POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Classes

- Marching Band - MUS100M-004 (Instructor: Garth Gundersen)
- Color Guard - MUS100G-003 (Instructor: Garth Gundersen)
- Percussion - MUS100D-014 (Instructors: Lauren Teel)

Grading/Attendance Policy

- Every student in the Pride Marching Band MUST BE ENROLLED.
- Every person enrolled in MUS 100M/D/G receives a letter grade that becomes a part of their permanent university record.

Attendance Policy

- Rehearsal:
 - Students are required to attend all rehearsals.
 - Students are required to be punctual for rehearsals and performances.
 - Students are considered late if they are not in the attendance block at the beginning of rehearsal.
 - Three unexcused tardies will equal one unexcused absence.
 - Failure to have all materials is considered an unexcused absence.
 - Failure to have an instrument in working order (unless cleared by the director in advance) will result in an unexcused absence.
 - Unexcused absences will result in the final grade being lowered one letter for each absence.
 - Students are expected to notify the director or staff assistant of their absence as soon as possible and before the beginning of rehearsal
- Performance:
 - An unexcused absence from a performance may result in an automatic failing grade and/or dismissal from the group.
 - Tardiness to a performance will result in grade reduction and possible loss of performance privileges at the discretion of the direction.
- Reporting Absences:
 - The only acceptable means of reporting an absence is by emailing Mr. Gundersen personally at garth.gundersen@tamuc.edu AND your section leader no less than 30 minutes prior to the start of rehearsal.
 - All attendance records are logged and kept by the senior graduate assistant.
 - An absence shall be excused only if it has been logged and approved by the director well in advance (i.e., a class conflict) or immediately following (i.e., a personal emergency or illness) a rehearsal or performance.
 - Rehearsals or performances missed as a result of personal illness will be excused only with a physician's note.
 - Personal emergencies, or emergencies within the immediate family, will be excused at the discretion of the director. Immediate family is defined as parents and siblings.
 - Potential absences, other than those listed above, should be discussed directly with the ensemble director at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible. Final classification of absences is at the sole discretion of the Director of the Marching Band.
 - One unexcused absence = a maximum grade of B
 - Two unexcused absences = a maximum grade of C
 - Three unexcused absences = a maximum grade of D

- Four unexcused absences = a maximum grade of F
- An unexcused absence from a performance may result in an automatic grade of F and dismissal from the ensemble.
- Tardies accumulate at the rate of three unexcused tardies = one unexcused absence.
- If at any time a student fails to meet the standards of attendance, rehearsal or performance for the ensemble, the student may be removed and replaced at the discretion of the director.
- Additional Items to Consider:
 - In order to maintain a high level of performance excellence, we must have full attendance at “Pride” Marching Band rehearsals. Any absence or tardy is detrimental to the progress of the group.
 - The reputation and quality of the organization depend on the faculty, staff, and members clearing their personal schedules so all rehearsals and performances can be attended.
 - All attendance matters will be carefully scrutinized by the director, and excessive absences may result in dismissal from the ensemble. The staff is aware that conflicts arise, and will do its best to resolve them in an efficient and amicable manner.
 - Each member has a responsibility to represent themselves, The “Pride” Marching Band, and Texas A&M University-Commerce in the best way possible, and that includes punctuality!
 - Job/work-related absences will be considered unexcused.

Grading

- The final grade will be determined by:
 - 20% Attendance (as stated above)
 - 20% Preparedness for rehearsal (instrument/equipment, music, and Ultimate Drill Book App)
 - 20% Preparedness for performance (maintenance of uniform, instruments and equipment)
 - 20% Individual preparation of music, choreography, and drill (evaluated by director, staff, and leaders)
 - 20% A cooperative and professional attitude in rehearsal and performances.

Behavioral Expectations

- All Students enrolled at Texas A&M University-Commerce shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies, Conduct, and Procedures). Students not following those tenets are subject to immediate dismissal from the organization/department.

Hazing Policy

- Hazing is defined as any act which endangers the health, safety, or emotional well-being of a student, or which destroys or removes public or private property for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in a group or organization. The expressed or implied consent of the victim will not be a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing are not neutral acts; they are violations of this rule. The Texas A&M University-Commerce “Pride” Marching Band will not tolerate hazing as it is defined above or by university policy.
- Violations of these expectations will result in immediate dismissal from the organization/department at the discretion of the Director of the “Pride” Marching Band, The Director of Instrumental Activities, and the Music Department Head.

MARCHING BAND EXPENSES

A great many of the expenses associated with marching band are covered by funds from the University such as costs of transportation, pre-season housing, lodging (hotels), meals, and equipment. There are certain items for which each student is responsible. The following information is provided as a summary of those expenses.

