Instructor: Michelle Rosenbaum
Academic Department: Mathematics
University Address: Binnion
                             Texas A&M University-Commerce
                             Department of Mathematics
                             PO Box 3011
                             Commerce, TX 75429
Office Phone: 903-886-5157
University Email Address: Michelle.Rosenbaum@tamuc.edu

EDUCATION

Degree: Master of Science (MS) – Mathematics
Texas A & M University – Commerce, May 2017.

Master of Science (MS) – Mathematics
Texas A & M University, 11 hours toward degree in Spring 1988 and Spring 1989.

Master of Science (MS) – Mathematics
Southern Methodist University, 6 hours toward degree in Fall 1987.

Degree: Bachelor of Science (BS) – Mathematics and Computer Science
Dallas Baptist University, December 1986. (Summa Cum Laude 4.0)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Fall 2017-Present, Adjunct, Texas A & M University – Commerce.
    Teach Math 142 – Pre Calculus and Math 1314 – College Algebra
    Taught Math 176 – Business Math II

Fall 2017, Adjunct, Paris Junior College.
    Taught Math 300 – Elementary Algebra.

August 2016, Bridge Program Instructor, Texas A&M University – Commerce.
    Taught Math to students trying to transition from Intermediate Algebra to college level Mathematics.
    Assisted with the lab portion in which students were utilizing ALEKS for homework assignments.

Fall 2014 – May 2017, Graduate Assistant, Texas A & M University - Commerce.
Taught Math 1314 – College Algebra and Math 131 – Intermediate Algebra during regular and summer semesters.
Student instructor for Calculus lab (Fall 2014).

2004-2011, Instructor of Mathematics, TCC, Knoxville, TN.
Taught Algebra I, Algebra II, and Pre-algebra at a small private school.

Spring 1988, Graduate Assistant, Texas A & M University, College Station.
Tutored students at varying levels of math in the Math lab.

Fall 1987, Graduate Assistant, Southern Methodist University.
Taught a lab portion of a Business Calculus class.
Developed and graded quizzes for the lab.