Course Description

MUS 100B.001 (Symphonic Band) is a one-hour credit course for large ensemble that performs significant repertoire for wind and percussion instruments. Though primarily comprised of music majors, it is open to all qualified undergraduate and graduate students, regardless of major, through an audition process. The ensemble offers students a performance experience with a broad range of wind band literature.

Course Content and Student Learning Objectives

Course content includes:

- Understanding and demonstration of accurate individual, sectional and ensemble intonation and rhythm along with fundamental and advanced instrumental techniques while performing a varied repertoire of music within the ensemble
- Expressive performance of a varied repertoire of music representing styles and diverse cultures within the ensemble

- Understanding and utilization of standard musical terminology to describe intervals, music notation, chord structure, rhythm/meter, harmonic texture, form, and music symbols and terms referring to dynamics, tempo, and articulation with ensemble.
- Understanding and utilization of problem-solving skills to identify and correct problems with pitch, rhythm/meter, articulation, phrasing, and dynamics within an ensemble rehearsal setting.
- Guest composer interaction & Q&A Sessions (during some semesters)
- Guest artists/educator interaction & Q&A Sessions (during some semesters)

GRADES:

Your final grade will be determined by:

(60%) Music Preparation: Obvious detailed preparation of music (prior to rehearsal and sectionals)

(20%) Performances and Assessments: Participation in and promptness to performances and/or assessments (concerts, recording sessions, etc.). NOTE: sound checks are considered part of the performance.

(20%) Professionalism: Degree of professionalism exhibited in rehearsals, performances and virtual class meetings or guest lectures and timely and clear communication of illness, conflicts, concerns, etc. as would be expected of a professional educator or musician. Attendance and Promptness to sectionals and rehearsals is expected.

Required Sectionals will be held on a weekly basis (The principal player in each section is responsible for coordinating the sectional and informing the director of any absences from sectionals via the weekly sectional attendance form).

Attendance Policy: Since each member is critical to the success of the ensemble, all students are required to be present at each rehearsal and sectionals and to participate fully in each class regardless of modality unless the absence falls under the excused absence policy.

Direct communication with the instructor of any absences is of the utmost importance. Excused absences are defined as illness, family emergency, or a university related event or activity (with prior approval). As with professional ensembles, students are expected to secure a qualified substitute for the rehearsal in advance. A full description of the substitute process will be discussed in the first rehearsal. Potential absences, other than those listed above, should be discussed directly with the conductor at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible. Final classification of absences will be at the sole discretion of the conductor.

- One unexcused absence = a maximum grade of B
 - Two unexcused absences = a maximum grade of C
 - Three unexcused absences = a maximum grade of D
 - Four unexcused absences = a maximum grade of F
- An unexcused absence from a performance may result in an automatic grade of F and dismissal from the ensemble.
 - Tardies accumulate at the rate of Three unexcused tardies=One Unexcused absence

- If at any time a student fails to meet the standards of attendance, rehearsal or performance for the ensemble, the student may be removed and replaced at the discretion of the conductor.

Use of Electronic Devices: To maintain a focused learning environment, it is required that cellular phones be turned off or made inaudible during class. This includes checking emails on any other device.

Music Stands: All Woodwind and Brass students must provide their own portable music stands for use in sectionals and practice rooms. University music stands will be used only for large ensemble rehearsals and performances. Students needing to order a portable music stand may obtain information from the band office on recommended stand models. Details will be discussed, and recommendations made at the first class meeting.

Music and Concert Folders: You will be given a concert folder for use during the semester. In addition, you will be given music and expected to return music at various times throughout the semester. Please listen and look for announcements regarding this process. If the pieces are originals, you are responsible for the maintenance of each piece that you are issued. Replacement costs for lost or damaged original music will be $3 per page, and a lost or damaged black concert music folio will result in a $20 replacement fee.

Concert Attire:

Option A: Black Tuxedo, BLACK long-sleeved dress shirt, black long tie (to be purchased from the School of Music (est. cost $15.00), Solid black Shoes and Socks.

Option B: Black pants and top of appropriate style (top, jacket or blouse MUST have sleeves) Shoulders should be covered (no spaghetti straps) - Black shoes are required-sandals are not considered appropriate. Attire should be ALL black)

Please communicate directly with the conductor if you have any questions or concerns about concert attire.

In addition to appropriate traditional concert attire, students are expected to maintain professional personal appearance in the concert setting.

COURSE AND SCHOOL OF MUSIC PROCEDURES/POLICIES

SYLLABUS CHANGE POLICY

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance. Attendance, Engagement and Civility Policy

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance, punctuality, and active participation in all scheduled classes, rehearsals, lessons, and performances are essential to student success and are expected of all students in the School of Music. Absences may result in grade penalties, loss of participation or performance opportunities, dismissal from the course or ensemble, or failure of the course. By enrolling, students agree to uphold these standards of professional responsibility and engagement.

Excused absences include illness with a doctor’s note, jury duty, or the death of an immediate family member. If you must miss class for any reason, including not being registered and last-minute issues such as sudden illness or car trouble (for commuters only), you are expected to communicate with the instructor via text or email before class begins.

Absent students will, by default, earn a grade of zero for that day’s work until proof of excused absence is provided. Failure to provide a physician’s note, jury summons, or other proof confirming the legitimacy of the absence will result in the classification of that absence as unexcused. Students who are absent are expected to carefully review the lecture PowerPoint in D2L so that they do not fall behind.

Due to its performance nature, face-to face class attendance cannot be made up.

The instructor reserves the right to drop any student who misses more than 2 in-person, face-to-face classes, regardless of the reason. If absences are accumulated after the drop date, the student will receive a failing grade. This cushion is intended for students who experience a profound hardship. Outside of legitimate excused absences that are communicated with the instructor, all students are expected to attend every class.

Students are expected to remain fully engaged in class activities during class time. Any student who disengages from class (texts, checks social media, works on assignments for other classes) will be asked to leave the classroom and an unexcused absence will be recorded in D2L.

ENGAGEMENT

Students are expected to remain fully engaged in class activities during class time. Any student who disengages from class (texts, checks social media, works on assignments for other classes) will be asked to leave the classroom and an unexcused absence will be recorded in D2L.

CIVILITY

All students are expected to follow the Tenets of Common Decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook: <https://www.etamu.edu/student-code-of-conduct>. The tenets apply to all communication to the instructor and your classmates.

Demonstrate commitment to your course of study by contributing thoughtfully to class discussions, turning in assignments in a timely manner, being prompt and dependable, supporting your peers and the instructor, and accepting critiques graciously. Be open-minded about other's opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances. Cell phones should be turned off before class begins and concealed from view throughout the duration of the class period. Please take care of any necessities (food, drink, restroom) before coming to class so that we may proceed without interruption. If you need to bring a bottle of water, please take care to keep the cap secured. Dispose of all food and chewing gum before class begins. No food, chewing gum, or drinks other than water are allowed in the classroom.

Please be careful with our classroom materials and use them only when instructed. Failure to bring class materials will result in a loss of 50 points.

Be open-minded about other's opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances. Failure to conform to these expectations of behavior will result in a lowered grade. Engagement/Performance grades will be given according to the instructor's discretion:

An A will be earned by the student who arrives early with all materials, exhibits superior attentiveness, is fully prepared for class, participates with enthusiasm, and is a leader and role model to others.

A B will be earned by the student who exhibits excellent attentiveness, is prepared for class, participates with enthusiasm, and is a valued asset to others.

A C will be earned by the student who exhibits average attentiveness, preparation, and class participation.

A D will be earned by the student who exhibits little attentiveness, preparation, and participation.

An F will be earned by the student who exhibits no attentiveness, preparation, or participation.

This student will be instructed to drop the course.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is a fundamental expectation of this course and of the School of Music. Students are expected to complete all assignments honestly and to submit work that represents their own knowledge, effort, and creativity. Any form of academic dishonesty undermines the learning process and is inconsistent with the ethical standards expected of university students and future music professionals. Students found responsible for cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic misconduct will receive a grade penalty, which may include a zero on the assignment or examination, a failing grade for the course, or other sanctions at the instructor's discretion, consistent with university policy. Incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to the Dean of Students and may result in additional disciplinary action.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Using unauthorized materials, devices, or assistance during quizzes, tests, or examinations.
- Receiving unauthorized help on assignments, papers, projects, or other coursework.
- Obtaining or distributing examination materials without permission.
- Submitting the same paper or project for more than one course without the prior approval of all instructors involved.
- Collaborating on work intended to be completed individually.
- Any action intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Presenting another person's words, ideas, research, or creative work as your own without proper acknowledgment.
- Using direct quotations or paraphrased material without appropriate citation.
- Submitting work prepared wholly or in part by another individual or commercial service.
- Failing to properly credit sources, whether published, unpublished, or obtained through digital media.

Unless explicitly authorized by the instructor, all submitted work must be created by the student(s) enrolled in the course. Students may not hire another person or company to complete coursework on their behalf.

Students who are uncertain whether a particular resource or type of assistance is permitted should consult the instructor before submitting the assignment.

For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

USE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

CLASSROOM ATTIRE

As future music professionals, students are encouraged to view their appearance as part of their professional identity. Developing habits of appropriate dress demonstrates respect for classmates, faculty, guest artists, and the profession, and helps prepare students for the expectations they will encounter in educational and professional settings. Students are expected to dress in a manner that is appropriate for a university learning environment and reflects the professional standards of the School of Music. Clothing should be clean, neat, and suitable for participating in class activities, including movement-based exercises, presentations, and guest lectures.

Because students often work in close proximity during rehearsals, classes, and performances, attention to personal hygiene is an important aspect of professionalism and respect for others.
