COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Due Dates: All assignments, discussion, and projects are due on the date and time given by the instructor. Any work that is late will be reduced by one full-letter grade. Assignments will not be accepted if they are more than one week late.

Coursework: All work must be completed during this semester for this course only.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Exams: Exams will be made available for several days for students to complete. Please note that exams will not be accepted late.

AI usage: In this course, you are expected to develop and express your own ideas about photography through writing and discussion. The use of generative AI tools (such as ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, etc) to generate or draft your written work or discussion posts is not accepted. You may use (and are encouraged to use) spell-check and grammar-check. If you are unsure whether a tool or resource is permitted, ask before using it. Unauthorized use of AI will be considered academic dishonesty.

Attendance: PHO 1301 is an asynchronous online course. It is essential to log into this course regularly to complete assignments and access course materials. If you do not log in to d2L (or submit assignments) for three or more consecutive weeks, this absence will impact your grade, and you may be dropped from the course.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
