

Radio

Texas A&M University-Commerce is proud to have a public media outlet that boasts two radio stations and a news website on campus.

88.9 KETR-FM

88.9 KETR is a National Public Radio member station and features “All Things Considered” and “Morning Edition,” among other NPR programs. KETR places strong emphasis on national and international public affairs, local news coverage, comprehensive severe weather information, cultural programming, and a variety of music. KETR offers live programming on 88.9 FM and on-demand content through their website.

The Lion, 88.9 HD2

The Lion, 88.9 HD2 brings Northeast Texas a 24/7 triple-A music station in partnership with WXPN from the University of Pennsylvania. In addition, The Lion includes seasonal programming including like Texas A&M University-Commerce Softball and other collegiate sports offerings. The Lion is found 24 hours a day at 88.9 HD2 on HD radios in Northeast Texas, and at ketr.org/hd2.