

VITA

NICCOLE D. RECH

P.O. Box 46
Arthur City, TX 75411
ndrech@hotmail.com
Niccole_Rech@tamu-commerce.edu

Professional Objectives:

To complete a Doctorate in Plant Pathology
To perform research on Oomycete and Fungal Plant Pathogens
To teach at a university plus mentor undergraduate and graduate students

EDUCATION:

Masters of Science: Agricultural Sciences (Plant and Soil Sciences Emphasis) Texas A & M – Commerce Commerce, Texas	2010
Masters of Arts: Science Education (Entomology Emphasis) Minot State University Minot, North Dakota	2002
The American University in Cairo Cairo, Egypt Twelve Credits – Entomology and Genetics	1995-1999
Mary Hardin Baylor University Belton, Texas Twelve Graduate Credits – Entomology	1990-1992
Bachelor of Science: Education Minot State University Minot, North Dakota	1987

EXPERIENCE:

Head of the Science Department Teacher, International Baccalaureate Higher Level Biology Supervised and evaluated twelve science teachers, served on numerous committees to update and align science curriculums, budgeted for and ordered supplies, plus taught approximately one-hundred twenty students. American International School-Riyadh Riyadh, Saudi Arabia	2003-2006
---	-----------

Head of the Science Department 1995-2003
Teacher, International Baccalaureate Higher Level Biology
Supervised and evaluated twenty science teachers, performed numerous administrative duties, organized and sponsored science clubs plus taught approximately one-hundred students.
American International School – Egypt
Cairo, Egypt

Science Teacher, David Mindess Middle School 1994-1995
Taught six sections of life sciences
Ashland, Massachusetts

Science Teacher, Huntington Middle School 1993-1994
Taught six sections of life sciences
Newport News, Virginia

Science Teacher, Coupland I. S. D. 1990-1993
Taught all science classes, third through eighth grades;
organized science fairs
Coupland, Texas

Teacher, Saudi Arabian International School 1988-1990
Taught fourth grade; organized science clubs and fairs
Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

AWARDS:

High School Teacher of the Year 2001
American International School in Egypt
Cairo, Egypt

Jiffy Lube Outstanding Educator Award 1995
Ashland, Massachusetts

PUBLICATION:

Comparison of Tumbling Movement in Two Species of Adesmia Fischer-Waldheim 1997
(Coleoptera: Tenebrionidae). 1997. The Coleopterists Bulletin. Vol. 51, No. 1., pp. 86-95.

GRANT:

Authored and won grant from the Mediterranean International Schools Association to build a 1998
Meteorological station for the American International School in Egypt.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATION:

The American Phytopathological Society 2010