester's activities. However, this overview is specific to that student and the sequential activities are contingent upon that student's continued progress.

Students enrolled in one credit hour will receive one 25-minute private lesson per week. Students enrolled in two credit hours will receive one 50-minute private lesson per week. Additionally, all students enrolled in this course will meet in a weekly joint class ("Studio") in the form of a masterclass. This means you will sometimes participate as a performer and at other times as an audience member. We will speak about topics involving everyone and each student will be scheduled to sing several times throughout the semester, thereby practicing the art of solo performance. Each student is required to dress appropriately for performances when scheduled to sing. (Business, business-casual, or "Sunday best" and dress shoes are expected; absolutely NO JEANS or ATHLETIC SHOES will be permitted.) Any student not in compliance with the performance dress code will not be allowed to perform and will receive a 0% for their missed performance.

All lessons will take place in Dr. Schloneger's studio, room 233 in the Music Building.

Studio Class will meet from 5:00-5:50 pm every Monday in the Music Building. We will discuss certain aspects of performance, technical, and collaborative efforts of each performer. All students are expected to perform throughout the semester.

The Vocal Studies Handbook should be printed out and kept in the student's voice notebook at all times.

Assessments

1. LESSON PREPARATION (350 points)

- a) Student's preparation for class and learning of required repertoire;
 - Warm-up the voice, body, and mind, mentally focusing on what you wish to accomplish in the lesson. (Also budget the amount of other singing/ speaking used in the day so that you have sufficient voice left to sing in your lesson!)
 - Arrive early. Knock on the door when it is time for your lesson.
 - Bring all necessary materials: pencil, recording device, music, water.
 - Come to lessons with the notes, rhythms, and texts already learned.
 - All performance indications (tempo, mood, rubato markings) should be translated and considered. Keep this information in your voice notebook.
 - Prepare a word-for word translation, idiomatic/poetic translation, and IPA transcription for each foreign language piece and keep in your voice notebook. (IPASource.com and the Nico Castel Series of Libretto translations and IPA are wonderful resources to consult.)
 - Have watched video of the previous week's lesson
 - Grading:
 - You will earn an A for your lesson if you:
 - You will earn a B if you have a major weakness in one criterion or minor concerns in two criteria.
 - You will earn a C if you have major weaknesses in two criteria or minor concerns in three criteria.
 - You will earn D↓ if you have major weaknesses in three criteria or minor concerns in four criteria.
 - You will receive an F (0 points) for an unexcused absence
- b) Student's improvement (technical progress, growth in musicianship, and overcoming of vocal faults) shown during the semester (EACH student is expected to practice on their own a MINIMUM of three hours per week PER CREDIT HOUR enrolled of voice).
- c) Student's performance in weekly lessons and assigned convocation.
- d) Student's written word-for-word translations in their music scores for foreign language pieces, and an idiomatic translation for pieces in the student's native language.

2. WRITTEN NOTEBOOK/PORTFOLIO ASSIGNMENTS (180 points)

The student will prepare a portfolio (also called a voice notebook) which they will bring to each lesson. This notebook (hard copy or digital) is where all the student's sheet music, translations, handouts received in lessons or studio, etc. will be kept. Electronically, the students will also create and maintain an updated music performance resume as well as written information about the composers and poet. The biographies are an evolving document that will be added to throughout the semester and will be a helpful resource for the student's future recital program notes.

Each aspect of the portfolio will be submitted for a grade on the D2L platform and is broken down into equally graded parts in the following way:

a) Song Translations (75 points)

a. Hand-written Word-for-Word Translations (25 points)

- Hand-written word-for-word translations in music scores for all pieces studied this semester must be written in the music score and kept in the student's voice notebook/portfolio.
- Students should scan a copy of their hand-written translations and submit it via D2L on the corresponding assignment by the given due date.

b. Idiomatic/Poetic Translations (25 points)

- An idiomatic translation is a way to put the meaning of the song text in the student's own words. Find a way to make the word-for-word translations make sense to both you and the audience. This may look like rearranged words or changing phrases altogether to get the meaning across.
- For pieces in the student's native language(s), the student should still provide a 'translation' by stating the meaning of the texts clearly in their own words.
- This should be done for all pieces studied this semester, written in the music score, and kept in the student's voice notebook/portfolio.
- Students can either scan a copy of their hand-written idiomatic translations or type up their idiomatic translations.
- It must be submitted via D2L on the corresponding assignment by the given due date.

c. Sheet music with IPA transcriptions (25 points)

- Students must write-in International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) symbols above the words of their music.
- Once the IPA has been written on the student's music, the student must scan a copy and submit it to D2L by the given due date. The paper copy must be kept in the student's Voice Lesson Notebook and brought to every lesson and referenced as needed throughout the semester.

b) Composer AND poet Biographies (50 points)

- As part of the student's voice lesson notebook/portfolio, they must include composer AND poet biographies written in the student's own words (one paragraph is sufficient.)
- Bios should include the birth and death dates, information on the piece of theirs the student is working on, and at least one interesting fact about the person, piece, or setting that an audience would enjoy learning.
- Students must submit a typed copy of this information to D2L by the given due date. A copy must also be kept in the student's Voice Lesson Notebook for reference.

c) Update Performance Resume (25 points)

- Each student will create a performance resume and update it each semester

d) Mid-Term and End of Semester Reflection/Self-Assessments (25 points)

3. RECITAL & STUDIO CLASS ATTENDANCE (75 points)

Music majors are required to attend all student and faculty recitals performed on campus. Attendance will be taken at each recital by the Opera Graduate Assistant and will be reported to each applied faculty at the end of the semester.

If you must miss a recital for any reason, you must discuss it with your applied professor at least a week in advance. It is also courteous to send a note to the performer to wish them luck and express your regrets for being unable to attend.

I require ALL of my students to attend voice recitals held on campus, regardless of major field of study. It is an important part of the learning process.

4. STUDIO CLASS & CONVO PERFORMANCES (100 points)

All students are required to perform in studio class throughout the semester and once in convo each semester. Students are graded on their presentation, performance, interpretation, and memorization when applicable. If a student is unable to perform due to illness or other circumstances, they must contact Dr. Schloneger and work to find another student to trade performance days with. If there is no effort to do either task, the student will receive a zero for that studio class performance.

5. MOCK JURY/JURY PERFORMANCE/FINAL EXAM (300 points)

Each student performs a mock jury in the week leading up to juries. Each student is scheduled for a performance time, in coordination with their pianist. Students are graded by Dr. Schloneger in the same way a regular jury would be graded. The student will choose their first piece to sing and Dr. Schloneger will choose a second piece from the provided repertoire list for the student to sing. Students must be fully memorized on all pieces.

The student will perform a final exam/ jury for the vocal faculty during final exam week. Jury performance grades attribute 40% to your final grade for this course. Students enrolled in two credit hours will first perform from memory one song of their choice from their prepared repertoire list, and then at least one additional selection chosen by the vocal faculty from the remaining prepared repertoire. Students enrolled in one credit hour will perform a piece of their choice only. Each student schedule their jury and submit their jury repertoire online at <https://tamuc.jury-system.com> using their own personal registered account.

Grading

The instructor's semester grading will be based on the following:

1. Lesson Preparation (14 lessons @ 25 pts)	350 points
2. Written Notebook/Portfolio Assignments	175 points
3. Recital Attendance	75 points

4. Studio Class Performances	100 points
6. Final Exam (Jury) including Mock Jury	300 points
TOTAL:	1000 points

Grading Scale:

A.....	900-1000
B.....	800-890
C.....	700-790
D.....	600-690
F.....	0-590

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Accompanist Policy

Students are required to hire an accompanist each semester. To secure an accompanist, first read the Accompanying Policies and Procedures (distributed separately). Then, fill out this Vocal Accompanist Request Form and you will be assigned a pianist based on availability. Keep in mind that you do not get to choose whether you hire a professional or student, so you should budget for the maximum fee, just in case.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance

