Course Description:

Detailed study of the development of all phases of theatre art and drama from its origins to Elizabethan Theatre. Includes study of theatre conventions, plays, and major dramatic movements.

Prerequisite:

THE 1310–Introduction to the Theatre or permission of the instructor.

Course Introduction:

It is also widely argued that all Western theatrical conventions were adapted and/or appropriated by each succeeding society to the point that “there is nothing new under the sun.” The conceptual framework for this semester revolves around this notion coupled with ideas about ritual, the chorus (as witness), conventions, and power. Of course, socio-political conditions must be studied and related to the theatres of their times. In addition, we [re]view plays and productions from the past through contemporary lenses. We will apply principles from the past to plays in the present (The Aliens and Honorable Mention).

Course Ethics and Attendance: Note that attendance alone does not constitute participation.

Promptness, attendance, and “attentiveness” are valued in this class. Please behave accordingly and do not disrupt the class with excessive talk or the use of cell phones or other devices. A willingness to “give theatre history a chance” is most appreciated. It is assumed that students will work cooperatively with one another and all work that is not “original” will be properly credited. See the TAMUC Student’s Guide Handbook for more information on plagiarism. This is a serious offense that can result in separation from the university. EVEN if not specifically noted on instructions or prompts for each assignment, plagiarism policies will be strictly enforced.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of theatrical forms and styles of production across cultures and centuries.
2. Apply theories and terminology to discussions on theatre
3. Develop skills necessary to think and write critically and clearly about theatre history and theatre practices.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

My Personal Policy:

Please keep in mind that I am a human. I have a family. As such, please see below for my boundaries so that I may maintain my own self-care yet still be available for you as my student:

- You may email me at any point for guidance, questions, etc. I will respond within 24-48 hours between the hours of 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday
 - General course-specific questions: review your syllabus/look at the handouts/check D2L/ask a classmate first. If your question has already been addressed, then you will have the answer you need.
 - When emailing me: Please make your emails clear and concise. In addition, please follow some common "email etiquette" procedures in order to keep our electronic communication effective and efficient. Specifically:
 - Write a relevant subject line (ie: "Theatre History class question,")
 - Address me by name (ie: "Dear Professor Worley" or "Hi Becca" or just "Becca")
 - Concisely state what it is you need. If it can't be communicated in a concise manner, schedule an appointment (see below)

- Sign your name
- I will NOT check email on the weekends, which means I will respond Monday morning.

Office Hours & Appointments:

If I am in my office & the door is open, feel free to visit me during my office hours. Scheduling an in-person or Zoom appointment in advance, however, is preferred. To schedule an appointment, scan the QR code below or go to

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Attendance Policy:

You may accumulate two (2) absences before any penalty occurs. There are no additional absences allowed without penalty. Grades will be dropped in ½ letter grade increments for every class absence beyond the first two absences. Of course, if you have a prolonged illness or injury, or if a family emergency arises, speak with your instructor ASAP. Students should not attend class when ill or after exposure to anyone with a communicable illness. Communicate such instances directly with your instructor. I will work to support you getting access to missed content or completing missed assignments.

Late Arrivals:

The class will begin promptly at 12:30 p.m. If you arrive after 12:40 p.m., you will be marked absent. If you arrive within the ten-minute grace period, please do so discretely in order to avoid disrupting the class activities/discussions. Also, you are expected to stay until you are dismissed from class. Two late arrivals (within the ten-minute grace period) or early departures (or any combination of the two) may be counted as one absence in the class.

Cell Phones and Laptops:

Please turn off all cell phones while in class. Please do not check messages or engage in text messaging during class. Laptops should only be used for class purposes.

Late Work:

Under normal circumstances, I do not accept late work.

Extra Credit:

The instructor reserves the right to offer extra-credit to all students, and to gauge its application appropriately and uniformly for all.

Syllabus Change Policy:

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Incompletes:

Under normal circumstances, an Incomplete (I or X) will NOT be given for a final grade in this course. Per University policy, students who because of circumstances beyond their control are unable to attend classes will, upon approval of their instructor, receive a mark of X (incomplete) in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades at the time of the request for an incomplete.

AI Use in Courses (Draft)

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources
