Student Responsibilities:

- Read and understand the assigned material
- Work and complete the assignments
- Prepare for and take quizzes/exams.

Teaching Procedures:

This is a 100% asynchronous class. You will be reading the materials from the books. In addition, you are also responsible for reading any additional assigned readings. You will also be responsible for watching course-related (assigned) videos. All assignments including quizzes/exams will be available online.

Case Analysis: Case will be posted on your D2L site. I am not looking for just the final answer. I am looking for step-by-step solution. If only final answer of each part is provided without any supporting calculations (step-by-step process), 50 points will automatically be deducted from your obtained score in that assignment. Case Analysis, Template, and Submission Link will be available under Module 9. You must use the template to get full credit on correctly submitted assignment. The assignment must be typed. Handwritten submissions will be given 50 points penalty on the obtained score. More information about the Case Analysis will be provided as class progresses. No makeup will be given for missing the deadline. No Later submissions will be accepted.

Assignments: The assignments will be done as individual assignments. These assignments will be provided throughout the semester. The assignments will be available on your course D2L site (linked via Flatworldknowledge). No makeup assignments will be given, so make sure you don't miss any assignments.

Quizzes and Exams: Quizzes and Exams will be available online on your D2L site (linked via Flatworldknowledge). No makeup quizzes or exams will be given. It is your responsibility to take each assigned quiz and exam before the deadline.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT:Interaction with Instructor Statement:

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your instructor. Correspondence will always be through university email (your “myLeo” mail) and announcements in myLeo online (D2L). You will not RECEIVE email through D2L, so be sure to check your ETAMU email for communication. Students are encouraged to check university email daily.

Include the Following in Emails with Instructor:

- Course name and subject in the subject line
- Salutation (Good afternoon, Dr. Jackson)
- Proper email etiquette (no “text” emails – use proper grammar and punctuation)
- Student name and CWID after the body of the email (possibly add to student signature on email)

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES:Syllabus Change Policy:

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Student Conduct:

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail online in the Student Guidebook.

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette Webpage for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum.

ETAMU Attendance:

For more information about the attendance policy, please view the Attendance Webpage and the Class Attendance Policy.

Academic Integrity:

Students at East Texas A&M University are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all their scholarly work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty, see the following procedures:

Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.03

Use of Artificial Intelligence:

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources

Students with Disabilities - ADA Statement:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring accommodation, please contact:
