Generally, the following criteria are used as GA selection criteria by GA selection committee

GAT (Graduate Teaching Assistant):
Academic record:
- At TAMUC, 3.0 minimum GPA
  - Must demonstrate proficiency in programming
- At previous institute,
  - The global rank of the institute
  - The student's grade of math and computer related courses
English communication skill:
- Evaluated during interview
Work experience:
- Teaching experience preferred
- Other experience will be considered
At least 1 recommendation letter required
- Must be signed by an instructor or supervisor who was able to evaluate the student's Computer Science and programming skill
- Preferred (but not required) to be signed within 6 months
Other qualifications deemed relevant to the task of GA to be hired

GAR (Graduate Research Assistant):
Work experience:
- Work experience required
- Research experience preferred
Academic record:
- The student's grade of the courses related to the research of our faculty
- TAMUC minimum GPA 3.0 required
English communication skill:
- Evaluated during interview
At least 1 recommendation letter required
- Must be signed by an instructor or supervisor who was able to evaluate the student's Computer Science, programming, and research skill
- Preferred (but not required) to be signed within 6 months
Other qualifications deemed relevant to the task of GA to be hired

Any inquiry about GA position, please contact Dr. Kaoning Hu at Kaoning.Hu@tamuc.edu