

BRIAN MCSHANE – UPDATED CV FALL 2022

EDITING EXPERIENCE

2019 – 2021

ASSOCIATE EDITOR, THE BEST OF THE JOURNALS OF RHETORIC AND COMPOSITION, PARLOR PRESS

For Parlor Press' yearly anthology, The Best of the Journals of Rhetoric and Composition, I worked as part of a team of 3 graduate students to gather submissions, distribute them to reading groups, and write and distribute congratulations or rejection letters to editors of journals once the voting was complete. We composed the book's introduction collaboratively using Google docs asynchronously. Produced two separate anthologies: The Best of the Journals of Rhetoric and Composition 2020 and The Best of the Journals of Rhetoric and Composition 2021 (2021 publication forthcoming. Delayed due to COVID-19).

CO-EDITOR, WRITING INQUIRY 2ND EDITION, FOUNTAINHEAD PRESS

I was one of 4 graduate students chosen by our supervisor to help revise the textbook we teach. Was responsible for researching and recommending alternate articles for inclusion. Wrote three assignments included in the final version of the updated book – a major writing assignment about communities, an activity teaching how to interview, and one about artifacts involved in communities of practice.

2018

ASSISTANT EDITOR, THE BEST OF THE JOURNALS OF RHETORIC AND COMPOSITION 2019, PARLOR PRESS

I was a member of a small group which was given journal articles to read and rank based on a scoring template. We then met and discussed our group rankings, completing a single list of articles for inclusion as well as a justification for our scores, which were then sent to the editors. These scores were then used by the editors to determine which texts were or were not included in the final edition of the book.
