

Unemployment Insurance

System Regulation: 31.02.07

Approved: September 29, 1995

Most Recent Revision: April 20, 2022

Next Scheduled Review: April 20, 2027

Responsible University Office:

Human Resources

Responsible University Administrator:

Compensation Analyst

The Unemployment Compensation Insurance is an employer-funded insurance program that helps workers who are unemployed through no fault of their own. It provides temporary financial help to qualified individuals, based on their previous earnings, while they are looking for other work. Not everyone who applies receives benefits. All benefit determinations are made by the Texas Workforce Commission. The Texas Workforce Commission webpage provides information on applying for unemployment benefits.