COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduces the student to the workings and interrelationships of the U.S. and world economics. Principles of economic analysis including measurement of aggregate economic activity, national income determination, money and banking, monetary and fiscal policy, and business fluctuation. Emphasis is given to analyzing real world problems such as poverty, inflation, unemployment, and economic instability.

STUDENT OUTCOMES

Successful students will be able to accomplish these objectives toward understanding the economy:

1. Explain how choices and trade improve welfare.
2. Be able to use the supply and demand model to describe individual decision makers, an industry, and the economy as a whole.
3. Be able to calculate features of the economy given a simplified dataset. Be able to discuss the limitations and benefits of using each construct to describe the economy.
4. Model the effects on society for changes in macroeconomic variables.

Successful students will be able to accomplish these objectives as critical thinkers:

- A. Identify assumptions used in models
- B. Identify information and data that is relevant to an economic problem.
- C. Be able to identify alternative solutions to an economic problem.
- D. Be able to relate and explain economic topics to economic models.
- E. Identify the societal and/or civic issues that are relevant to an economic problem or event.
- F. Use critical thinking skills (creative thinking, innovation, inquiry and analysis of information) to propose solutions to selected economic problems or events.

GRADES AND ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS:

Grading: This course is a face to face course offering. It is expected that students attend regularly. The course is structured so that students can learn in various different formats.

This course relies on the D2L learning system. You should use the system to follow announcements, email your professor, and follow up with new material.

Absolutely no late work will be accepted without penalty unless arrangements have been made with the professor before the due date. This applies to all quizzes, exams, etc. It is possible (not guaranteed) that curves will be given on exams. Students should commit between 6-9 hours of study time per week at a minimum (excluding lecture times).

Exams Exams will be conducted in the physical classroom during the day assigned. The professor will notify the students of the details. There are no makeup exams.

The grades will be based on quizzes (20 points), three exams (60 points), and meaningful class participation and discussions (20 points). There will be no early exams and no make-up exams. An exam that is missed will be considered an F, unless your professor is notified prior to the exam and the excuse is a legitimate medical one or officially approved. Regardless of the excuse, if you miss two tests you will automatically fail the class. Late assignments and projects will not be accepted. Course grades will be assigned as:

90 – 100 %	A
80 – 89 %	B
70 – 79 %	C
60 – 69 %	D
Below 60 %	F

HELPFUL HINTS

Attendance is mandatory. Reading the assigned materials, turning in assignments, being in constant communication with your instructor, checking the school email regularly are very important learning tools. You will be expected to come to class prepared.

RULES, REGULATIONS AND OTHER STUFF

All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (See Student Guidebook). Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: Netiquette <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

Texas A&M University-Commerce has established standards of conduct to create and foster an environment that facilitates student learning and development. Students and University student groups are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that demonstrates respect for the rights and property of others, and that is consistent with the educational goals and mission of the University. This Code of Student Conduct (“Code”) focuses on personal responsibility and accountability for students’ actions and the impact those actions may have on the greater community. The Student Code of Conduct can be found here:
<http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/campuservices/studentRights/documents/Code%20of%20conduct%20in%20english.pdf>

Students are expected to be professional, courteous, and respectful at all times.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

PLAGIARISM Plagiarism represents disregard for academic standards and is strictly against University policy. Plagiarized work will result in an “F” for the course and further administrative sanctions permitted under University policy. Guidelines for properly quoting someone else’s writings and the proper citing of sources can be found in the APA Publication Manual. If you do not understand the term “plagiarism”, or if you have difficulty summarizing or documenting sources, contact your professor for assistance.

STUDENT WORKLOAD University graduate students are expected to dedicate a minimum of 90 clock hours during the term/semester for a 3SH course delivered online.

Nondiscrimination Notice East Texas A&M University will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Campus Concealed Carry Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in East Texas A&M University buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and East Texas A&M University Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to 10 ((<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>) and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all East Texas A&M University campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.
