TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Training Class at Bexar County Sheriff=s Office (1988 - August 1995) As part of my duties as an Assistant Criminal District Attorney I taught each new class of jailers a class on jail and prison overcrowding issues and other legal issues facing them daily as jailers.

Open Records Act and It=s Effect on the Criminal Prosecutor (1998) As part of the on-going in house continuing legal education of the Bexar County Criminal District Attorney=s Office, I prepared and lectured the prosecutors about the Open Records Act.

Board Training for Hunt County MHMR and Hunt Memorial Hospital District (August 1988 - Present) Each new Board member for Hunt County MHMR and Hunt Memorial Hospital District must receive training related to their job duties and responsibilities with specific emphasis on the legislation related to the services provided by the authority. Legal issues are addressed for approximately one (1) hour during a full day of training.

Texas A&M—Commerce (Fall 2002 – Present) I have taught Family Law (F2002; S2004; S2011; S2013); Business Law (F 2007); Civil Procedure (F2009; F2012); Intro to Law (F2003; F2004); Probate (S2012); Property Law (S2003; S2006; F2010); and Trial and Appellate Advocacy (S2007) over the course of my tenure at Texas A&M—Commerce.

EXPERIENCE WORKING WITH LEGAL ASSISTANTS

I have worked with legal assistants and paralegals continuously since 1988. My firm presently employs three full-time and one part-time legal assistants. These individuals assist in all aspects of our general civil law practice, including preparation for trial, drafting and research. We also provided training to three interns through Texas A&MCommerce=s Paralegal Studies Program in the Fall of 2008.
