

Texas A&M University-Commerce

Faculty Senate

Proclamation

WHEREAS, we are here today to honor and celebrate the outstanding career of Professor Raghu Naath Singh;

WHEREAS, Dr. Singh began his career at Texas A&M University-Commerce as an Instructor in 1970 and now serves as Professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice;

WHEREAS, Dr. Singh has faithfully and conscientiously served Texas A&M University-Commerce and its students, staff and faculty for 48 years;

WHEREAS, Dr. Singh served on the Faculty Senate for 35 years;

WHEREAS, Dr. Singh served as chair of the Faculty Senate's Curriculum Committee and Academic Life Committee for numerous years;

WHEREAS, Dr. Singh served as President of the Faculty Senate for 5 years; and

WHEREAS, Texas A&M University-Commerce has benefited greatly from Dr. Singh's service and leadership, exemplified in 2010 with his Neill Humfeld Distinguished Faculty Award for Service and his Regents Professor honor in 2011; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, that the Faculty Senate of Texas A&M University-Commerce, on this 27th day of November, 2018, expresses its sincere appreciation to Dr. Singh for his service to Texas A&M University-Commerce and its students, staff and faculty over the past 48 years and wish him much happiness as he begins this new chapter in his life. We ask the university community to join us in congratulating Dr. Raghu Naath Singh for his meritorious work, loyalty and dedication to Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Stephen D. Starnes, Faculty Senate President