Wellness Event

Last month we had two wellness events. One was over the importance of sun safety and one was a craft and tea event. This month we will have another tea and craft session.

July 24th we will be having a relaxing tea and craft time. The crafts we will be making are glitter bottles and sand art. We will also provide pastries and tea. This event will be held in the training room of the Employee Services building. Please do not forget to sign up through the Develop U portal. I look forward to seeing you there!

Training and Development

In Training and Development there will be a New Employee Orientation on July 8th from 9am-1pm. Make sure to sign up for this if you are a new staff member. This will go over information that is great to have as you start your time here at East Texas A&M University. You can sign up through the Develop U link here: <https://appsprod.tamuc.edu/td/CourseCalendar.aspx>
