COUN 530 Clinical Mental Health Counseling

As the foundation course for those planning to be counselors in mental health settings, this course includes theoretical and applied information regarding mental health counseling services in the context of the larger social services system. A variety of delivery systems, staffing procedures, case management procedures, emergency services, treatment paradigms, and the need for consultation and collaboration among mental health professionals are discussed.

COUN 548 Advanced Counseling Skills

A laboratory-based, experiential course, Advanced Counseling Skills will merge the continued development of basic skills with theoretically based conceptualization skills and techniques. Students will examine their intrapersonal alignments with chosen theoretical orientations. Students will practice theoretically consistent conceptualization skills and techniques. Students will be expected to adhere to ACA Ethical Standards.

COUN 552 Internship

Primary interest is on integration of process, conceptual, professional, and personal skills. Provides extensive supervised experience in a setting closely aligned with student's chosen program. Course is repeated for two, three-credit hour courses, each requiring approximately 20 weekly hours (300 total in each) of field experience, to meet master's requirement of six hours of internship.

Winter Mini 2024 Texas A&M University - Commerce

COUN 481 Introduction to Drug and Alcohol Addiction

This course provides comprehensive coverage and the latest information on a full spectrum of substance use disorders and the compounds commonly abused. Topics include: the abuse of and addiction to alcohol; how the active agent in marijuana, THC, affects neural growth and development; the emerging body of evidence suggesting a relationship between marijuana abuse and psychotic disorders; the emerging body of evidence suggesting that marijuana is not as benign as it was thought to be even a few years ago; and updated information on the abuse of cough syrups, a trend that has evolved in adolescent substance abusers in the past decade.

Counseling Intern/Camp Discover Coordinator

As a Graduate Student Counseling Intern (Texas A&M University – San Antonio), I worked in a cross-cultural environment supporting the mission of CRS in promoting wellness, self-sufficiency, and successful community integration of resettled refugees and their families.

The Center for Refugee Services assists over 400 clients per month who are legally resettled refugees in San Antonio, TX from at risk populations in over 20 countries that have been torn by violence, war, and human rights abuses. Clients include Bhutanese exiles living in refugee camps in Nepal, Burma (Myanmar), DR Congo, Somalia, Syria, Sudan, Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, Central African Republic, etc. Since 2010 over 10,000 individuals have resettled in San Antonio as permanent residents; after 5 years most apply for US citizenship. CRS is the only registered, independent nonprofit agency that works exclusively to promote the successful community integration of legally resettled refugees.

- As an Intern and Camp Coordinator at CRS I also provided individual and group counseling, supported students transitioning from middle to high school, and high school to college through coordinating college campus visits, and experiential/team building activities.

- I also assisted with the Pathways to Wellness and Refugee Health Screener RHS-15 at the San Antonio Refugee Health Clinic, and provided individual and family social services, resources, and referrals.