Course Attendance Policy

It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor at least 24 hours in advance if you are going to miss a lesson. Make-up lessons will be given at the instructor's discretion, only with proper notice. If a student does not show for a lesson, without contacting the instructor, the lesson will not be made-up. A student may have only one unexcused absence per semester without it affecting their grade. Following the first absence, each subsequent unexcused absence will result in the reduction of one letter grade for the semester. A student may only have three absences total (excused or unexcused) in a regular long semester. After the third absence, the student may receive a failing grade for the semester. Please contact me if you have a special circumstance before you reach your absence quota. If I am unable to teach your lesson, I will notify you via email, text, or phone call in advance, and will make it up at a later time.

Late Assignments or Work

Students needing extra time to complete an assignment must communicate with the instructor in advance. A moment of forgetfulness is not a valid reason for a due date extension.

School of Music Engagement Expectations

ENGAGEMENT

Students are expected to actively participate in all classes. Notification for excused absence must be received in advance. It is the individual student's responsibility to notify the instructor of a legitimate absence in advance. It is also the individual student's responsibility to acquire any missed notes and assignments from other students and/or the instructor. Students are expected to actively participate in all classes by coming prepared and with all assigned materials.

Students are expected to demonstrate skills in pedagogy through their observation, analysis, discussion and feedback of the performances of other students. Students are expected to gain skills in this area by the observation of teaching techniques in their own private lessons and through the observation of teaching techniques of other students in studio class, guest artist classes on campus, and optional conference attendance or optional observations of master teachers online.

CIVILITY

All students are expected to follow the Tenets of Common Decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook: <https://www.etamu.edu/student-code-of-conduct>. The tenets apply to all communication to the instructor and your classmates.

Demonstrate commitment to your course of study by contributing thoughtfully to class discussions, turning in assignments in a timely manner, being prompt and dependable, supporting your peers and the instructor, and accepting critiques graciously. Be open-minded about other's opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances. Cell phones should be turned off before class begins and concealed from view throughout the duration of the class period.

Be open-minded about other's opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances. Failure to conform to these expectations of behavior will result in a lowered grade.

Texas Education Code – Music Education

This course content is aligned with the standards established by the Texas Education Code, covering areas such as Music, the Commissioner's Rules, Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities, Technology, and English Language Proficiency. To review these standards, please visit the Music Education Program D2L Shell and select "Standards and Objectives."

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is a fundamental expectation of this course and of the School of Music. Students are expected to complete all assignments honestly and to submit work that represents their own knowledge, effort, and creativity. Any form of academic dishonesty undermines the learning process and is inconsistent with the ethical standards expected of university students and future music professionals.

Students found responsible for cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic misconduct will receive a grade penalty, which may include a zero on the assignment or examination, a failing grade for the course, or other sanctions at the instructor's discretion, consistent with university policy. Incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to the Dean of Students and may result in additional disciplinary action.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Using unauthorized materials, devices, or assistance during quizzes, tests, or examinations.
- Receiving unauthorized help on assignments, papers, projects, or other coursework.
- Obtaining or distributing examination materials without permission.
- Submitting the same paper or project for more than one course without the prior approval of all instructors involved.
- Collaborating on work intended to be completed individually.
- Any action intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Presenting another person's words, ideas, research, or creative work as your own without proper acknowledgment.
- Using direct quotations or paraphrased material without appropriate citation.
- Submitting work prepared wholly or in part by another individual or commercial service.
- Failing to properly credit sources, whether published, unpublished, or obtained through digital media.

Unless explicitly authorized by the instructor, all submitted work must be created by the student(s) enrolled in the course. Students may not hire another person or company to complete coursework on their behalf.

Students who are uncertain whether a particular resource or type of assistance is permitted should consult the instructor before submitting the assignment.

For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

AI use policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
