Course Description:

Studies of the major documents in the evolution of dramatic theory, from classical foundations through major movements to contemporary criticism.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Recognize, identify, and differentiate dramatic critical/theoretical ideas.
2. Demonstrate appropriate interpretation of standard critical/theoretical literature utilizing a vocabulary specific to material covered in the course.
3. Apply critical theory with assurance and to write persuasive, theoretically grounded analyses that add to critical conversation.
4. Synthesize academic research into cohesive scholarly writing and oral presentation.

Course Objectives:

To introduce students to (or reacquaint them with) major critical/theoretical thinkers who have influenced ideas about theatre. To gain a more complete understanding of past critical theory and to grasp the ramifications of its interpretation and application to both historical and contemporary theatre.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

My Personal Policy:

Please keep in mind that I am a human. I have a family. As such, please see below for my boundaries so that I may maintain my own self-care yet still be available for you as my student:

- You may email me at any point for guidance, questions, etc. I will respond within 24-48 hours between the hours of 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday
 - General course-specific questions: review your syllabus/look at the handouts/check D2L/ask a classmate first. If your question has already been addressed, then you will have the answer you need.

- When emailing me: Please make your emails clear and concise. In addition, please follow some common “email etiquette” procedures in order to keep our electronic communication effective and efficient. Specifically:
 - Write a relevant subject line (ie: “Dramatic Theory class question,”)
 - Address me by name (ie: "Dear Professor Worley" or "Hi Becca" or just "Becca")
 - Concisely state what it is you need. If it can't be communicated in a concise manner, schedule an appointment (see below)
 - Sign your name
- I will NOT check email on the weekends, which means I will respond Monday morning.

Office Hours & Appointments:

If I am in my office & the door is open, feel free to visit me during my office hours. Scheduling an in-person or Zoom appointment in advance, however, is preferred. To schedule an appointment, scan the QR code below or go to

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:

Late Work:

Under normal circumstances, I do not accept late work; however, if you have difficulty submitting assignments in D2L DUE TO TECHNICAL ISSUES:

1. Contact Technical Support with the problem
2. Contact me regarding a technical problem with the case number assigned to the problem

For all other reasons (work, family, illness, etc.), please contact me via email ASAP.

For both technical & personal issues, I will determine the need for an extension on a case by case basis.

Extra Credit:

As a general rule, there is no extra credit offered in this class – please, do not even ask.

Incompletes:

Under normal circumstances, an Incomplete (I or X) will NOT be given for a final grade in this course. Per University policy, students who because of circumstances beyond their control are unable to attend classes will, upon approval of their instructor, receive a mark of X (incomplete) in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades at the time of the request for an incomplete.

Syllabus Change Policy:

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Policies and Procedures:Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail online in the Student Guidebook.

AI Use in Courses

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources
