- Basic computer skills (i.e. Accessing email/D2L)

Instructional Methods

- Lecture, group activities, class discussions and projects

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

1. Attend Class Regularly- Consistent attendance is key to understanding economic concepts and participating in discussions. Dual credit students must follow both high school and college attendance policies.
2. Stay Current with Assignments- Meet all deadlines. College coursework moves quickly—late or missing assignments can significantly affect your grade.
3. Check Course Platforms Frequently- Monitor D2L (Brightspace) and email regularly for announcements, assignments, and updates.
4. Read the Textbook and Assigned Materials- Come to class prepared. Economics builds on itself—falling behind in reading makes catching up difficult.
5. Take Notes and Review Them Often- Actively engage during lectures. Review your notes weekly to reinforce learning and prepare for exams.
6. Ask Questions and Participate- Don't be afraid to ask for clarification. Economics involves real-world applications, so your questions matter.

7. Manage Your Time Wisely- Balance high school and college responsibilities. Use a planner or calendar to stay organized.
8. Maintain Academic Integrity- All work must be your own. Plagiarism or cheating will be reported to both your high school and the college.
9. Respect the Dual Credit Environment- This is a college-level course with college-level expectations. Conduct yourself accordingly.
10. Take Responsibility for Your Learning- You are earning college credit. Take initiative, be proactive, and take pride in your work.
