School of Music Mission Statement:

The School of Music at East Texas A&M University promotes excellence in music through the rigorous study of music history, literature, theory, composition, pedagogy, and the preparation of music performance in applied study and ensembles to meet the highest standards of aesthetic expression.

University Mission Statement:

East Texas A&M University nurtures and educates for success through access to academic, research, and service programs of high quality.

Course Description:

The Junior Recital is a half-recital (25 minutes of music), typically performed in the junior year for performance majors and senior year for music education majors.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of JLPE and permission of instructor.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, graduating students will synthesize content from across the curriculum to demonstrate mastery of musical skill and knowledge in this capstone experience.

The student will perform standard solo literature in the primary performance medium in a half-recital (25 minutes) with appropriate technique and musicianship.

Students will research and write program notes suitable for the program selections and with professional-level writing

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Grading Scale

A = 90 to 100% / B = 80 to 89% / C = 70 to 79% / D = 60 to 69% / F = 59 and below

Assessments and Grading

The Recital Rubric will be used for the degree recital. Students will need an overall grade of C or better on the recital to be considered passing. The rubric is published on the School of Music website.

Recital Scheduling Timeline and Requirements

The recital scheduling procedure and recital requirements are described in the Music Student Handbook under the School of Music Internal Resources tab of the Music Homepage (<https://www.etamu.edu/music/guides/>).

As a summary of the process:

1. Consult with your applied instructor
2. Select three possible dates for your recital and recital hearing
3. Submit a signed Recital Scheduling Form to the music office along with your deposit
4. Submit your approved program draft
5. Pass your hearing

Course Requirements

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Use of the learning management system (D2L); Use of any technology required for your selected performance literature

Instructional Methods

Recital is a performance-based class connected with your applied lessons. In addition, you will be required to complete the required recital request forms and submit your completed program in a timely manner.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success

As you practice your music, don't let the administrative or paper-work details of your recital slip up on you. See the information below, in the student handbook, and communicate with your applied instructor to ensure you submit your recital scheduling forms, hearing forms and program information in a timely manner.

Required Textbooks

You must obtain original copies of all music to be performed for the recital and provide music for your accompanist if applicable.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Additional Materials

All specialized instruments, equipment, technology or other materials required for your selected performance literature.

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Accompanist Policy

Students are required to hire an accompanist for their recital. To secure an accompanist, first read the Accompanying Policies and Procedures (distributed separately). Then, fill out this Vocal Accompanist Request Form and you will be assigned a pianist based on availability. Keep in mind that you do not get to choose whether you hire a professional or student, so you should budget for the maximum fee, just in case.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance

Course Attendance Policy

It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor at least 24 hours in advance if you are going to miss a lesson. Make-up lessons will be given at the instructor's discretion, only with proper notice. If a student does not show for a lesson, without contacting the instructor, the lesson will not be made-up. A student may have only one unexcused absence per semester without it affecting their grade. Following the first absence, each subsequent unexcused absence will result in the reduction of one letter grade for the semester. A student may only have three absences total (excused or unexcused) in a regular long semester. After the third absence, the student may receive a failing grade for the semester. Please contact me if you have a special circumstance before you reach your absence quota. If I am unable to teach your lesson, I will notify you via email, text, or phone call in advance, and will make it up at a later time.

ETAMU Attendance

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage and 13.99.99.R0.01 Class Attendance

Late Assignments or Work

Students needing extra time to complete an assignment must communicate with the instructor in advance. A moment of forgetfulness is not a valid reason for a due date extension.

School of Music Engagement Expectations

ENGAGEMENT

Students are expected to actively participate in all classes. Notification for excused absence must be received in advance. It is the individual student's responsibility to notify the instructor of a legitimate absence in advance. It is also the individual student's responsibility to acquire any missed notes and assignments from other students and/or the instructor. Students are expected to actively participate in all classes by coming prepared and with all assigned materials.

Students are expected to demonstrate skills in pedagogy through their observation, analysis, discussion and feedback of the performances of other students. Students are expected to gain skills in this area by the observation of teaching techniques in their own private lessons and through the observation of teaching techniques of other students in studio class, guest artist classes on campus, and optional conference attendance or optional observations of master teachers online.

CIVILITY

All students are expected to follow the Tenets of Common Decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook: <https://www.etamu.edu/student-code-of-conduct>. The tenets apply to all communication to the instructor and your classmates.

Demonstrate commitment to your course of study by contributing thoughtfully to class discussions, turning in assignments in a timely manner, being prompt and dependable, supporting your peers and the instructor, and accepting critiques graciously. Be open-minded about other's opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances. Cell phones should be turned off before class begins and concealed from view throughout the duration of the class period.

Be open-minded about other's opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances. Failure to conform to these expectations of behavior will result in a lowered grade.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Texas Education Code – Music Education

This course content is aligned with the standards established by the Texas Education Code, covering areas such as Music, the Commissioner's Rules, Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities, Technology, and English Language Proficiency. To review these standards, please visit the Music Education Program D2L Shell and select "Standards and Objectives."

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is a fundamental expectation of this course and of the School of Music. Students are expected to complete all assignments honestly and to submit work that represents their own knowledge, effort, and creativity. Any form of academic dishonesty undermines the learning process and is inconsistent with the ethical standards expected of university students and future music professionals.

Students found responsible for cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic misconduct will receive a grade penalty, which may include a zero on the assignment or examination, a failing grade for the course, or other sanctions at the instructor's discretion, consistent with university policy. Incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to the Dean of Students and may result in additional disciplinary action.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Using unauthorized materials, devices, or assistance during quizzes, tests, or examinations.
- Receiving unauthorized help on assignments, papers, projects, or other coursework.
- Obtaining or distributing examination materials without permission.
- Submitting the same paper or project for more than one course without the prior approval of all instructors involved.
- Collaborating on work intended to be completed individually.
- Any action intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Presenting another person's words, ideas, research, or creative work as your own without proper acknowledgment.
- Using direct quotations or paraphrased material without appropriate citation.
- Submitting work prepared wholly or in part by another individual or commercial service.
- Failing to properly credit sources, whether published, unpublished, or obtained through digital media.

Unless explicitly authorized by the instructor, all submitted work must be created by the student(s) enrolled in the course. Students may not hire another person or company to complete coursework on their behalf.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Students who are uncertain whether a particular resource or type of assistance is permitted should consult the instructor before submitting the assignment.

AI use policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
