Required Texts:

The American Yawp: A Massively Collaborative Open U.S. History Textbook, Volume I: to 1877.

Student Learning Outcomes

As a Core Curriculum requirement, this class focuses on four common Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Critical Thinking - Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. Oral/Visual Communication - Students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Personal Responsibility - Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4. Social Responsibility - Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Student Learning Outcomes will be assessed by the Student Responsibility Quiz and a Primary Source Analysis assignment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods and Assessment

This is a face-to-face survey course in United States History from pre-historic times to 1877. There is web-enhancement through MyLeo where you will find key concepts, lecture PowerPoint files, and primary sources analysis documents. Unit Exams and Unit Essays are written in class. The Primary Sources Exercises and the Course Analytical Essay can be written in and/or out of class.

Assignments, Student Responsibilities, Expectations, and Tips for Success

Your course grade consists of:	4 Unit Examinations – 10% each (40% total)
	4 Unit Essays – 5% each (20% total)
	4 Primary Source Analysis – 5% each (20% total)
	1 Analytical Essay – 10%
	Student Responsibility Quiz / Class Participation – 10%

Exam schedule:	Exam/Essay 1 – Chapters 1-4
	Exam/Essay 2 – Chapters 5-8
	Exam/Essay 3 – Chapters 9-12
	Exam/Essay 4 – Chapters 13-15

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Unit Exams consist of 50 objective questions: multiple choice, fill-in, matching, and true/false.

Unit Essays include 2 short discussion questions and must be 250 words each responding to the prompts provided.

Primary Source Analysis work consists of 4 exercises reading a variety of primary source documents. This assignment asks students to analyze information, communicate clearly and effectively, and show awareness of social and civil issues or problems. Using the selected primary source document, students should write 2 pages that: (1) identify the author/creator and context of the document (including when and where it was created); (2) consider the purpose of the document, including the author's goals in its creation and its intended audience; and (3) evaluate the document, analyzing why this document is important to help understand the historical period or the events it describes (its significance), and how the document contributes to our historical understanding of the period (historical causes and effect). The written analysis should be presented using full and complete sentences and proper grammar and punctuation in MLA style.

Course Analytical Essay is 2 pages, responding to the prompt provided. Essays should be written in correct MLA style with bibliography. Students are expected to use at least three scholarly sources during research.

Class Participation consists of attendance and participation. Class participation expectations include arriving to class on time and paying attention in class.

Late Work: Any late work submitted will incur an automatic 30% penalty.

GRADING

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Statement on Student Grievances

Students who have questions or concerns about the instructor's course policies or the conduct either of the instructor or a classmate should first consult with the instructor. In the event of a lack of resolution or satisfaction on the matter, the student may bring their concerns to the head of the History Department, Sharon Kowalsky (Sharon.Kowalsky@etamu.edu). If this does not result in a satisfactory conclusion to the matter, students may bring the issue to the attention of the Associate Dean of Students per procedures outlined on pp. 15-19 of the Student Guide Book.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

AI Use Policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there may be legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructor's guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