- Fees should be paid by July 15. The final option for late payment is the first day of pre-season camp or “Pride” Week.
- All fees must be paid by cash, check, credit, or debit card.
- Credit card transactions will be subject to a $1.00-$5.00 fee per transaction.
- Prompt payment of fees is required for membership. Delayed payment will only be possible at the discretion of the Director of the “Pride” Marching Band.

Instrumentalists (Brass, Woodwinds and Percussion)

- Required:
 - Band Fee $135.00
- If Needed:
 - Marching Shoes $47.00
 - Instrument Rental $50.00
 - The Instrument Rental Fee must be paid prior to any instrument being issued to you and is charged per instrument per semester (Fall, Spring, and Summer).
 - Failure to return rented university-owned instruments/equipment will result in holds being placed on student’s campus accounts (grades, transcripts, etc.)
 - Official “Pride” Hat / Beanie $17.50 / $12.50
 - Additional Gloves / Practice Gloves $20.00

Color Guard Members

- Required:
 - Color Guard Fee $185.00
- If Needed:
 - Split-Sole Dance/Guard Shoes $42.00
 - Official “Pride” Hat / Beanie $17.50 / $12.50
 - Additional costume accessory costs may be incurred each season based on show concepts. These will be limited to those items which become the property of the student following the season. (i.e. shoes, hair products, gloves, etc.)

Replacement costs for instruments, music, flip folders, lyres, and uniform parts are not covered by the “Pride” Marching Band, and are the sole responsibility of the individual band member.

SCHOOL INSTRUMENTS/EQUIPMENT

Check Out/In

- Some instruments are owned by the Texas A&M University-Commerce Music Department and can be rented to band members who need them.
- Marching brass, percussion, and a limited number of woodwinds are available.
- Band members must complete the appropriate paperwork through the band office and pay the $50.00 per semester rental fee in order to receive an instrument.
- The instrument will be issued for the semester and will be the personal responsibility of the band member at all times.
- Following the final band performance of the semester, all instruments must be returned on time and in the same condition in which they were issued.
- All percussionists are required to pay the fee to cover the use of university-owned percussion instruments and equipment for the semester.
- Failure to return rented university-owned instruments/equipment in a timely manner may result in holds being placed on the student's campus accounts/records (grades, transcripts, etc.) and the student's name given to the campus and state law enforcement agencies.

Care and Maintenance

- Every effort has been made to provide band members with quality instruments in the best possible condition.
- These instruments must be cared for, cleaned, and kept in proper playing condition by the player.
- Take extra precautions throughout the semester to ensure that the instrument is returned in the same condition in which it was issued.
- Always transport the instrument in its case.
- Any problems with school-owned instruments must be reported to a staff member as soon as they arise.
- The student responsible for the instrument will be liable for repair expenses beyond normal wear and tear and those due to negligence or loss.

Music and Flip Folders

- Each band member will be issued music at the beginning of the season. All music is the responsibility of the individual band member for the entire marching season.
- Any and all lost music and flip folders will be replaced at the personal expense of the band member.
- Students will be issued flip folders at the beginning of band camp and are required to return them at the conclusion of the season.

Each band member must bring completely functional instruments/equipment, ALL music, charged smart device (with Ultimate Drill Book app loaded), a water jug, and a pencil to every rehearsal.

UNIFORM POLICIES/PROCEDURES

Check Out/In

- Each member is assigned the following uniform parts during “Pride Week”:
 - Jacket
 - Bib Pants
 - Hat (Shako)
 - Gauntlets
 - Navy Gloves (except percussion)
- All instrumentalists must provide the following:
 - Black Marching Shoes
 - Tall Black Socks (no patterns, stripes, or visible logos)

Uniform jackets, pants, gauntlets, and plumes will be distributed prior to each performance, and collected immediately following the end of the event.

Proper Uniform Etiquette

- Proper care of the “Pride” Marching Band uniform is the responsibility of the individual band members.
- The following are basic rules regarding how the uniform is to be worn:
 - A band member is either in uniform or not. This means that either ALL of the uniform is worn when in public view, or NONE of it is.
 - If the jacket is on, it must be fastened and closed. The uniform will be worn in its entirety throughout a performance unless otherwise specified by the director.
 - The uniform must be impeccable in appearance. Any wrinkling or stains marring the appearance of the uniform may be grounds for dismissal from a performance as an unexcused absence.
 - Stud earrings are permitted, but hoops and dangles are not. No other jewelry is to be worn on the student’s body, uniform, or instrument. (Instructors may request the covering of some piercings)
 - The official “Pride” Marching Band ball cap is worn in the stands by all band members. If the condition of the ballcap is considered unacceptable by the staff, the member will be responsible for purchasing a replacement.
 - Hair must be worn inside of the hat (Shako) and off the collar for all members, and must be a natural, professional color when in performance.
 - Make-up must be worn in moderation unless specified by instructors for auxiliary members.
 - Band members must not wear make-up on the jaw or neck area.
 - Face painting is not allowed while in uniform.
 - In addition to correct marching uniform attire (outer and innerwear), students are expected to maintain a professional personal appearance, at the discretion of the faculty.
 - No additional materials will be added to the uniform in the stands, during pre-game or halftime.
 - Only official Pride Marching Band baseball caps or beanies are to be worn in the stands.
 - Black marching shoes and socks must be worn to every performance - absolutely no other type of shoe is acceptable.
 - Shoes must be free of scuff marks and impeccably clean.
 - Only the official “Pride” Marching Band T-shirt (with sleeves intact) is to be worn under the uniform. Failure to wear the correct dry-fit undershirt may result in dismissal from a performance as an unexcused absence. It is recommended to wear compression shorts underneath the marching band pants to allow for freedom of movement and to alleviate modesty concerns.

