

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IN THE HIGH SCHOOL CLASSROOM

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAYS

Friday, January 31st

8:45 am - 3:00 pm

Face-to-face

Dallas, TX

Friday, February 7th

8:45 am - 3:00 pm

Face-to-face or Online

Commerce, TX

A day of professional workshops and sessions focused on AI and its impact on high school education, providing practical applications and valuable takeaways. Learn directly from experienced and qualified experts in the field.

Register & Learn More

tamuc.edu/aipdd

Low-Cost Registration

$20 face-to-face, $35 online

Breakfast and lunch included for face-to-face attendees.

Earn CPE Hours

Earn up to 4 Continuing Professional Education (CPE) hours. Attendees will also receive an electronic certificate of attendance and a professional digital badge.

Organized by the Artificial Intelligence Initiative, composed of faculty and staff from East Texas A&M University.

SESSION TOPICS INCLUDE

- Integrating AI in Education
- AI as a Learning Support Agent
- AI and Accessibility Tools
- AI Ethics in Academic Applications
- AI Detection Tools
- Language Modeling and AI Expectations

EAST TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Questions? aipdd@tamuc.edu

Website: tamuc.edu/aipdd