The University believes students have an important role to play in the governance of the University. This is particularly true in those areas that most closely affect students' lives as members of the university community.

2 STUDENT REPRESENTATION

2.1 Student participation in the governance of the University occurs in a number of different ways.

2.2 The Student Government Association (SGA), composed of elected student leaders, is the principal representative voice of the university's student body. Through SGA, students are appointed as members of many university committees.

2.3 Students are also selected directly by various departments and divisions of the University to serve on committees dealing with matters of concern to students.

2.4 In addition to the SGA, there are five other governing bodies. Individually and collectively, these governing bodies represent the student body to the administration.

2.4.1 Interfraternity Council,

2.4.2 College Panhellenic Council,

- 2.4.3 National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated,
- 2.4.4 Multicultural Greek Council,