- Jackets will not be removed unless ALL members are wearing the official “Pride” Marching Band t-shirts, again at the discretion of the director.
- One shirt will be issued to each band member. Additional shirts are available for purchase in the band office.
- Only clear liquids are acceptable while in uniform (at the discretion of the director) in order to preserve the condition of the uniform.
- Eating is not allowed while in uniform.
- Color guard members will only wear jewelry as designated by band staff members.
- Smoking or drinking alcohol while in uniform, or at any rehearsal, is strictly prohibited.

Uniform Fines

- Uniforms will be checked in at prescribed times at the end of the semester.
- Each uniform must be complete and in good condition at the time of check-in.
- Incomplete or missing uniforms will result in fines being assessed.
- Failure to pay fines will result in a grade of “incomplete” for the course and may result in further action through the university.

Replacement costs are as follows:

- Jacket $250.00
- Pants $125.00
- Hat $65.00
- Gauntlets $50.00
- Plume $30.00
- Garment Bag $20.00

- Poncho $40.00

Other Replacement Costs:

- Music Flip Folder $15.00
- Sousaphone Branch Protector $50.00
- Sousaphone Bell Cover $50.00

MEMBER EXPECTATIONS

Members of The “Pride” Marching Band are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that represents the University, the Department of Music, and the Band Program in the most positive light. This is true of all rehearsals, performances, and performance tours/trips. Common sense should be your guide in all of your personal actions. Please take note of the following policies:

Rehearsals

- The “Pride” Marching Band will rehearse, in some capacity, regardless of weather conditions. Please do not call the band office to verify rehearsal is taking place.

Rehearsal times are as follows:

- | | | |
|------------------|--------------|--|
| ● Marching Band | MUS 100M-004 | (M 7-9 PM, T-TH 12:30-2:45 PM) |
| ● Drumline | MUS 100D-014 | (M 6-9 PM, T-TH 12:30-2:45 PM) |
| ● Color Guard | MUS 100G-003 | (M 7-9 PM, T-TH 12:30-2:45 PM, W 6:00-7:00 PM) |
| ● Concert Band | MUS 100B-012 | (M-W-F 3:00-3:50 PM) |
| ● Symphonic Band | MUS 100B-011 | (M-W, 2:00-2:50PM/F2:00-3:50 PM) |
| ● Wind Ensemble | MUS 300W-005 | (M-W-F 12:00-1:50 PM) |

Rehearsal Expectations

- Arrive early to rehearsals.
- Never miss a rehearsal (or a performance).
- Follow the instructions of your staff, drum majors, and section leaders.
- Remain quiet and in position when instructions are being given (at standby).
- Be prepared for all rehearsals.
(working instruments, equipment, music, charged smartphone, UDBPro App, and pencil are required at every rehearsal)
- Check Ultimate Drill Book for updates to the drill.
- Memorize music and drill as quickly as possible.
- Sandals, high-top tennis shoes, and shoes without laces are not permitted during any outdoor rehearsal.
- Dress for Texas weather. (wear tennis shoes and socks)
- Smoking, drinking or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol at any rehearsal or band event is strictly prohibited.
- It is expected that you will speak professionally to staff and fellow band members.
- Inappropriate language will not be tolerated.
- If you need to leave rehearsal in an emergency, be sure to notify the appropriate staff before you leave.
- The music on the printed page has been arranged specifically for the “Pride”. Due to this fact, there is no need for ad-libbing or altering any music during rehearsals and performances.

