

Michelle Hanks, MEd.
Educational Diagnostician/Clinical Instructor

Education:

- May 2003 M. Ed. Stephen F Austin State University; Nacogdoches, TX
 Major: Special Education/Diagnostician Certification
- Dec 1993 B.A. Stephen F Austin State University; Nacogdoches, TX
 Major: Interdisciplinary Studies, Reading & Early Childhood Specialist

Professional Certification Held:

Certified Texas teacher (SBEC) for Special Education, grades EC-12
 Certified Texas teacher (SBEC) for General Education, grades EC-6
 Reading Specialist
 Educational Diagnostician

Experience:

Early Childhood Teacher for Cornerstone Program (MHMR, now ECI)	1993-1994
5 th & 2 nd grade Temple Elementary; Diboll, TX	1995-1997
7 th grade reading Stevens Middle School; Crowley, TX	1997-1998
4 th grade Bonner Elementary; Hudson, TX	1998-1999
Educational Diagnostician, Elementary/Primary level, Hudson ISD	1999-2000
Educational Diagnostician, Elementary level, Northwest ISD	2000-2005
Educational Diagnostician, Middle School level, Hudson ISD	2005-2007
Educational Diagnostician, all level, Collin County Special Education Cooperative	2007-2010
Educational Diagnostician, Elementary/Middle level, Anna ISD	2010-2015
Instructional Interventionist, Anna ISD	2012-2015
Adjunct Instructor, TAMUC	2015-2016
Clinical Instructor, Field Supervisor, Advisor – TAMUC	2016-present

Special Training:

Michael Eaton Mathematics
 Boys Town Behavior Management
 New Jersey Writing Project
 Model teacher certification – Accelerated Reader program
 Cross Battery Assessment
 Crisis Prevention Intervention
 Response to Intervention

Instructional Coaching
T-TESS
Practicum Supervisor Training
Core Selective Evaluation Process

Awards:

Dr. Chuck Arize Junior Faculty Award

Membership in Professional Associations:

Texas Educational Diagnostician Association
Texas Association of Classroom Teachers
Texas Council of Administrators of Special Education
Council of Exceptional Children

Related Leadership Experiences:

Administrator of grant proposed & awarded:

- Help One Student to Succeed (HOSTS)
- What's in Your Tub? (math intervention)

Participation of grant proposed & awarded:

- Project RURAL TAPS

Hott, B.L., Lohmann, M., Randolph, K., Jones, B.A., & Hanks, M. (2020, February). Preparing rural special education teachers: Lessons learned from Grow-Your-Own partnerships. Poster presented at the Council for Exceptional Children., Portland, OR.

Hott, B. L. Jones, B. A., & Hanks, M. (2019, October). Project RURAL TAPS. Roundtable presented at the 41st annual Council for Learning Disabilities, San Antonio, TX.

Relevant Community Volunteer Services:

- HOSTS assistant
- Tutor in public schools
- Educational consultant

TEACHING AND SUPERVISORY EXPERIENCES:

Courses Taught

Survey of Exceptionalities (SPED 346) – Blended
Assessment (SPED 449) – F2F
EC-6 SPED Internship (SPED 466) – Seminar format
EC-6 SPED Residency (SPED 470) – Seminar format
EC-12 SPED Residency (SPED 472) – Seminar format
Physical Disabilities and Medical Management (SPED 478) – Blended
Instructional Strategies (SPED 478) - Blended
Issues for Inclusion (SPED 480) – Seminar format
Diagnostician Practicum (PSY 691) - Blended
Field Supervisor to SPED Residents – Field based Field Supervisor to Educational Diagnosticians – Field based
Independent Study (SPED 489)