Writing Assignments/Creative Projects: Late submissions will incur a ½-letter-grade deduction for each day late and will not be accepted after three (3) days past the deadline.

Missed Exams: Exams can only be made up if you experience an emergency that prevents you from taking an exam. An email notification must be sent to the professor BEFORE the exam deadline, and documentation of the circumstances may be required. See the course schedule for exam dates.

Virtual Art Exhibition: Must be completed by the posted deadline, and late submissions will only be considered in cases of emergency. An email notification must be sent to the professor BEFORE the assignment deadline, and documentation of the circumstances is required.

Attendance: Regular class attendance is expected. It is the responsibility of each student to monitor his/her attendance. Each student in this course is allowed three (3) unexcused absences. Unexcused absences require no explanation from the student.

In this class, excused absences are: (1) participation in pre-approved University activities such as athletic events, sponsored field trips, and travel for specific University-related academic reasons; (2) verifiable legal proceedings; and (3) cases of illness, injury, or emergencies. For any absences to be considered excused, illness or otherwise, documentation is required for your absence and must be emailed to your professor not later than 5 days after the missed class. Failure to do so will result in an unexcused absence, NO EXCEPTIONS.

When a student accrues more than three (3) unexcused absences, the instructor has the prerogative to drop the student ½ letter grade for each unexcused absence exceeding three. For example, 5 unexcused absences will drop an “A” to a “B” and so forth. Students with excessive absences may be dropped from the course for non-attendance.

Note: It is the student’s responsibility to sign the attendance sheet each class and keep track of their absences. If your signature is not on the sign-in sheet, you are considered absent. If you forget to sign in or arrive more than 10 minutes late to class, you are absent. No, you cannot show the professor you were in class on a later date if you forgot to sign in. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Academic dishonesty:

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one's own, use of AI technology, etc.).
