* AR, LA and OK residents living in counties that border TX qualify to pay TX resident tuition rates. AR, LA and OK residents in non-bordering counties pay TX resident rates plus $30/sem credit hour.

Costs are based on 15 credit hrs/sem, using the 2013-2014 rates for tuition, fees and an average of housing. Prices are subject to change. Please visit our website for current information.

Living on campus is an amazing part of university life at A&M-Commerce. Eating, studying, and hanging out with new friends and faculty makes college an unforgettable experience, so we require all freshmen and sophomores to live on-campus. As a part of the on-campus community, you will have access to an exclusive integrated living-learning environment with countless opportunities to enhance your academic and social experience at the university.

If special circumstances restrict a freshman or sophomore student from living in university housing, please contact the Residential Living and Learning Office for the Commuter Authorization Form.

Freshman enjoy the unlimited meal plan. We also offer a meal plan to commuters.

As an A&M-Commerce student, you will find endless opportunities to express your school spirit. #MVFBOE (PME8FEOFTEBZ offers students, faculty, and staff an opportunity to show their school spirit by donning their blue and gold gear. The is also alive at A&M-Commerce. On spirit days and during major events, the statue of "Mr. Sam" outside the Rayburn Student Center is spruced up with blue and gold accessories.

For students who want to be involved, the Rayburn Student Center (RSC) is the place to be. The RSC is a spacious building dedicated to your needs as a student and is home to more than 100 student clubs and organizations. It is home base for the Campus Activities Board (CAB) and Fraternity and Sorority Life. The RSC features a dining room and food court; The Club, a venue for weekly special events and live entertainment; and a video gaming area with the latest releases, pool tables, table shuffleboard and air hockey.
