Required Textbook

Alfred's Group Piano for Adults book 2, 2nd edition – Lancaster and Renfrow

A digital copy of the book is NOT available for purchase.

Illegal copies/scans of the book are not to be used in the class.

Course Requirements

Instructional Methods: Required Practice of Piano

Students are expected to practice daily for a minimum of forty-five minutes. It is almost impossible to “cram” at the last minute and pass a piano exam. You are not only expected to play the elements of your exam well, but to do so in a performance setting. Daily preparation is the only way to insure that nerves do not get the best of you!

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance

Attendance Policy

Attendance is essential to pass this course. The first three absences will not count against the student. All absences after three will result in a loss of 50 points from the final point total – this is equivalent to half of letter grade. If a student has a note verifying an absence is due to serious illness, doctor’s visit, or university trip, then the absence will be excused. Never assume that an absence is excused! Bring documentation whenever possible. Tardiness after four will result in an absence for that day. Students leaving the classroom before class is dismissed will receive an absence for that day.

NO FOOD OR DRINK IS ALLOWED IN THE PIANO LAB AT ANY TIME!

Late Assignments and Missed Exams

Late work will not be accepted. During the semester, there will be 4 quizzes. Each quiz is worth 25 points. Missed quizzes will not be made up for unexcused absences. Quizzes will not be rescheduled in the situation of lack of preparation due to an absence in the previous class. Students are responsible for keeping up with class assignments even in case of an absence.

You must be in attendance for all exams at your assigned time. Exams will not be made up if missed except for instances of medical emergency, university cancellation, or prearrangements made in the case of university-sponsored trips.
