Procedure Summary

Texas A&M University-Commerce has established the minimum cumulative grade point average standards for “Good Academic Standing”.

This procedure established the criteria for “Good Academic Standing” for all students at A&M-Commerce.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1 UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

- 1.1 Entering students (first-time university students or transfers) who have been fully admitted (without any type of probation, provision or restriction) will be considered in good academic standing.
- 1.2 With the exception of students designated in § 1.4, a student is in good academic standing if and only if he or she has a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 and is not on disciplinary suspension.
- 1.3 A student placed on academic probation or suspension must attain a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher to be in good standing, regardless of whether he or she is allowed to re-enroll. (See 11.04.99.R0.06 Undergraduate Scholastic Probation and Dismissal)
- 1.4 For good standing status, an undergraduate student must maintain a 2.00 GPA and be in compliance with ethical and professional standards as determined by the student’s academic department and university rules and procedures.
- 1.5 The University Registrar is responsible for the good academic standing designation and reporting.

2 GRADUATE STUDENTS

- 2.1 For good standing status, a graduate student must maintain a 3.00 GPA. A doctoral student can have no more than two courses with grades less than a B. A student must be in compliance with ethical and professional standards as determined by the student’s academic department and university rules and procedures.

2.2 When a graduate student does not satisfy the conditions reflected in § 2.1, the Graduate School will implement the provisions of procedure 13.99.99.R0.39 Graduate Academic Probation, Retention and Suspension for academic probation and suspension.
