The Lion Card Office provides official identification for Texas A&M University- Commerce. The Lion Card can be obtained as a physical or digital card only, and the account associated with the card is called Lion Cash.

Lion Cards are available to all faculty currently employed by the university. Faculty use their Lion Cards to gain access to several different areas on campus, including faculty staff meal plans, retail dining, classroom access where card swipes are provided, special events, and the Morris Recreational Center with a paid membership. In addition, Lion Cards allow faculty to take advantage of the many services offered by the Velma K. Waters Library. Lion Cards are available in the Lion Card Office in the Halladay Student Services Building, Suite 104. Normal office hours for the Lion Card Office are Monday through Friday, between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm. While the first Lion Card is free, replacement cards are available for a nominal fee. Currently the replacement fee is $10.

Lion Cash is a debit account that allows faculty to access university bookstores, dining centers, computer labs, and vending. All Lion Cards have an activated Lion Cash account. Deposits for Lion Cash can be made online or via one of several campus locations.
