General Course Information

COUN 505 is an introductory course toward earning the Master of Education (MEd) in Counseling. There is an emphasis in College Student Affairs (CSA) for those students' desiring employment in a wide variety of college and university student services settings. The CSA program is a 30-hour program offered entirely online. It targets the bachelor-level student affairs professional desiring a graduate degree to improve service delivery and promotability.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student will demonstrate understanding and appropriate application of:

1. Program planning and implementation skills.
2. Needs assessment (s).
3. Consultation skills in cooperation with academic and other student affairs areas.
4. Leadership knowledge and skills.
5. Advising (academic, undergraduate volunteers, subordinate student employees, etc.) knowledge and skills; and
6. Ethical standards of ACA, ACPA-College Student Educators International, and related entities, and applications of ethical and legal considerations as appropriate.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Late Assignments

Occasionally, students require “extra” time in order to complete an assignment. One additional week may be “purchased” with 10% of the possible grade for an assignment. For example, Harry is unable to complete and submit his Assessment Instrument Completion and Reaction on time. The maximum grade Harry can receive now on his Assessment Instrument Completion and Reaction is 90%. Extra time cannot be purchased for completing tests.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: Netiquette

Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity (Including AI Use) Students at East Texas A&M University are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

Counseling Services

The Counseling Center at East Texas A&M University, located in the Halladay Building, Room 203, offers counseling services, educational programming, and connection to community resources for students. Students have 24/7 access to the Counseling Center's crisis assessment services by calling 903-886-5145. For more information regarding Counseling Center events and confidential services, please visit www.etamu.edu/counsel

Mental Health and Well-Being

The university aims to provide students with essential knowledge and tools to understand and support mental health. As part of our commitment to your well-being, we offer access to Telus Health, a service available 24/7/365 via chat, phone, or webinar. Scan the QR code to download the app and explore the resources available to you for guidance and support whenever you need it.

The System has made a significant investment in student mental health in the form of 24/7/365 access to “Telus Health,” a service available via chat, phone, or webinar.