GAME-DAY EXPECTATIONS/PROCEDURES

- Be early to all call times.
- The “Pride” Marching Band uses a zero-tolerance policy regarding tardiness and absences on game day (including game/exhibition-day rehearsals). If you are late, your grade will be affected.
- All uniform parts must be clean and wrinkle-free. Any wrinkling or stains marring the appearance of the uniform may be grounds for dismissal from a performance as an unexcused absence.
- Band members will be in uniform while playing.
- Following pre-game, all band members must sit or stand in their assigned area (as designated by staff) to support the team.
- EVERYONE participates in playing/cheering in the stands. Supporting the Lions is our primary responsibility.
- Individual playing of instruments in the stands is prohibited.
- Inappropriate language or taunts will not be tolerated.
- Cell phone use during the game is prohibited except in the event of an emergency. Please see a staff member or the director for clearance before making a call.
- Visits from friends, relatives, etc. while in the stands are prohibited (unless approved by staff)
- Band members and invited guests, pre-approved by the director, are the only people allowed in the band seating area during games.
- Color guard members will stand when the band plays, and follow their captains for routines/cheers.
- Band members may use the restroom during the game as needed; however, frequent trips and/or extended time away from the band will NOT be permitted. (Please notify a staff member before leaving the stands for the restroom)

- Band members will not be allowed to visit concession stands or eat in uniform during the game.
- Water will be provided following pregame and halftime.
- Following the game, the band will play the fight song and the alma mater in the stands.
- After the team leaves the field, the band will debrief in the band hall or concert hall for final announcements.
- Band members are not excused from the performance until “When the Roll” has been sung and any announcements from the staff have been made.

PERFORMANCE TOURS/TRAVEL

General Information

- Exhibitions, television opportunities, and select away games are part of The “Pride” Marching Band experience.
- Participation in every performance (as dictated by the calendar circulated in June), home or away, is mandatory.
- When classes must be missed for an out-of-town performance, excuse forms will be made available for professors (It is the responsibility of the band member to make up any missed work).
- Meals will be provided for meal times missed as a result of performance tours/travel (as funds allow).

TRADITIONS

Texas A&M University-Commerce Fight Song

- Fight! Fight! Fight! for Alma Mater dear; we’re gonna win that game today.
Let our voices ring loud and clear in the old East Texas way.
Yell! Yell! Yell! East Texas you're all right; you are the best of all.
We're gonna down those Bobcats and then come home tonight, with a Lion victory call.
Fight, Team! Fight! Fight! Fight! East Texas Lions are marching on today, onward to victory

The Alma Mater

- Verse
Let our voices loudly ringing echo far and near.
Songs of praise thy children singing, to thy memory dear.
- Chorus
Alma mater, Alma mater, loud her praises be,
Hail to thee, our Alma mater, hail, all hail to thee.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Student Conduct and Tenets of Common Behavior:

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.

The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Current University Student Guidebook

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

Campus Concealed Carry Statement:

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun.

Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

For a list of locations, please refer to the Carrying Concealed Handguns On Campus document and/or consult your event organizer.

Web url: <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M- Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903- 886-5868 or 9-1-1.

Nondiscrimination Notice

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

DCI / WGI Conflicts

The band faculty and staff fully support band members' aspirations to participate in either of these activities. We are more than willing to assist in reaching out to colleagues with these organizations to advocate for you and to assist you in mitigating conflicts. It is the expectation of the music faculty that scheduled university events must take priority in your schedule. All of the band faculty and staff are former participants in these activities, and we assure you that your prioritization of university events will be readily understood when conflicts arise.

The form linked below needs to be completed and submitted in order for an absence to be considered. Completing and submitting this form does not guarantee the student will be excused from the performance date indicated.

TAMUC Bands policy states that a maximum of one absence for a drum & bugle corps audition or camp may be excused per semester, at the discretion of the professor/conductor. Please refer to the course syllabus for specific attendance and grading policies.

Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma

The Zeta Kappa chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi and the Epsilon Beta chapter of Tau Beta Sigma would like to welcome you to the Texas A&M University Commerce band program! We are excited to see you join our incredible group of musicians this fall!

Who are we and what do we do?

We are a National Honorary Fraternity and Sorority that serves to better the band through service. Both organizations promote leadership, service, and musicianship. There are numerous opportunities for our members to attend leadership workshops and conferences throughout the state and nation. We strive to support our music department, band program, and community and we establish a high standard of academic success and musical excellence in our members.

Our organizations are comprised of students who typically help leadership positions in their high school bands or were to type of students who loved to help the band. We work together to make every band activity run smoothly. From setting up for concerts and marching practices, to providing snacks for band trips, to planning marching band banquet, Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma handle many of the important jobs that give our band the best possibility for success. We provide our members with a life long opportunity to be part of a fun, fulfilling, and enriching bond of brotherhood and sisterhood. Throughout our time at the university, we are given an outlet to better our band program and help in a way that goes above and beyond an average student. If you are interested in learning more about either organization, feel free to contact any member to ask questions, and join us for fun events like game nights in the upcoming fall semester. Both organizations are coed and open to any band member regardless of their major!
