COURSE INFORMATION

Required Text and Materials:

Marketing Strategy Based on First Principles and Data Analytics by Robert W. Palmatier and Shrihari Sridhar, Second Edition (2021), Bloomsbury Academic, ISBN 10: 1352011468; ISBN 13: 978-1352011463.

Course Description

This graduate-level course examines how marketing managers make effective strategic decisions in dynamic and competitive markets. Students will apply fundamental marketing principles to address key challenges involving customers, brands, competitors, and market opportunities. The course emphasizes the development, evaluation, and implementation of marketing strategies that create value for customers and the firm. Through cases, applications, and managerial exercises, students will strengthen their ability to interpret relevant information, evaluate strategic alternatives, and make well-supported marketing decisions.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Apply fundamental marketing principles and frameworks to evaluate marketing opportunities and challenges.
- Analyze customer, company, and competitive information to support effective marketing decisions.
- Develop and evaluate marketing strategies related to customer acquisition, retention, segmentation, targeting, positioning, and resource allocation.
- Integrate relevant market information and managerial judgment to formulate and communicate well-supported marketing recommendations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

The course requires the use of the learning management system (D2L), and the use of Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint to conduct assignments and presentations.

Instructional Methods

The course will use a combination of lecture ppts, videos and online discussions. All course materials are put under doc sharing in D2L.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Regularly logging into the course website is required. Students should check their emails frequently to receive notifications and updates of course processes. Although the professor will send reminder emails when an assignment is due, it is your responsibility to meet all deadlines. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that all notifications and materials sent to the professor are received by the professor. You should plan your time carefully.

Deadlines are absolute:

All discussions, assignments and exams must be completed on the due date. Late work will not be accepted and will be graded as zero.

Email Policy:

When you send me email, be sure to include the course title (MKT529) and section number in the subject line. I receive more than 50 emails a day. To ensure that your email reaches my inbox and reduce confusions, do include your course title and section number in your email subject line.

Students are required to check their email at least once a day. The eCollege environment will be used for class related material and document posting so the students are expected and required to have access to that platform.

Academic Honesty Policy

Students are required to sign and return the academic honesty policy document during the first week of the class. Any form of cheating is not allowed or tolerated in this class and will be reported to the college and graduate school. The cheating includes but is not limited to: copying, lying, copying from another's assignment or test, changing the answers on an exam or assignment for re-grade, assisting another student in doing dishonest behavior.

GRADING

Your grade will be determined by your performance on two exams, one individual assignment, class participation, and group projects. The point distribution for the course is as follows:

Your final grade is your total points earned divided by the course's total points. The following scale will be used to assign final grades:

SCORE	≥ 90	80-89.9	70-79.9	60-69.9	< 60
GRADE	A	B	C	D	F

Assessments

Assignments	Points	Relating to Outcome
Academic Honesty Policy	Pass/fail
2 cases (40 points each)	80	1,2
2 individual assignments (50 points each)	100	1,2,3,4,5,6
Group Project	100	5,6
Total Points	280

Introduction and Academic Honesty Document

Please sign the academic honesty document and introduce yourself to your classmate in student lounge by week 1. You should include at least the following information (not exhaustive though): you name, major, you school status (full/part, year). This is to help you get familiar with your classmates.

Group Work

Please follow the group project instructions carefully. Please form your group at your earliest convenience. By the end of fall break, you should find a group to join in. If not, I will assign you randomly to a group. Each group can have 2-3 group members.

The grade is based on the final report regardless how many students do the project. If your group has any issues regarding the performance of any group member, please notify me at least one week ahead of deadline so that I can eliminate certain group members.

Quizzes

Three quizzes will be administered during the semester. All assessments will take place in class. The quizzes will cover textbook readings, lecture content, videos, and any material presented by guest speakers. Students are responsible for all material introduced in the course, regardless of the format in which it is delivered. There will be no make-up quizzes or make-up exams.

Class participation (for F2F section only)

Class participation contributes 20 points to the course grade. Students should come to class prepared to discuss the required readings and assignments.

Class participation includes both attendance and participation. For presence, if a student misses more than 3 classes, the participation grade will be zero. And students who repeatedly arrive late to the lecture will lose up to 60% of points.

For participation, it can take various formats such as presentation, discussion in smaller groups, and completing in-class activities. If you are fully engaged in at least two of those three activities, you will earn full points.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

LMS Requirements:

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Email Response:

The preferred method of communication is through emails. I usually respond within 24 hours (generally quicker than that). In weekend, the response time can be 48 hours.

Assignment Policy

All assignments will be graded within one week, or at least no more than 10 days after the due date. Some students might turn in the assignment earlier than the due date. I usually grade all assignment together unless you make specific requirement.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Deadline

Deadline is absolute. Missed assignments and exams will result in 0 points. Under exceptional conditions, a late assignment maybe accepted with the permission from the professor. However, under no circumstances will an assignment be accepted more than one week late.

Time Zone:

The default time zone is Central Standard Time (CST) for all assignments, exams, discussions etc.

Extra credit policy:

NO extra credits will be awarded for individual students. Don't attempt to ask for individual extra credit at the end of semester to raise your grade. It is not fair to other students.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Artificial Intelligence

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
