SANA NABIL RAYYASHI

PH.D. CANDIDATE

☎ +1 (203) 922-2509

✉ Sana.rayyashi@tamuc.edu

📍 1809 Monroe St, Commerce, TX 75428

📭 P.O BOX: 3632, 2600 W Neal St, Commerce, TX 75429

PROFILE

Motivated and dedicated PhD candidate in Applied Linguistics with a passion for investigating language acquisition and its real-world applications. Adept at conducting empirical research and employing innovative methodologies to address complex linguistic phenomena. Committed to advancing the understanding of language-related issues and contributing to the academic community.

SKILLS

- Designing and conducting empirical research
- Data collection and analysis (qualitative and quantitative methods)
- Linguistic analysis and interpretation
- Academic writing and publishing
- Developing and delivering lectures
- Translation and interpretation skills
- Developing course materials and syllabi.
- Fluency in Arabic

EDUCATION

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (PHD) IN APPLIED LINGUISTICS

Texas A&M University-Commerce

2024-present

MASTER OF SCIENCE (MSC) IN APPLIED LINGUISTICS

Jordan university of science and technology

2021-2023

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN ENGLISH LITERATURE

Yarmouk University

2018-2021

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

TESOL Teacher at Al-Jawad Cultural Centre, Irbid, Jordan.

2021 — 2022

- Create engaging and interactive lesson plans that cater to various language skills such as speaking, listening, reading, and writing.
- Organize language immersion activities, such as language clubs, and conversation groups.
- Utilize technology tools and resources to enhance language instruction, including interactive multimedia, and online language learning platforms.

Graduate Teaching Assistant at Jordan University of Science and Technology, Irbid, Jordan.

2023

- Assist in the development and preparation of course materials, including lectures, assignments, and assessments.
- Provide support to the lead instructor in organizing and conducting classes.
- Provide academic advice and mentorship to students interested in pursuing linguistics or related fields.

Graduate Teaching Assistant at Texas A&M University-Commerce.

2024-Present

- Offering academic support to students through office hours, email communication, and additional resources.
- Evaluating assignments, exams, and projects, and providing constructive feedback to enhance students' understanding and skills.
- Collaborated with faculty members on research projects within the linguistics department.

VOLUNTARY WORK EXPERIENCE

- Basma Geographic Volunteer Team

Role: Member and Former Founder

Played a pivotal role in founding and guiding the Basma Geographic Volunteer Team.

- Ana Sharek Program

Role: Member

Participated in the Ana Sharek program, a collaborative initiative between the Crown Prince Foundation and the USAID-funded National Democratic Institute.

- COVID-19 Voluntary Work

Contributed over 30 hours of voluntary work during the COVID-19 pandemic, providing support to the community.

LINKS

CERTIFICATES

- Spring 2024 TESOL Professional Development Day

Completed four (4) Continuing Professional Education Hours/Credits on February 23, 2024, at the event hosted by the Applied Linguistics faculty of the Department of Literature and Languages under the College of Humanities, Social Sciences, and Arts at Texas A&M University-Commerce.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2024 International Society for Humor Studies (ISHS) Conference

Role: Session Chair

Chaired sessions at the 2024 ISHS Conference, contributing to the organization and facilitation of discussions on humor studies.

- Assessor, ENG 1302 Assessment - The Learning Showcase

Texas A&M University-Commerce, Date (Spring 2024)

Participated as an assessor for the ENG 1302 course assessment focused on "Personal Responsibility," as defined in the course rubric. Evaluated 2-5 minute student pitches on their literacy ethnography research, providing constructive feedback to support student learning outcomes.