What are the criteria to be considered for transfer admission?

21 credit hours*  2.0 minimum GPA*

If you have less than 21 transferable hours or you are a high school student with college credit, you are still considered a freshman and must apply as one by submitting official ACT/SAT test scores, high school transcript and college transcript(s).

*Does not include developmental courses.  *Must be in good standing at the previous institution from which you are transferring.

How are credits evaluated?

- Assessed by admissions and may be reviewed by department heads or deans
- Only college-level courses with a grade of D or above will transfer
- Courses with grades below C may not count toward your major
- Your transferable credits will be shared with you upon completion of the evaluation

I applied for a previous semester and was accepted. Will I be accepted again?

If you applied as an incoming freshman or a transfer student and have since attended another institution, we will need those transcripts to verify your GPA before an admission decision can be made on your new application.
1. Submit Application
Apply at www.ApplyTexas.org and list A&M-Commerce as your school of choice. There is no application fee. An enrollment fee of $40 will be charged to your account upon enrollment.

2. Evaluate Transcript
International transcripts must be evaluated by an independent credential evaluation agency before being considered for admission.

3. Submit Information
Students must provide language proficiency requirements, proof of financial support, and copy of passport to the admissions office.

REQUIRED TOEFL SCORES:
- PBI: 550
- CBT: 213
- IBT: 79

(minimum scores required)

Credential Evaluation Agencies
Contact one of the following agencies for a transcript evaluation or for more info on the costs associated with this service. Upon completion, ask the agency to provide a copy to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

FINANCING

4 Step

1. GATHER INFO
   - To apply for financial aid, you will need your social security card, your federal tax returns (and your parents, if applicable), W-2 statements and/or other documents showing money earned or received.

2. FILE TAXES
   - If you or your parent(s) electronically file your income tax return with the IRS at least 10 days prior to completing the FAFSA, you can use the IRS Data Retrieval system when completing the income sections of your FAFSA. It’s easy and quick!

3. SUBMIT APP
   - Visit www.FAFSA.gov to request a pin. This will allow you to sign the FAFSA electronically. If you are a dependent, both you and one of your parents/guardian will need one. Go to www.FAFSA.gov (or for the TASFA, go to www.CollegeForAllTexas.com) to complete your application. Provide school code 003565.

4. FOLLOW UP
   - Check your myLEO to make sure everything has been received before the priority deadline of March 1 to be considered for the most aid.

HISPANIC OUTREACH

We believe in the importance of higher education for Hispanic students, and A&M-Commerce offers more support for our diverse student body than any other university around! Students and their families are advised on the application and financing process, in addition to student support services, outreach activities, and programs to enrich and retain diversity.

Creemos en la importancia de la educación superior para los estudiantes hispanos, y ¡A&M-Commerce ofrece más apoyo para nuestro cuerpo estudiantil que cualquier otra universidad a nuestros alrededores! Se aconseja a los estudiantes y sus familias sobre el proceso de aplicación y financiación, además de los servicios de apoyo estudiantil, actividades de difusión y programas para enriquecer y conservar la diversidad.
